and Boys' uits

noney in purchasing nore in buying.

all the cut prices all et a copy and bring carry out to the airs of trade which money-saving. The nd don't stop until rner. The break in but you have more an you will have time to wear your

> The Wonderful Cheap Man

artha Lakes VALLEY NAV. Co.

-ESTURION-

on leave 6.15 a.m. and 3.10 p.m Point " 7.15 " " 4.10 rrive 8.40 " " 5.30 " Leave 11.00 Point Lve 12.10 p.m, 7.40" on Arr 1.15 p.m and 8.55 " June, July, Aug., and Sept., s boat will wait arrival of evn from Toronto. to September 1st leave Lindp.m. instead of 5.45. Meals

Fenelon Falls, Lindsay -MANITA-

h to Sept 5th or till notice lve 6.00 a.m arr 7 40 p.m lock "7.00 " Ive 6.40 alls lve 8.30 " arr 5.15 Pt " 9.00 " " 4.45 arr 10.15 " lve 3.30 on made at Fenelon Falls ing train for Toronto and Port Hope. Time at Fenor breakfast and tea.

-OGEMAH-

to Sept. 5th or till notice lve 7.00 a.m arr 7.45 p.m ark "9 30 ar 4.35 lv 5.15 " "11.30 a.m lve 2.45 p.m lls ar 12.20 " " 1.30 m at Burleigh with "Em-.. k. field and ir termediate els served on board. be of tusses will give Petertion with morning and evt Chemong.

EMPRESS-

mencing June 15th lve 6.00 a.m lve 1.30 p.m  10.00 s" 10.50 " " 8.05 " 11.00 " " 8.15 "11.25 " " 8.40 " " 12.00 " " 9.05 " "12.30 " " 9.30 "

g on signal at Browns-f Hall's and Babties Island general information, apply to EP. WILDER, Ticket Agers

E WATCHMAN-WARDER

Circulation 5,000

Vol. XLVI, No. 25.

LINDSAY, THURSDAY, JUNE 18th, 1903.

75 Cents a Year in Advance; $1. if Not so Paid

In Politics, the Character loses

So it is with the store that sells poor trashy goods. The merchant imagines he wins, while the customer loses, because no customer gains The merchant imagines he wins, while anything in poor quality no matter how cheap.

not see that even as policy, it pays to have genuine value.

We tell you now that we have on hand a range of the finest Shirt Waists for the hot season, that you will find in this town or any other. Every garment a reliable one.

Don't sizzle in heavy waists when we can make you cool so cheaply.

True love is never chilled by ice cream, neither is true comfort by wearing our shirt waists; let's mention a few.

White Lawns of the finest with double rows insertion, horizontal, perpendicular, and diagonal tucked and taggoted, these at 75c, $1.00, 1.25, 1.75, 2.00, 3.00.

Black India Linen Muslin Waists, tucked and faggoted, in all sizes from 32 to 44 for 1.00. Colored muslin waists of every description and quality from 50c to $2.00.

To have your shirt waist up-to-date, you must have it finished off with one of our fashionable stock collars, the latest New York productions; look at them, even if you do not buy, as you will then can what you should have in neck turnishir gs.

Cash and One Price

KENT-ST.

LINDSAY

of business from a Whirlwind of Bargains.

$1.00 Shirts for 50c

20 Dozen Men's White and Colored French Cambric and Scotch Gingham Shirts to be sold while they last at 50c.

75c Shirts for 45c

10 Dozen Men's Heavy Drill Working Shirts, good value at 75c, while they last at 45c.

75c Overalls for 45c

12 Dozen Men's Striped Overalls with bib and braces, regular value at 75c to be cleared at 45c

Summer Ties 3 for 25c See our Summer Ties at 3 for 25c.

Linen Collars 4 for 25c

25 Dozen Men's and Boys' Linen Collars, all styles and all sizes, to be cleared at 4 for 25c.

75c Sailor Hats 25c

See Our Ladies' Fine White and B'ack S. ilor Hats at 25c We carry the largest assortment of Men's and Boy's Felt Hats in the City and our prices are just half what you would pay elsewhere

Men's 50c Underwear 20c Boys' sweaters at 25c Men's Fine Black socks at 15c. or 2 pairs for 25c

Have You Tried Our American Shoes We are seiling them for less money than the manufacturer is loo Pairs Children's Shoes at 20c. Ladies' Slippers at 13c

Sylvester's Old Stane, Next door to Post Office, Lindsay

The Village Asks that its Bonds for $75,000 be Guaranteed by the County

Endorse but Lindsay's Objection Prevailed at the Third Reading

The most important committee of the County Council in the session that closed Saturday was the Findebentures to be issued by the village with the rest of the property. The for a long time andover till the November session.

The committee, moreover, voted before January 1906, was brought to deputation of Home for the Aged of- fect ? ficials. This deputation asked that the work of erecting a Refuge be not delayed to the time indicated by the tax its own property ?

At the request of the School Board of Lindsay the statute requiring the town to pay its share of the cost of maintaining county pupils at the Collegiate Institute was over-ridden from sentimental considerations. THE FENELON FALLS BONDS

Some time ago the enterprising tive tenants have made a success village of Fenelon Falls awoke to it for 18 years. power by which it is made famous. how are they disposed toward the a sharp little tilt on an historic carried, and held it up, shouting: That on the north side of the river scheme? was owned by McDougall & Brandon electric light station. At a cost of went to the Legislature with us. $75,000 the village bought the entire tion for the right to do so.

tion of the county was sought by a dustry. large deputation headed by Dr.

A Good Crop of is secured by growing

TRY THEM

Gregory, Corner Drug Store, Lindsay

Grindstones Ball Bearing Grindstone Fixtures Wire Fencing Fencing Tools Cushion Frame Cleveland Bicycles Fishing Tackle ee our stock.

and Thos. Austin, and Messrs. Geo. hear it. Jordan and Jos. Heard.

Some people are foolish in business and do In Committee Council Decided to a county. The county endorsation Dr. Wood-What of Lindsay's street or Lindsay street would enable the village to get an light? (Laughter). advantage in the interest rate that would mean about $300 a year.

mill cost $6,000. Its equipment was of Fenelon Falls, for the purpose of worth $10,000. The electric plant what it would take to run the plants ness proposition. owned by the village. The revenue Delegate McFarlane-When Fenelon reason of the intrusion. Col. Naurental from the mill would make the charity. The new legislation requiring the whole scheme a paying one. Already county to erect a House of Refuge the village had a standing offer of Dr. Gould-About 1 per cent.

the rate of interest or $300. Councillor Graham-Will the village there.

Dr. Gould-It will still tax the mill, if it is rented, at the former assessment of $9000. Councillor Graham-Those rent the mill may fail to make it a success, just as a farm tenant might; where would your 10-year lease and $1000 a year rental be ? Solicitor McDiarmid-The prospec-

the advantages that might be derived | Councillor Graham-Are there any

Dr. Gould-There is Mr. Sandford's and operated that firm's mill and mill; but he favors the project. He to object?

Councillor Graham-He, then, could not very well oppose your scheme. Councillor Shaver-I see the people voted on issuing 40-year debentures we are a low type. and the Legislature ratified them as ily operated and the whole thing pre- sorry they have come here asking for sents more risk than the county is the favor they have.

Councillor Austin-I knew Fenelon would lose if it was no good. ing in it. It was then assessed for ed. That figure was cut down by the village officials for the sake of paying a smaller county

Councillor Graham-That is a serious charge to make against the vil-

Councillor Austin-I don't care ; know what was done. Moreover, the assessors were often given verbal instructions to lightly assess good concerns. Then we used to pay 21 cents on the dollar, taxes; after, the assessment was raised to $300,000 and we paid 15 mills. The assessment could well be put up another $100,-000. The village is not going back it is not built that way. It is not afraid of an increased county rate but as a child of the county and one to be proud of-for it is among the THE KING AND QUEEN most prosperous villages in the province-it should get the favor it now precedent, and no risk to the county Soldiers Enter the Palace and Shoot both asks. There is nothing in it as Councillor Dr. Wood-I do not see any strong objection to doing as the plant will be worth four times $75,- were murdered between midnight and ing announcing the eccession to the 000 in six months.

Councillor Scully favored granting the result of a mis ary conspiracy, the request, although he was shy of headed by Major Arc kovitch.

The solicitor explained that the prises similar to this that have not soldier. The rest of the guard were bonds of a township or village could succeeded. The milling business is then overpowered. The noise of the not be sold in foreign markets, as not a success in Canada; nor has melee at the gates brought together those of a country could, and hence the lighting business been an over- the palace servants and attendents, that if you endorse those bonds, and the slightest resistance. A number Dr. Gould declared that the project the venture turns out to be a failure, of the palace guards who sought eswas not regarded by Fenelon Falls the village will ask you to take part cape were mercilessly bayoneted. In as a speculative venture. It was of the responsibility. I hope it will this way the queen's youngest browas expected to yield a surplus from not fail, but I want to take no risk thes, who appeared in a passage in the outset. The village had been of hampering Emily and Laxton to his night clothes, met his death at compelled to take the mill with the promote an industry at Fenelon the hands of a private. He rushed power, for the owners would rebate Falls. Mr. Fairbairn's statement out of his room shouting, "What ance Committee, and the most im- only $10,000 if it were not taken that the property will be worth 4 does this mean? How dare you enportant act of the committee was its and since it yielded $1,000 a year it times its cost in 6 months is surdecision to guarantee the $75,000 of was thought good business to take it prising. It has been on the market ed him to consider himself under ar-

Councillor Fairbairn-No. Councillor Graham-Well, it is not burst open the door leading to the financing the municipal power scheme entire was worth $6,000, so the vil- likely that the owner sold it from king's apartment with a bomb. Col. which that village has undertaken. lage had bought $22,000 worth of patriotic motives. I think Mr. Fair- Naumovitch, Col. Mischits, and Ma-Upon objection next day from the developed property. The total elec- bairn mentioned that figure just be- jor Lazarovitch, the latter an open tric energy to be developed at that cause it came easy. Mr. Scully has enemy of the king, rushed into the Lindsay council the decision to enpart of the Falls, Dr. Gould said endorsed, and is sorry for it; I don't king in his night dross stood on the dorse was not sustained at the third was estimated at 600 h.p. It want to be sorry. Giving to the king, in his night dress, stood in the reading, and the matter was laid was expected that there would be 350 back townships is a charity; this is middle of the room, pale and excithorse power for sale in excess of not charity, nor is it a good busi- ed. In his hands he held a revolv-

$800 to the Ross Memorial Hospi- from that and the $1000 or $1500 Falls needs charity you can give it movitch held towards him a payer, a rope around our necks. Our ans- tains a promise on your part to wer should be as that of the Toron- break with woman Draga, this Councillor Fairbairn-What saving to capitalists, when Lindsay wanted woman of ill-repute, who has brought the attention of the committee by a would the county's endorsation ef- to float a Fenelon power scheme : disgrace on your house and the ma-Get us a guarantee that you have tion. Failing this you must abdithe power" said they. The expert cate." was sent and said the power was not. The king stepped back towards his to make that report?" interjected who fell dead, shot through the head. Solicitor McDiarmid snapping his At this moment Queen Draga appearfingers, "You know it, now tell us."

Mr. McDiarmid. plied Mr. Graham, "and you must refused to leave, and advancing to-my word." responded Solicitor McDiarmid, and up the paper which his comrade had Solicitor McDiarmid said that if free Servia from your miserable prethe venture did not succeed at all, sence." and the whole cost fell on the taxes, Councillor Graham-Did he get any they would be only three mills high-sell to better advantage, the endorsa- bed for $15,000 stock in his in- that high the people of Fencion Falls fered a most heroic resistance in ana 21-cents rate.

would assume about a quarter of the to face with Col. Maschin, he was Dr. Gould-The Legislature has county's risk, but he would support shot dead by that determined congranting the request of the village. spirator. At the sight of Col. Mas-Councillor Graham-To endorse Councillor Channon had had a chin, inflamed with passion, and with these debentures would establish a little experience with endorsing notes the lust for blood in his eye, the bad precedent. It would make it and had had to pay them. Just as king turned to the queen and bade hard for the county to refuse similar rosy a proposition had not long ago her flee for her life. favors to other municipalities. More- been presented to him "and" said over I do not regard it as good bus- the wary legislator "they pretty iness in this case. The assessment near had me. If they had got me of Fenelon Falls is $214,000 and into that pork-packing scheme at that is not much more security for Stouffville I should have been out." $75,000 than a loan company would Fenelon Falls people are clever peoprequire. The mill may not be stead- le and are doing well, but I am

Councillor McGee favored endors-If we endorse these debentures we ing. Chairman Staback thought the shall be helping a concern that will legislature must have looked into the come into competition with the merits of the venture before giving Light, Heat & Power Company of special legislation, and he was will-Lindsay, which although it does not ing to trust their judgment. Councount me among its friends should at cillor Bryans would like the county Councillor that the Fenelon Shaver's fear that the county had scheme is to be a very profitable not the power to endorse, was alone; in that case the village does layed by Solicitor McDiarmid's asnot need the help it is asking us to surance that the village was willing to take it anyway; nobody else

Falls before there was a brick build- The motion to endorse was carri-

A COLLEGIATE MATTER

Board were present to protest again- the king and queen were rolled in st a proposal of Councillor Shaver sheets and lowered by soldiers throthat the town's share of the cost of ugh a window to the courtyard. maintaining county pupils at the Here they were surrounded by a Collegiate Institute should be no guard until a wagon appeared and longer remitted.

Councillor Shaver declared that the statute certainly held Lindsay liable; it even said that towns separated from the county must pay that rate. night, and there was no sign of any-Further reasons why the tax should thing unusual except that a large not be remitted as a matter of fa- number of troops patroiled the

(Continued on Page 6)

OF SERVIA WERE MURDERED

King Alexander, Queen Draga, building. make Fenelon Falls prosperous, and ter; the Ministers of War and the army is under the complete control it is the county's duty to help in Interior, Gen. Lasar Pecovitch and of their leaders, who were all includthat. We give special grants to Gen. Milowan Pavlovitch, a former ed in the rebellion for the restoraoutlying parts of the county, and Minister of War, together with the tion of the rival dynasty of Karagshould consider this in a similar queen's brother, Nikodem, and her eorgevitch. two sisters, the king's adjutant, and A proclamation was posted in Pel-endorsing for anybody, and had good The conspirators on de the palace were challenged by the wards at the Councillor Graham-It is wonder- gates, whom Col. Nat novitch had ful to see how easily gentlemen of neglected to instruct. They were this council assume that there is no ordered to open the gates. They rerisk involved in this thing. I am fused and a short parley ensued, Gould, and accompanied by Solicitor not surprised at Councillor Austin; during which Col. Maschin walked McDiarmid on Friday afternoon. Be- he lives up there; but am surprised away to procure assistance from a sides these gentlemen there were that he charges the sworn officials company of the 6th regiment sta-Reeve Jos. McFarlane, and Coun- of the village with having violated tioned close by. Capt. Panajovitch, cillors G. H. McGee, Geo. Martin, their oaths of office. I am sorry to in charge of the palace guard, still refused to admit the party, where-I think all present know of enter- upon he was stabbed to death by a who were immediately made prison-

Councillor Graham-I will tell you ders to shoot down anyone offering

Meanwhile, Col. Naumovitch had

Councillor Graham-We don't want signature to this paper. It con-bed, and, aiming deliberately, fired "Yes, and how much was he paid his revolver at Col. Naumovitch, ed at a door opposite, crying out "I do not know" replied Mr. Gra- for help. The king turned to her and begged her to be calm and not "It is said you did know" replied to be frightened. He soothed her with tender words, and requested her "I have said I do not know" re- to return to her apartments. She take back that statement or accept wards Col. Mischits begged him piteously not to murder them. Col. "Oh of course, I will take it back" Mischits had in the meantime picked

DEFENDER SLAIN At this moment Co,. Maschin, the property and secured special legisla- favor that would make it impossible er than Councillor Graham was pay- queen's brother-in-law, rushed into Councillor Graham-With a rate with Capt. Lunyevitza, who had of-Delegate McFarlane-We have paid Lunyevitza was wounded in a dozen places with bayonet thrusts and bul-Dr. Gould-Mr. Graham must think lets. He had torn past the king's enemies sword in hand fighting his Councillor Shaver said Mariposa way to the door, where, coming face

THE REGICIDE

They both ran from the room, followed by the officers. Behind the soldiers. The king and queen ran through the sleeping apartments, slamming the doors behind them. They were followed by shots from the soldiers. They reached the roof of the palace in safety, but here were overtaken. The king stood in iront of his consort and faced the enemy unflinchingly. He bore himself with royal courage, fearlessly to the last. The final scene was over in a moment Major Lazarovitch stepped up to his majesty and discharged his revolver full in his face. The king fell, but raised himself again as if to speak.

A second shot was fired, and Alexander fell back dead. The queesn was fatally shot by a soldier. Another man stabbed her in the neck with a bayonet, as she fell over her husband's body. The moon shone dimly upon the scene of Several members of the School the ghastly tragedy. The bodies of carried thme to the chapel. THE PEOPLE PLEASED

The city remained quite during the streets. The news was not general-(1) Lindsay gets $800 of the $12,- ly known until daylight. The people next day thronged the streets and discussed the affair quitely. The assemblage of crowds and movement toward the palace was prevented by the troops. There was no sign of popular resistance to the coup d'etat. The people loadly cheered stojan Protitch, the new Minister of Interior, as he drove to the ministerial ownership. This venture will likely of Servia, the Prime Midis- There is every indication that the Councillor Fairbairn-I believe the twelve soldiers of the Royal Guard grade and the provinces next morntwo o'clock on Thursday morning as throne of Peter Karageorgevitch.