PRODUCTIVE MINES NEAR BANCROFT.

The Mineral Range Iron Co. is putting in a five-mile spur from the Central Ontario Railway to its mine near Bancroft. Already very large contracts are booked for magnetic iron ore with steel operators in the United States. The ore is very rich, averaging about 60 per cent. metallic iron. It is not suitable for the Bessemer process, but is used in open hearth process, which of late years has been revived. There is an unlimited supply of this ore, which hitherto has been unworked owing to the sulphur and titanium it contained. If, as is thought, it can be handled to advantage, a very large industry is sure to be established.

THE NEW C.P.R. SURVEY ITS ROUTE THROUGH LINDSAY

Ninety-Seven Miles Long, and may be made Shorter—Eastern Terminus not Decided—Will Cross River at Lindsay.

The Toronto Star of June 19 contains the following news article concerning the new C.P.R. line to Georgian Bay: "Canadian Pacific Railway extensions are gradually being mapped out, the latest for which tenders are called being the line from the Peterborough neighborhood to Victoria Harbor, known as the Georgian Bay and Seaboard Railway. This line is ninety-seven miles long, as at present projected, but may be somewhat shorter before the final plans are completed. It practically parallels the Grand Trunk, especially from the Couchiching Narrows to the Harbor. "Starting from the neighborhood of Peterboro', the line goes over the hill at Mud Lake, and for ten miles or so in the immediate vicinity of the town it is somewhat snakelike in construction. Indeed, the whole line is affected by the many hills; but this is most evident in the neighborhood of the terminals, east and west. It will pass near the village of Omeamee, a deputation from which recently urged the village's claims. It will go through Lindsay, and pass one mile east of Camaroy, three and one-half miles west of Glenora, two miles south of Eldon, through Brochlin, through Uptergrove, through Athery Junction, to Orillia; thence through Coldwater and Fesserton to Victoria Harbor. "The new railway will cross the Couchiching Narrows on a draw-bridge. The Talbot and Pigeon rivers will also be crossed, and the Scugog at Lindsay."

GRIEVANCES OF RATEPAYERS BEFORE COURT OF REVISION

The Court of Revision met in the council chamber on Monday evening to hear the complaints of taxpayers in regard to the recent assessment. There were present Mayor Vrooman, Councillors Rea, Maund, McFadden, O'Reilly, and the two assessors, Messrs. Geo. H. Lindsay and J. Fleury. The appeals made in conformity with the advertisement were heard and most of them acted upon. There were about thirty cases.

The levy against the property occupied by L. A. Archambault, corner of Bond and Cambridge streets, was re-assessed to the present occupant, Baker & Bryans, through Mr. G. H. Hopkins, objected to the valuation on all the property occupied by their manufactory and on the property for the land and buildings. The assessment was $1000. It is claimed that the land is not worth that amount and that the building is a mere shell. The saw-mill property is assessed at $1000 for land and $3000 for buildings. These figures are claimed to be too high. The assessors add to the value of the buildings the worth of the engine and boiler, which according to their reading of the act they have a right to do, as these are the motive power. Mr. Hopkins claimed that it is not the intention of the act to include as machinery, which is exempt. The buildings, he claimed, could be used for a coal shed, and the value of the bridge is valued at $400 for land and $300 for building. A vacant lot east of the church is valued at $1000, and another property at $1000. Mr. Hopkins submitted that Messrs. Baker & Bryans are running a manufacturing industry and are entitled to the fairest treatment. They pay $3000 a month in wages, and they are willing to do the fair thing. "They feel that the assessment of 60 per cent. should on the coal sheds be reduced to 35 per cent, because that is a retail business. Because they happen to be running a factory it is not to follow that all other industries owned by them should be assessed the same. The coal business is in separate building.

The assessors claim they must assess a business on the basis of its predominant feature. This case was not decided, but will be heard at another session of the court next Tuesday.

G. C. Burgess, assessed $1200 for a house and lot that he paid $1500 for, claimed that he was taken in when he purchased and that the property was not worth more than $1000. It was reduced to $1100. Mr. Hopkins also represented Col. R. H. Sylvester, who is away at camp with his regiment at Cobourg. Col. Sylvester is assessed at $1000 for income tax, the same as last year. It is claimed that he does not get that much exclusive of income from stock in the Sylvester manufacturing company, which is not assessable because the business is liable for that. The assessors claim that Col. Sylvester would not fill out the slip or tell them what he got. Mr. Hopkins did not know his income. The clerk will send a declaration for him to fill and sign. The assessment of the Bradburn estate was confirmed as it is. Richard Boyle claimed exemption from poll tax on account of being a member of the Canadian militia. The tax is $2.00 and the assessment was confirmed, allowing him to deal with the chief.

Mr. Thos. Connolly, lot and house $1100. He claims the house cost $625 and a foundation added $111 cost $85. The house rents for $11 a month. It is 22 1/2 feet, and is occupied by Wm. C. McGregor. Mr. Connolly swears it is only worth $1000. On motion the assessment of $1100 was confirmed. David Dunoon, Wellington street, north, Mrs. Ward and houses $2000; shall tenants, two $1,600. He claims it is only worth $1,600. The houses get $3 a month rent. The houses were old style. Court reduced it to $1800.

Mr. J. H. Sootheran, for Miss De Grassi, objected to assessment of $3600 on property occupied by Dr. W. H. Clarke, claiming that it does not pay 50 per cent. on the assessed value. The assessment was confirmed. Mr. Sootheran also appealed from the assessment of $2500 for Messrs. Squier & Son, as they came here with the understanding that the assessment should remain at $1000 for ten years, and this is only the last year. This agreement will stand, but there is a difference as to the nature of his business, whether it is wholesale or retail, the court believes it to be wholesale, and he would place the business assessment at 50 per cent. on the land, and the decision of the assessors. They are seedsmen, and Mr. Sootheran claimed that they pay for growing the seed and grow it to order, but Mayor Vrooman thinks it is the manner of disposal and not the nature of the business. Mr. Michael Guirey objected to paying $22.76 tax on lane on north Kent street for which he receives $5 rental. The lane is ten feet wide and same depth as lot, and lane in that vicinity is assessed $110 per foot frontage. It was raised from $100 last assessment to $1100. The lane is used as an entrance to rear of business houses. Assessment was confirmed.

The Late Alexander Brown

The ranks of the older settlers in the vicinity of Woodville have been visibly thinned of late by the grim reaper and very frequently have we been called on to say concerning many familiar figures that "the place thereof shall know them no more." A gloom was cast over this community on the morning of the 19th of May, when it became generally known that Mr. Alexander M. Brown had passed to his reward, for although he had been ill for an extended period, it seemed hard to believe that such a useful career must have so speedily a termination. Mr. Brown had been in failing health for a year past, suffering from affection of the stomach, which defied the skill of the best practitioners, and finally assumed a dropsical tendency, with the result that the end came very peacefully and almost unexpectedly. The late Alex. M. Brown was born in the prime of life, having been born in 1840, of Irish parentage, and had spent many years in the vicinity of Woodville, near Cannington for a lengthy period, from whence he moved some years ago to the fine farm in Mariposa, with its comfortable homestead.

Deceased was a man whose word was as good as his bond, and whom to know was to love and respect. He was deeply interested in the cause of right, and active in church circles, being at the time of his death an honored elder of the Woodville Presbyterian church. The session feel deeply the loss of such a helpful and active member of this vicinity. May those who remain, emulate such an example. Ample testimony to the esteem in which Mr. Brown was held by all classes, was given by the large numbers who gathered to pay a last tribute of respect to one whom they had learned to love and respect. A service appropriate to the occasion, was held at the home by his pastor, Rev. W. M. Kammawin, B.D., assisted by Rev. Mr. Cragg, after which the remains were tenderly borne to their final resting place in McIndoo's cemetery. And now he stands with his Saviour, gazing on the finished story of his life, and wearing the victor's crown.

O, weep not for the blessed dead, Nor wish them here again, What I bring them back to earth and sin, To feel its grief and pain?
O, weep not for the blessed dead, But try to catch their strain, While on their golden harps they sing, His love for sinners slain.
O, weep not for the blessed dead, They are but gone before, Their schooling days of pain are past, And ours will soon be o'er!

JANETVILLE.
One of the most necessary and useful articles in a home is a refrigerator. Use it once and see how nice it keeps meat, butter and milk during the warm weather. A nice assortment and low in price at Cinnamon's, Lindsay.
The funeral of the late Thos. McGee, of this place, on Thursday last week was largely attended. The community loses one of its oldest and best respected citizens and to the Methodist church especially a severe blow has come. Mr. McGee was one who ever rejoiced, who ever acknowledged a privilege to acknowledge the Master whom he served. He had for many years been a regular attendant at the Sunday morning class meeting. He always took an active and gave his best to the Master's service. Mr. McGee had learned to "set his affections on things above"; he meditated upon the life beyond and was so filled with joy in anticipating the glory of God's kingdom that this earth seemed to have lost the attraction for him and he was waiting for the great transition assured that then he would hear the Master's voice saying to him "Friend, go up higher." Such a life as that of Mr. McGee is of ungodly good. He served his own generation and fell asleep. He is gone, but we can hardly call it death. Even in this world the Saviour whom he so often confessed, had raised him above the fear of death, and in his life and departure he bore unwavering testimony to the truth that "In all things we may be more than conquerors through Him who loved us." A memorial service is to be held in the church Sunday evening, 24th inst.

May those who remain, emulate such an example. Ample testimony to the esteem in which Mr. Brown was held by all classes, was given by the large numbers who gathered to pay a last tribute of respect to one whom they had learned to love and respect.

Mr. Joseph Walker has been feeling indisposed for a couple of days, but is recovering.
Mrs. Wm. Anderson, who was delegate to Port Hope for the W.M.S., has returned and reports a very interesting session.
The pastor, Rev. Mr. Ward, took the service in Omeamee church Sunday morning and in Queen-st. church, Lindsay, in the evening.
Dr. Nasmyth, captain of the local militia, and about 20 of the boys, are off for the season's drill at Cobourg.

PENIEL—MARIPOSA.

Perhaps the largest funeral that ever took place in this vicinity was that of the late Alex. M. Brown, being over one mile in length. He was a good citizen, a successful farmer, and will be greatly missed in this community. The pall-bearers were selected from the members of the Woodville Presbyterian church, of which deceased was a member, and also an official. Rev. Mr. Kammawin, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Cragg, conducted the services.

Cragg, conducted the services, Mr. Kammawin speaking in the highest terms of the deceased, who held the office of deacon at the time of his death in his church, also making personal mention about his many good Christian qualities and steadfastness in the faith. Mrs. Brown, two sons and three daughters survive him, and have the sympathy of the neighborhood. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

Yesterday the streets of Lindsay were enlivened for a few hours by the excursionists who came from Agincourt and intermediate places on their way to Bobcaygeon.
The members of the Agincourt I. O. F. lodge and the Sons of Scotland yearly have an excursion to different points, and this year they chose to go to the village of Bobcaygeon. There were nearly 300 in the party, and they were having a fine outing. They knew where to be well fed, for they stopped at Lindsay hotels for dinner.
Most of them went by train, leaving at one o'clock, returning by boat in the afternoon.
Mr. J. C. Clark, who represented his court at the high court of Foresters which met here last August, was the secretary of the committee, and Mr. J. Elliott, chairman.
