A PRETTY WEDDING

BETHEL YOUNG COUPLE UNITED IN MARRIAGE.

Bethel, June 21.—Mr. McKenzie, pastor of Bethel circuit, preached an excellent sermon last night from the words found in Rev. 20: 12. He spoke mainly about the words, "And the books were opened and another book was opened, which is the book of life."

On Wednesday, June 16, Miss Lillie Jane Mills, Bethel, became the bride of Mr. Wilfrid James Jackson, of the same burg. Early in the evening a large concourse of friends and relatives assembled at the home of Mrs. Chas. Mills to witness the marriage of the above-mentioned couple. The ceremony was performed at exactly six-thirty p.m., by Rev. Mr. R. McCullough, of Omemuncie, assisted by Mr. McKenzie, pastor of Bethel circuit. The young people were married on the lawn near the house under a beautiful arch of cedar boughs. Miss Ella Switzer, cousin of the bride, played the wedding march. The bride's sister, Miss Annie, of Rochester, N.Y., assisted the bride and the groom was supported by Mr. Eugene Switzer. The bride who was given away by her brother, George, looked very pretty, dressed in white mercerized mull, trimmed with val lace and insertion. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid was also prettily gowned in French muslin trimmed with val lace and insertion, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. After the ceremony was performed a sumptuous tea was ready at which over one hundred guests were served. A very large number of beautiful and useful presents were received by Mr. and Mrs. Jackson evincing the high esteem in which they are held by their friends at Bethel and elsewhere. Soon after supper, the bride, wearing a beautiful cream labelle hat and a pretty tailored suit of brown satin cloth, departed, with "her own" to beautiful "Maple Grove," the residence of her husband. That this marriage may prove a life-long honeymoon is the sincere wish of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson's many friends here.

Mr. Norman and Miss Mina Edmondson, of Peterboro, were the guests of Miss Cora and Olive Switzer yesterday.

Miss Ida Kerr, of Carberry, Man., is at present visiting relatives here.

Miss Switzer, of Brock township, is now visiting at the home of Mr. John Lovins.

People of Bethel and the surrounding country should not forget that the League of the church here expect to run an excursion from Peterboro per steamer Water Lily on Tuesday, June 29. The boat will go over the lift lock (but those not wishing to "go over" will have the privilege of going around) and will sail down Stony Lake, calling at several places, the principal ones being Lakefield and Burleigh Falls. People may stop over at any place en route.
