Got Trousers Wet But Landed Fish

King's Wharf, June 28.—Mr. D. M. Leary, of Los Angeles, Cal., while visiting his brother J. C. Leary, postmaster, had an experience that he will not forget for many a day. D. M. was invited to go fishing on the beautiful water of Pigeon Lake. They were out only a very short time when he landed a 25-pound lunge, but not without some difficulty. Wishing to show his brother how they fish in California he allowed the big boss of the water to play for a while on the line, but in some way or other the fish got under the boat and he got his trousers wet, but landed the fish all the same. Mr. Leary will have a good fish story to tell when he arrives in Los Angeles.

Miss Nellie Corch, of Toronto, attempted suicide at Rochester by drinking carbolic acid.

Sidney Hursey, a young lawyer, of Dillon, S. C., was shot and probably mortally wounded as he left a courtroom, by Richard S. Davis, a hotel man. Davis said Hursey ruined his home.

Anthony Daljnic, 14 years old, is dying of lockjaw at Paterson, N. J., as the result of carrying a joke too far. Playing with schoolmates, he placed a Fourth of July pistol loaded with blank cartridges to his face and jokingly said to his comrades looking on: "See me shoot myself." He pulled on the trigger a little too hard and the wadding from a cartridge entered his cheek.
