Picton Chinaman Strikes it Rich

Sing Lee, the bright young Chinaman who has been in the laundry business in Picton for four years. left on Monday of this week for Cal gary, Alberta, where he will prob ably locate. Lee has struck it rich. Previous to coming to Picton he lived in Calgary. Five years ago he bought "a field." It was on the line of the main street of the town but miles from the centre of things. But Calgary did not stand still : grew and expanded by leaps and bounds. Lee paid $5,000 $25,000 for Lee's town lot. He only smiled, shook his head knowingly and whispered that he would take be their site. They offered Lee $85,-000 for his lot.

" If it's worth $85,000, it's worth $100,000; me waite," stolidly said the knowing Chinaman. Now he's off to Calgary to watch his interest.

Text of the Lesson, Matt. xi, 2-19. Memory Verses, 5, 6-Golden Text, Luke vii, 28, R. V.-Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

According to the barmony of the gos- Oliver Mowat was doubtless as sinpels, the Sermon on the Mount was followed by His using Simon Peter's boat as a pulpit and then filling their net the leper and the paisied man, the call of Matthew and the feast be prepared Government, which was carried out in his own house, the healing of the by the people, but without result. impotent man at Bethesda, the man in the synagogue with the withered hand, the night of prayer, the choosing of the twelve, the sermon on the plain, the healing of the centurion's servant, the raising to life of the widow's son and much teaching day by day. Whether this is quite correct as to the order of events or not is not all important if we can by faith see ourselves day by day with Him who, being anointed with the Holy Ghost and with power, went about doing good and healing all that were oppressed of the devil, God being with Him and doing through Him the miracles and signs and wonders (Acts who did not see these wonders of His power from day to day, for he was shut up in a prison for the truth's sake. but he heard of them and evidently wondered why the one upon whom he had seen the Spirit descend like a dove and remain upon Him, who, he had been told by God, was the Messiah and whom he had pointed out as the Lamb of God (John 1, 31-36), did not deliver him from prison, for it had been predicted concerning Him that He would proclaim liberty to the captives and the opening of the prison to them that are bound (Isa. lxi. 1). As far as we time, and the father of lies was no efficiency, and who has them now in doubt very busy with John questioning the way of God and the love of God and insinuating that, after all, John must have been mistaken in pointing out Jesus as the Messiah. If John had not been in some way and in some measure offended with Jesus would He have sent him the message He did, St. Vitus Dance "Blessed is he whosoever shall not be offended in Me?" (Verse 6.) To the question of John through the two disciples whom he sent, "Art thou he that should, or do we look for another?" (verse 3) Jesus in that same hour wrought many miracles and said, "Go your way and tell John what things ye have seen and heard," and then He add ed the word about not being offended (Luke vii, 20-23). At one time Jesus said to the Jews, "If I do not the works of my Father believe Me not, but if I do, though ye believe not Me, believe the works that we may know and be lieve that the Father is in Me and I in Him" (John x. 37, 38). All this is in accord with last week's lesson on the necessity of works as an evidence, and doing always precedes teaching (Matt. v, 19; Mark vl, 30; Acts I, 1; Iv. 20; Luke xxiv, 19). Notwithstanding all His mighty works on behalf of Israel when and after He had brought them out of Egypt, they were constantly being offended with Him and murmuring against Him. They spake against Him, they believed not in Him, they
