

The Blue Serge Suit

There is nothing that will take the place of the BLUE SERGE SUIT for SUMMER COMFORT—it is the ideal suit for warm weather.

The SERGE SUIT slips on so easily; feels so cool on the warmest day; looks so cool; and never irritates by losing its shape—too well tailored for that.

The fabrics are fine twilled, soft and serviceable. The Blues are deep, rich and permanent.

The Suits have the distinctiveness and character of custom made CLOTHES because they've gone through the same painstaking process of production.

$8, $10, $12 to $20

SUMMER UNDERWEAR

We have no need to argue underwear with you.

Our stock of undergarments is so complete that you need but name the sort which comfort demands no matter what size, weave, or cut. The prices are just right in every instance.

Drawers, regular and stout sizes, knee or full length. Shirts, coat and conventional models with long, short or athletic sleeves.

Fabric—nainsook, muslin, lisle, balbriggan, linen, mesh, cotton, natural wool and silk.

Single Garments 25c, 35c, 50c to $2

BOY'S CLOTHING

We desire to call the attention of parents to our long wear CLOTHES made of long wear cloths, by Boys' Tailors who know how to put together Boy's Clothes that will give long and pleasing wear.

No More to pay than you'd lay down for Short-Wear Clothes

Suits at $1.50 $2, $3 to $9

These SUITS are the pride of our store and the comfort of PARENTS.

Look at these splendid SUITS—examine them and then match them elsewhere if you can.

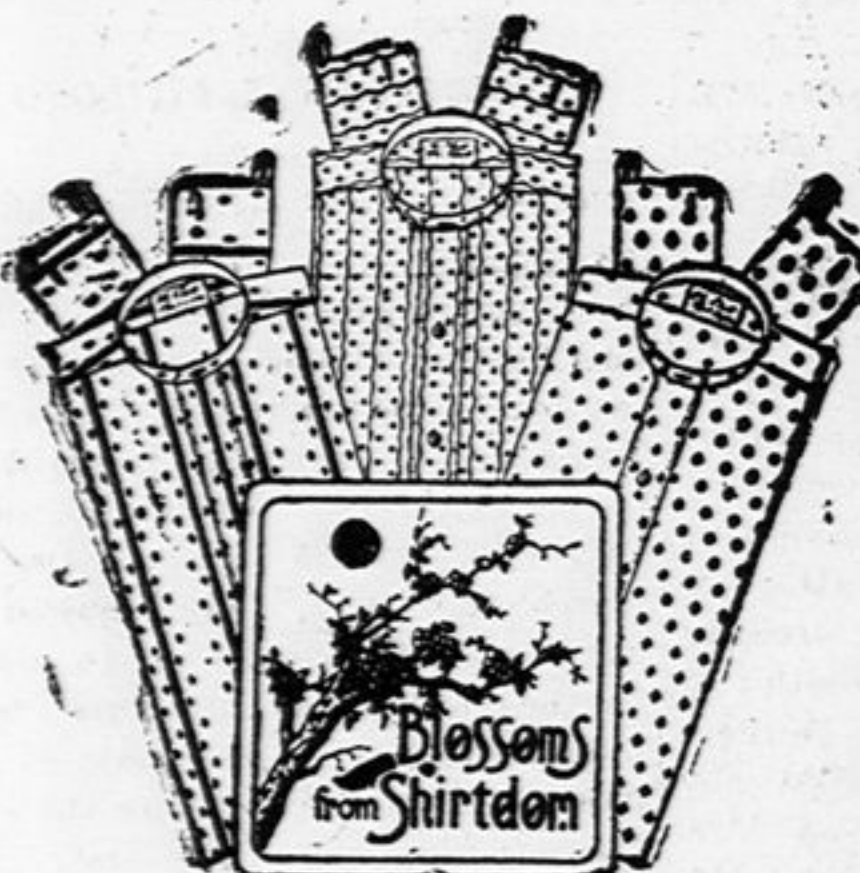

THE COAT SHIRT

The only shirt for many men! Easy to get into and easy to get off. We have a display of exceptionally well-made new coat style Negligee Shirts for now.

The designs are not of the ordinary sort. Stripes predominate this season, though there are many patterns in neat figure designs. The materials are of the best quality Madras, Cambrics and Percalés; the cuffs are attached or detached as you prefer.

The Coat Shirt is Sort of Irresistible 69c to $2.50

Our Ads., from time to time, reflect the good things we have to offer and we fear neither scrutiny or comparison

Lindsay Talent Assisted at Eden

A number of Lindsay people attended the garden party and concert at Eden, Zion, Tuesday and report an excellent time. The event marked the 59th anniversary of the Methodist church and was largely attended. Kirkfield succeeded in defeating Lorneville in a fast game of baseball the game being a hummer from start to finish. A grand supper was enjoyed by the vast throng, after which an excellent program was rendered, in which Lindsay talent took part.

Mrs. G. F. Blackwell was called on for the vocal selections, which she rendered in excellent voice. A quartet composed of Mrs. Blackwell, Mrs. Nesbitt and Messrs. H. M. Moyne and H. G. Manning, also rendered a fine selection.

NEW AGENT

MR. BEN. STACEY SUCCEEDS MR. A. H. BOSS FOR LAVAL PEOPLE.

Lorneville, June 25.—Mr. Ben Stacey was given the position last week of general agent in the eastern part of the province for the De Laval Cream Separator. Mr. Stacey's ability in that line is well known, and we wish him success. He was called to Montreal early in the week but returned Saturday evening and spent Sunday at home.

The stork visited at the home of Mr. Tim Newman last week leaving a fine baby boy.

The W.F.M.S. of the Eldon Presbyterian church held a very successful garden party on the manna grounds last Wednesday evening. A well contested baseball game was played between Kirkfield and Lorneville teams, the visitors winning by one run. After a bounteous supper was served in the grove, the following program was rendered in the church: Anthem by the choir; address by Rev. Mr. Archer, of Woodville; and Rev. Mr. Best of Beaverton; selections by the Argyle orchestra; selections by the Woodville male quartette, and readings by Miss Storey, of Markham. After the singing of God Save the King all returned to their homes well pleased with the evening's entertainment. The proceeds amounted to about $73.

Seven pupils went from here to write on the entrance examinations at Woodville last week. We wish them success.

Promotion examinations are being held in the school this week. The rural telephone people are making preparation for a picnic to be held at Beaverton on Wednesday. A good time is anticipated.

A number of our young people drove to Beaverton on Sunday last in search of the cooling breeze. Miss L. Wood of Cambay, is visiting Miss Malissa Warren.

Mr. Charlie and Miss Maud Wheeler visited Peniel friends on Sunday and were present at the anniversary services.

Kirkfield Organist Remembered by Friends

Kirkfield, June 24.—A large number of the congregation and choir of the Methodist church with their pastor, Rev. Hie, gathered at the home of Mrs. George Ashman on Friday evening of last week and had a very enjoyable time with music, games, etc., after which Mr. Holdice read a well worded address to Mrs. Ashman and presented her with a beautiful rocker. Mrs. Ashman has been organist of the church and a faithful worker for years. After the presentation dainty refreshments were served and all joined in singing "Blest be the Tie that Binds," and before departing, "God be With You Till We Meet Again." The address was as follows:

Dear Friend,—On the eve of your departure from our midst, we, your friends who have been associated with you in the Methodist church of this village have assembled here to wish you God speed and to express our appreciation of your service in the church as organist for as many years and also our regard for you as a neighbor and friend. Since your decision to remove from Kirkfield has become known expressions of regret have been general, and we beg to assure you that we feel there is no one connected with our church here that could be more greatly missed than yourself. Your faithfulness to your duties as organist, under conditions, which at times have been very discouraging, has been a great help in the services and always greatly appreciated by both pastor and people. We know that we shall miss your presence and help more than we can tell in words, but we trust that what seems to be such a great loss to us may prove to be an even greater gain to you. We pray that "Love's banner" may ever be kept floating over you and that the blessing of our Heavenly Father may ever attend you and yours in your new home, and that you may also find a church home in Lindsay that will be ever a greater joy to you than the one you are leaving here. As a token of our regard and appreciation we ask you to accept this chair, trusting that

News Items From Village of Omemece

Omemece, June 24.—Decorations exercises are to take place at the Emily Presbyterian cemetery next Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All interested please come prepared to assist in making the City of the Dead more beautiful.

The council are having our sidewalks repaired. The dust of the streets is far thicker than the crop of fish stories.

We are pleased to see Mr. T. J. Parsons back to business again after a few days indisposition.

On Dominion Day the Presbyterians will hold a grand garden party on the lawn of the church. See posters for particulars.

Promotion examinations are going on this week in the public schools.

Floating logs are a menace to launches in the river and it is reported that some of our American campers are thinking seriously of making a change to more navigable waters. This should not be while a remedy is easily obtainable.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McLean and daughter, of Mount Pleasant, visited Mr. and Mrs. T. W. McLean on Sunday.

Senior entrance to Normal matriculation and Faculty of Education Exams. are in progress this week in the High School.

The junior entrance to High School examinations Thursday and Friday of last week brought out a list of 41 candidates. Principals Barron and McLean presided. The papers were an average set and very reasonable in their entirety. A question in arithmetic asking the value of a certain right-angled triangle as a certain price per acre was thought by some beyond the limits.

Mr. Cunningham and party were out in their auto on Sunday and called on Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Earle of Sturgeon-st.

Mrs. Norman Clarke has returned home from a visit with her daughter at Coldwater.

Miss Olive Burns left for Tweed on Saturday to visit friends previous to her new residence at Deseronto.

Scout Master Winslow and his corps of Boy Scouts were applauded for their splendid work at the garden party on Friday evening. Let all encourage this noble movement.

Messrs. C. Best and H. Gardener of Mount Pleasant were in town the first of the week.

The Girls' Guild held a very successful garden party on Friday evening. It was a matter of regret that Bethel had a garden party for the same evening. A large number of Omemece and Mount Pleasant citizens were present at Bethel where a splendid evening was spent.

A patriotic service is announced for next Sabbath at 11.00 a.m. in the Presbyterian church, the Sabbath School to take part in the proceedings. On the following Sunday at 7 p.m. the Orange Order will attend divine service conducted by Rev. D. H. Currie.

Our company of volunteers returned on Friday from Barriefield after two weeks' pleasant and profitable outing. Capt. Fee is to be congratulated on the large number of D Company and on its efficiency.

Mrs. H. Bland of Mount Pleasant was a visitor on Monday.

HARTLEY

Hartley, June 25.—The three candidates from our school who wrote on the entrance examination were the Misses Bessie Smith, Ethel Smith and Agnes Spence. We wish them success.

A number from here attended the Sunday school anniversary services at Eden on Sunday last.

Miss Mary Driscoll, of Toronto, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Neil Brown.

Miss Maye Smith, of the L.C.I., is spending the holidays at her home. Miss Flossie Driscoll is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mr. W. Barker attended a barn raising in Thorax last week.

Mr. A. Spence, sr., and Miss Aggie Spence are visiting friends in Cambay.

Mr. and Mrs. John Foreman visited Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell on Sunday. On Sunday Rev. Mr. Dafoe, of Manila, conducted the service here, our pastor, Mr. Archer, preaching on the Manila circuit.

OBITUARY

LATE FATHER CONWAY. The funeral of the late Rev. Father Conway was held Tuesday morning from his late residence, to St. Peter's Cathedral, Peterboro, where a solemn requiem high mass was sung by Rev. Father McColl, assisted by Rev. Father Fitzpatrick as deacon, and Rev. Father Kelly, of Norwood as sub-deacon. Rev. Father Murray of Cobourg and Rev.

you may long be spared to enjoy it and that it may help to remind you of your friends at Kirkfield. Signed on behalf of the Methodist church, Mrs. C. N. Vassar, Mrs. H. Holdice, Mr. J. Staples, Rev. A. C. Hie, pastor.

Mrs. Ashman thanked her friends with an appropriate reply. Rev. Hie also gave a speech, after which dainty refreshments were served and all joined in singing "God be With You Till We Meet Again."

Children's National Chorus

LINDSAY Ist July, 1912 LINDSAY

BIG CELEBRATION

UNDER AUSPICES OF THE LINDSAY ADVANCEMENT CLUB

The Maple Leaf For Ever

In days of yore, from Britain's shore Wolfe, the dauntless hero came, And planted firm Britannia's flag On Canada's fair domain; Here may it wave our boast and pride, And join in love together, The Thistle, Shamrock, Rose entwined, The Maple Leaf forever.

Refrain— The Maple Leaf our emblem dear, The Maple Leaf forever, God Save our King and Heaven bless, The Maple Leaf forever.

At Queenston Heights and Lundy's Lane, Our brave fathers side by side, For freedom, homes and loved ones dear, Firmly stood and nobly died; And those dear rights which they maintained, We swear to yield them never, Our watchword ever more shall be, The Maple Leaf Forever.

Refrain— We swear to yield them never, Our watchword ever more shall be, The Maple Leaf Forever.

Refrain— On Merry England's far-famed land, May kind heaven sweetly smile; God bless Old Scotland ever more, And Ireland's Emerald Isle; Then swell the song, both loud and long,

On Merry England's far-famed land, May kind heaven sweetly smile; God bless Old Scotland ever more, And Ireland's Emerald Isle; Then swell the song, both loud and long,

God Save our King and Heaven bless, The Maple Leaf Forever.

Refrain— O Canada, dear Canada, Fair are thy lands that spread from sea to sea, And with our lives we'll guard thy liberty.

O Canada, blest with the wealth of kings, From land to land thy fame eternal sings, Fearless and bold thy brawny sons Will guard thee night and day; Our glorious land will never bow To any tyrant's sway.

Refrain— O Canada, blest with the wealth of kings, From land to land thy fame eternal sings, Fearless and bold thy brawny sons Will guard thee night and day; Our glorious land will never bow To any tyrant's sway.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation, And threaten'd the land to deform; The ark, then, of freedom's foundation, England rode safe through the storm; With her garlands of victory around her, When so proudly she bore her brave crew, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

The boast of the Red, White and Blue, With her flag proudly floating before her, The boast of the Red, White and Blue.

Then join we in praise to our Maker, And prayerfully ask of him: May the wreaths they have won never wither, Nor the star of their glory grow dim;

May the service united ne'er sever, But they to the colors prove true, The army and navy forever, Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

HOT HOLL

Though fashion has not previous season or such an interest Summer Dresses

Special show Pique, Mulls, Emb Linens, Blouses collars and cuffs

White emb square necks, open 50

Women's long close firm finish

Women's an ity, double knee, 10, prices per pair

Men's Negligee and styles, prices

Men's outing ity of material, s

Men's extra finish with neat s

O'LEARY & M

Cash

Fire at Res Store

The fire brigade res fire call on Thursday trouble started in the J. G. Edwards' hardware a pile of rubbish, which staff was endeavoring to by the crematory process appears the young fellow and let the fire take its with the result that, it fanned the flames to tions and in a very few barrels, fences and a p were all shooting ton upwards and around, and men appeared on the hand reel and 500 and in a few minutes water was playing from situated at corner Cambridge-sts. As m able material was about response of the fire com a calamity which might ed that which took same vicinity about eight when several acres be and Peel-sts. were

They will b you'll not

They will b you'll not

WARREN'S PIANO STORE

Is Headquarters For High-Grade Pianos and Organs Best Canadian and American makes of Sewing Machines

Victor Gramophone records and needles. No coupons or other fake propositions to give the Piano-buying public. We sell reputable and honestly made instruments at prices as low as consistent with the high grade quality of the goods we sell, and give terms of payment when required. Come and inspect before you buy.

Wm. Warren William St. Opposite Thomas' Garage Phone 131-L Box 217

Lindsay Central Advertised on all Letters

The directors of the Lindsay Central Fair are good advertisers, and following the example of a number of other managements of the big fairs, they purchased a trade mark stamp, for stamping letters, which they have installed in the Lindsay post office. On every letter coming in and going out of the local post office is stamped the following: "Lindsay Central Exhibition, Sept. 19-21, 1912."

Similar stamps are being used advertising the Toronto exhibition, and fairs at Edmonton, Ottawa, London and other places.

her mother, three sisters and five brothers: Mrs. S. Sharpe, Fenelon Falls; Mrs. S. Logan, Guelph; Mrs. Robson, Madoc; Robt. John, Archie and Albert Menzies, of Fenelon Falls, Alex. of Halesbury, and Thomas, of Washington.

We were all very sorry to say farewell to Captain Beck, who has been with us so long, but as he has only moved to Haliburton we hope he will find time to spend a week end with us once in a while. We are expecting Capt. Taylor, our new officer, will be here by next Sunday.

Robert Little was killed, and two others seriously injured, owing to a scaffold breaking at the County Jail at Guelph.

NORLAND.

Norland, June 24.—The volunteers from here arrived back safe and sound on Friday evening from Barriefield, Kingston.

Mr. McWilliams and his grand daughter, Miss Ena Hunter, spent Sunday with friends in this village.

Mr. Hays and Mrs. Sharp, who have been repairing the slide, have returned home. They were accompanied by Mrs. Hays.

Miss Pearl LeCraw has returned, after spending the winter in Toronto.

Miss Nellie Allely, who has been in Guelph attending college, returned home to spend the holidays.

Miss Winifred Woodcock, who has been attending school, returned to her home in Cobocok.

Mrs. T. H. Gostlin is at present staying at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Winterburn's.

Miss Maud Gainer is the guest of Mrs. T. Martin.

Mrs. Arthur Swain and children, are visiting at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Adair.

A fire started in Mr. S. Bryant's mill yard last week, but some one saw it in time before much harm done. It kept the men up from 2 o'clock in the morning until six fighting fire.

We were all very sorry to say farewell to Captain Beck, who has been with us so long, but as he has only moved to Haliburton we hope he will find time to spend a week end with us once in a while. We are expecting Capt. Taylor, our new officer, will be here by next Sunday.

Robert Little was killed, and two others seriously injured, owing to a scaffold breaking at the County Jail at Guelph.

ISLAY.

Islay, June 24.—Miss M. Spence returned to her home on Friday after a few days visit to her sisters at Balsam Lake.

Master Carl Moyne is at home for the summer vacation from the Lindsay Collegiate Institute.

A large number of our residents attended Zion anniversary on Monday, the 17th inst, and report that they had a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Thurston, of Balsam Grove and Miss May Spence were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Spence on Sunday of last week.

Mr. Tom Currins was visiting in the Ops district on Sunday last.

Congratulations of our numerous residents are extended to Miss Margaret Murchison, of Glenora, who has lately left our midst and gone to Toronto. We wish a joyous career may attend her in her wedded life.

Mr. Harry Dunn was visiting in the district on Sunday.

Nearly everyone has managed to get their seeding done, but it has been hustling times to catch up with the backward period.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Tolmie and their daughter Mary, were visitors to Mr. and Mrs. J. Jamieson's home on Sunday last.

Mr. W. A. Warwick from Balsam Grove was a visitor to the district on Sunday.

The juveniles are anxiously looking forward to the closing of the school for the summer holidays. This would undoubtedly be a