King Edward Now on Board The Royal Yacht.

QUEEN ONLY IN THE AMBULANCE

His Majesty's Faithful Consort Accompanied Him to the Railway Station in the Ambulance—Reached Portmouth Safely—Warships Fired a Royal Salute, and Yacht Steamed Off.

London, July 16.—King Edward left Victoria Station at 11.55 a.m. yesterday morning for Portsmouth, where he will board the Royal yacht Victoria and Albert. The King was conveyed from Buckingham Palace to the railway station in an ambulance, drawn by two horses.

The only occupant of the ambulance was Queen Alexandra. The vehicle was driven at a walking pace. Although there was a small crowd at the station there was no demonstration in compliance with the expression of the King. The doctors and nurses awaited the arrival of the ambulance and a party of blue-jackets removed his Majesty from the vehicle to a Royal saloon car, formerly used by the late Queen Victoria. Absolute privacy was secured by a lofty screen of red plush which surrounded the platform.
