COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

MEMORIE
The Orangemen will parade to the Episcopal church next Sabbath Part of them will go to Orillia and part to Fenelon Falls on the 12th of July. The Peterboro band has been secured by two family lodges. The Presbyterians have not yet chosen a minister. Rev. Mr. Whitehead occupied the pulpit last Sabbath and will next, and Rev. Mr. Nelson will follow, after which a session will be made. A number of good men have been heard. The crops of all kinds never promised better at this season of the year. Haying has begun. Potato bugs are not so plentiful. The mill has about completed sawing Mr. R. Bryan's timber. The water in the river is high and will permit of floating timber down to the lake.

MANILLA AND VICINITY
Manilla won a wonderful game from that famous Cannington aggregation of base ball players, who are credited by their local scribe with innate dexterity with bat and sphere while yet in their diapers. Monday's game depouped the impression of most of those who witnessed it that while yet in juvenile clothes they may have understood and practiced

A ONE-YEAR GAS CONTRACT WAS REJECTED BY COUNCIL

Five Members Refuse to Even Give the Bylaw One Reading

LAKE GRAVEL REJECTED It Has so Much Sand in it That The Alderman Will Not Use It on the Roads

Before taking their seats in the legislative chairs on Monday night the mayor and five aldermen who were not late in coming went over into the lot belonging to the town across from the little park to see a load of the lake gravel being delivered by the Kawartha Lakes Navigation Company. There had been trouble in the morning because it did not suit, and several wagons loaded with it, and heading for William-st., had been halted by the authorities. The mayor had ordered Overseer Paddy O'Neil to pick a load at random and screen it up on the lot. He had done so, and it was to see the result that the legislators went over into the lot on Monday night. There it stood in two piles—one of sand and another twice as big of gravel. So the gravel as delivered was over 30 per cent sand, and the mayor's opinion that it would not answer was endorsed by his companions. They picked up handfuls of the sand and let it sift down through their fingers, kicked the gravel, took up flat stones and tried to break them, looked wise and were unanimous that it wouldn't do to make the sort of streets on which they hoped to construct their official reputations for this year and merit election next.

In council the proposal to read a first time a by-law making a year's contract with the Gas Company for street-lighting was savagely rejected by 5 to 2. Aids. Cinnamon and O'Reilly voting for. P. G. Pilkie wanted the whole three sewer contracts awarded at last committee meeting or he would not take the one he got. He couldn't get all.

Ald. O'Reilly found that Overseer McGill, in charge of the road machinery, had been reporting full time for himself for the past three weeks, although hired by the hour. Mr. McGill was asked to explain next night.

The decision of the committee to move the hog pen was referred back as was the other decision to build the areas and lateral walks for Messrs. Smyth and Butler on the same terms as the public walks. Several by-laws were read. Altogether the meeting was a dull, but a good deal of necessary business was done with fair despatch. The session lasted from 7.40 to 10.40, and hence rose in plenty of time for refreshments.

THE LETTERS
The Waterous Engine Company sent the 5 notes of $650 each, payable one each year, with interest at 6 per cent, payment for the road roller.

W. C. Wines, 2-year man in the School of Mines, wanted to take Mr. Jackson's place as engineer. W. Driscoll complained of the ditch on Georgian-st., south of Russell. Mr. Hopkins sent Supt. Begbie's letter to the water commissions about the dirty state of the C.E.T.S. fountain.

Malcolm McDonald complained that a surface drain on Colborne-st., west from George, was filled up. Geo. Brown declared that circus day was a blank for his miniature railway scheme, and wanted better terms, and a new lease of the park for keeping the grass cut and putting up painted seats.

F. Brien said there was a walk only part of the way east from Williams-st. on Regent, and the water lodged there sometimes.

Cullon & Sons offered to put an iron railing along the walk down by their shop for $169.

Sergt.-Major Martin and others wanted a new board walk between Sussex and Albert-st. on Russell. The market clerk got $63.95 weighing fees and $2.92 tolls in June.

THOSE MOVED-OUT WALKS
When it came time to adopt the report in which the Board of Works committee agreed to put down lateral walks and areas for Messrs. Smyth and Butler on the same terms as the public walks, Ald. McCrae moved that that clause be struck out. If these men got it everybody else

"baw!" while possibly their nearest ancestor handled the bat. They are certainly good yet with the "baw!" as anyone within hearing could tell, but with the bat and the run they were badly discounted by the home team. Two-base hits, home runs and double plays by our boys were like presents at a wedding, "numerous and costly."—that is, they were costly to the visitors and errors likewise and costly. "few and far between." Patterson's pitching kept the visitors wondering "how did that ball get past me," and the way the ball was

would have a right to the same. The alderman warmed up on this point as he does on any point on which he differs from his colleagues. He does not dissent with composure. Ald. O'Reilly said that if the walk was put outside the trees by the town, the town should pay for the mistake. Ald. Robinson began to speak on the point, but wandered off onto the other about the width of the walk, and was called to order by the mayor. The decision to grant the request of Messrs. Smyth and Butler will be reconsidered in committee.

THE SEWER CONTRACTS
Mr. Pilkie had written a letter saying that he would have all the sewer contracts let the other night, or none. He was there to back it up. He said his tender totalled the lowest sum. Previously the total had been considered. There would be no extras, so Mr. Lindsay's lower schedule for extras should not be considered.

Mr. Lindsay differed from Mr. Pilkie, and council confirmed the award of the Wellington-st. contract to him. His statement that at one terrace on Peel-st. there were only two laterals, where there should be five, led Ald. O'Reilly to say that if disease should be traced to that condition of things the town would be liable for damages. The mayor regarded the matter seriously.

THE HOG PENS
When the report advising the removal of the hog-pens was up, Ald. O'Reilly moved that it be referred back. The cases in Orillia was different, in that there a town-by-law was broken by keeping the pen. There was no by-law in this town, but the statute said that no hog pen should be kept nearer a house than 70 feet. Ald. McWatters sided with him. Ald. Robinson insisted on sent back to be reconsidered. Ald. moving the pen. The matter was Robinson's attempt to elucidate. The question after the vote was cut short by the mayor.

THE NEW WALKS
Mr. Kyle wanted to know if council intended plastering the face of the walk up by his place. He was boulevarding and would like any work to be done on the walk done soon. The walk, moreover, had been built unnecessarily high, so on the theory advanced by some regarding the Smyth walk, the town should do the filling in for him. At any rate he would expect the outside banked up.

The mayor said that the council intended plastering the walks as soon as men could be got. Ald. O'Reilly declared that council must reconsider the question of putting side drains in front of the new walks. They were absolutely necessary to save the walks, and useful for draining the road.

GAS BY-LAW DEFEATED
By-laws were read appointing Mr. W. C. Day town engineer, and authorizing the mayor to sign contracts with the Kawartha Lakes Navigation Company for 3,500 yards of lake gravel, and with Frank Hutton to deliver it on the streets. Ald. O'Reilly wanted a by-law ratifying a years contract with the Gas Company read once, but that was voted down with a smash. The aldermen chide his colleagues for not letting it get to the stage of discussion. The mayor informed the 5 aldermen voters that they had done a most unusual thing, in that it could be considered in committee. Ald. Robinson declared they knew all they wanted to about it already.

THE PAY SHEETS
Ald. O'Reilly had the pay roll, and found that Overseer McGill had reported full time for himself during the past three weeks, although he gave the men only the dry weather. He supposed Mr. McGill could explain, since his contract with the town was for so much an hour of fine weather. It was decided to hear Mr. McGill next evening.

THE MOTIONS ADOPTED
O'Reilly—Cinnamon—That the overseer report on the sidewalks that will soon need repairs. O'Reilly—McWatters—That the clerk prepare a memorial asking the government to put down a granite curb walk in front of the office at the corner of King and Lindsay-sts. McWatters—O'Reilly—That the Town Property consider fitting up a couple of rooms on the north of the hall-way as committee rooms. It was agreed that Echo Hall was no place for committee meetings.

Mauder—Robinson—That Aids. Cinnamon, McCrae and Storer be appointed to the board of the agricultural society. O'Reilly—McWatters—That the Board of Works consider cutting weeds on the frontage plan.

arrested by our boys every time it rebounded from its accidental collision with the visitor's bats made them sigh for "home, sweet home," then sigh for "useless for them to sit for a run on the score card. It was next to useless for them to lie with the tired feeling which a few doses of whitewash generally produces, the visitors were refreshed with strawberries and cream, etc. in the spacious dining-room of Mrs. McDonald, and returned early in the evening to their expectant and no
