Canadian Order of Oddfellows at St. Andrews Church

The members of Lily of the Valley lodge, C.O.O.F., of Lindsay, attended divine service last Sunday morning at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. There was a large turnout, and the men made a fine appearance. It seems to a looker-on that every man in Lindsay belongs to some truth, that among all the orders, none has a better aggregation men than the "Lily of the Valley" lodge. The Oddfellows occupied the centre of the church, and the service was appropriate to the occasion. Rev. J. W. Wallace preached an impressive sermon from 1 Peter 4:8. The subject, he said, has a special significance for the brethren who worship here to-day, as it harmonizes with the mottoes of the order. Love is a necessary element in human character. Yet Peter tells there are other things besides charity, things which are absolutely necessary and indispensable, qualifications, and qualities which each individual will have to cultivate. Two thoughts are suggested in the text: soundness of mind and so ableness and sanity. When we reflect upon what we have done we see our mistakes and failures, and the foolish things we have done. And it is a marvel that people have confidence in us at all, when we know so little how to direct our course. It is not enough that we always mean well. It is wrong to blunder through ignorance and stupidity. We often fail in what we attempt because we do not learn how to go about it. The mind should be perfect as a bell. Plain Facts

Any man who knows the history of the clothing business knows that not many years ago ready-made clothing was despised by the better class of wearers, and the clothes deserved it.

Ready-made Clothing in those days was made without much idea of style, sewed together, not tailored, badly fitting, and the fabrics were cheap cottonades, satinets, and the like.

During the last five years the Clothing Business has advanced rapid steps until it has reached a high plane.

The quality of the goods has steadily improved, much attention is given to correct style, and it is not too much to say that the Brands of Clothing that we are agents for offers fhe wearer, in addition to economy of time and money, as good, or even better satisfaction in quality, style and fit, than the custom tailor offers.
