

The best medium for Advertisers. Covers Lindsay and Surrounding District.

THE WATCHMAN-WARDER.

Guaranteed Circulation 4300 every issue.

Volume XLIX

LINDSAY, ONT., THURSDAY, JULY 26th, 1906

Number 30

The End of the Month Bargain Days

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY July 27th and 28th

We would impress upon you the fact that we are clearing all Summer Goods—MUSLINS, BLOUSES, COLLARS, GLOVES, CARPETS AND MEN'S FURNISHINGS

- Mattings, Oilcloths, Carpets and Floor Rugs. 75 yards Fancy Jap Matting, 36-inches wide, reg. 20c, sale price 15c.

- Blinds, Table Oils, Umbrellas. 25 Shade Blinds, cream and green, with deep lace, clearing lot, reg. 80c, sale price 45c.

- Ladies' Whitewear. White Lawn Aprons, embroidered, trimmed with bib, reg. 28c, sale 20c.

- Cottonades, Flannelettes and Tickings. Heavy Cottonade and Cotton Moles, reg. 23c, sale 19c.

- Table Linens, Towellings and Shirtings. 62-inch Unbleached Table Linen, reg. 40c, sale 30c.

- Ribbons, Collars and Handkerchiefs. Wide Dresden Ribbons, reg. 30c and 35c, sale 24c.

- Ladies' Hose, Gloves and Corsets. Ladies' Seamless Tan Cashmere Hose, reg. 30c, sale 23c.

The Orangemen's Demonstration in Lindsay July 12th, 1906

Grand Parade, headed by Grand Marshal W. Warren, assisted by J. W. Stuart, County Master, Peterboro, followed by 67th Regiment Band, Peterboro

FENELON FALLS

Mrs. Chas. Dillon, of Montreal, is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wm. McCarthy.

Miss T. Billingham came home from Kilmount last week to accept a position in Mr. M. McCallum's tailoring establishment.

Messrs. F. A. McFarland, E. Fitzgerald, W. H. Robson, F. H. Magee and Rev. H. B. Kenny attended the Masonic meeting in Toronto last week.

Mrs. W. L. Robson returned last Saturday from a visit to friends in Lindsay.

The Delmore family spent last Monday at the Falls, coming down from Birch Island in the Kawartha. Mr. Delmore returned to Toronto on Wednesday.

Miss Fox, of Toronto, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Jos. Graham.

Mr. K. T. McEachern returned to the Falls from Woodville last Thursday.

Mr. S. Corbett was laid up for a week by stepping on a rusty nail, but is able to be out again.

Messrs. G. H. McGee, W. Church, Jr., and Grover Kerr left last week for the Northwest.

Mrs. B. B. Bightower, of Port Smith, Ark., is visiting her father, Mr. Thos. Scott.

Mr. Geo. Ingram is home for a visit.

Miss E. McArthur, of Chicago, is visiting friends at the Falls.

Mrs. L. McD. Coulter, Mrs. McCree and family are at Mrs. Coulter's cottage on Cameron Lake.

The Misses Minnie and Gladys Barrett are visiting friends at the Falls.

Mr. Jos. Brown took his yacht Riatta from Lindsay to Cobocook last week and remained for a few days.

needed in the successful running of his gasoline launch, Lady Love.

Monster preparations are going on for the Civic Demonstration to take place August 9th.

The Methodist Sunday School picnic took place per Esturion on Tuesday to Ball Lake.

The heavy wind storm on Sunday blew down one of the maple trees at the side of Dr. A. Wilson's office.

Mr. D. Bell, student in charge of St. James', was caught in the electric storm of last Friday night.

The many friends of Mrs. E. Lansfield sympathize deeply with her in the loss of her youngest child.

Miss Nellie Heard came home from Chicago for a few weeks' vacation.

Miss V. Porter, of Toronto, is visiting friends at the Falls.

Mr. R. J. Moore and Miss Wanda Moore spent a day in Cobocook last week.

Mrs. T. Hare, of Quincey, Ill., arrived at the Falls on Monday with her two children.

Mrs. W. Paine, of Lindsay, spent Monday at the Falls.

Miss B. Brokenshire, of Toronto, is spending her vacation with her mother.

Miss Violet Little, of Toronto, is the guest of Mrs. Geo. Whittle.

Mrs. Geo. Littleton, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bert Grey, in Toronto, returned home on Monday.

Mrs. A. Clark and Miss Bird Clark have been visiting friends in Lindsay for the past few days.

Congratulations are due our worthy teacher, Miss Helen DeLury, on her continued success with her entrance students.

On Sunday afternoon a terrific wind storm passed over this place, causing considerable damage to crops, and buildings.

Mr. Henry Glendonning's silo was demolished, and Mrs. Margaret McDonald's kitchen was literally torn to pieces.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton and family of Port Perry, are holidaying in our midst.

Miss Minnie DeLury, a trained nurse from Chicago, also Miss Abigail DeLury, who has been attending the school of 'Domestic Science' in Guelph.

Mr. Bert Carmichael, of Peterboro, who has been visiting his uncle, Robert Edwards, has returned home.

Miss Annie McFadyen, of Hamilton, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Archie McFadyen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robinson and family, of Orillia, after enjoying a pleasant vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Carter.

Mr. Donald McArthur sold his farm on Saturday last to Mr. Theodore Johnson, of Wromanton.

Our progressive village now has a bank, a branch of the Western Bank of Canada.

Miss Violet Little, of Toronto, is the guest of Mrs. Geo. Whittle.

Mrs. Geo. Littleton, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bert Grey, in Toronto, returned home on Monday.

Mrs. A. Clark and Miss Bird Clark have been visiting friends in Lindsay for the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Fair returned from Peterboro on Monday.

Mr. Harry Deyman, of Gooderham, is visiting friends at the Falls.

The Presbyterians intend having a lawn social about the first week in August.

Percy Parkins and Bob Granby give the best evidence of a good fishing season by showing a 'lunge' captured turning the scales at 20 lbs.

There are many holiday visitors here from Toronto and other towns and cities.

Mr. Beatty, proprietor of the Commercial House, is negotiating for a yacht to be brought up here by Sylvester's, of Lindsay.

This show has been established at Ottawa for educational purposes, and is held under the auspices of the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

Following are the different departments of the show with the approximate amount of cash prizes offered to each:

Each department has a classification which provides for exhibits of the principal breeds and varieties.

Breeders and feeders, especially in Eastern Ontario, should begin now to make preparations for exhibiting.

The growing interdependence of the Provinces of this Dominion must be apparent to all.

It is estimated 20,000 farm laborers will be required from the older provinces in assisting in the harvest of their wealth.

The Canadian Pacific Railway has made the wonderful growth of the West possible.

It is now urgent appealing to the parental and patriotic instincts of the farmers of the East to send every strong, able-bodied man they can to aid them in this work of national importance.

Rev. Burgess and family have moved to Toronto.

Miss Eva Brown, Oshawa, visited friends in town.

Mrs. Marlin has returned after a pleasant visit to Beaverton, Woodville, Sturgeon Point and other points.

Academy Bookings

The Academy of Music will open for the season on August 29, with the stirring comedy, 'What Happened to Jones?'

Miss Gladys Ward has returned from an extended visit to friends in western Ontario.

Miss Edith Anderson is spending summer holidays with Bowenaville friends at a Lake Ontario resort.

Mrs. Rickaby, of New Ontario, is staying with her sister, Mrs. J. J. Thornton.

Mr. W. McGill has purchased a New Scale Williams piano.

Miss Maggie Burn has returned from visiting friends in Toronto.

Miss Wilson, a teacher in the school here, is visiting Mrs. Jas. Armstrong.

The garden party held on Tuesday night was a splendid success.

Having is nearly all done here, and has been an abundant crop.

The weather is excellent for harvesting the hay, which is good.

The death of Mrs. Dancy, widow of Ed. Dancy, aged 77, after a long illness, is much lamented by her three daughters and three sons.

There are many holiday visitors here from Toronto and other towns and cities.

Mr. Beatty, proprietor of the Commercial House, is negotiating for a yacht to be brought up here by Sylvester's, of Lindsay.

This show has been established at Ottawa for educational purposes, and is held under the auspices of the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

Following are the different departments of the show with the approximate amount of cash prizes offered to each:

Each department has a classification which provides for exhibits of the principal breeds and varieties.

Breeders and feeders, especially in Eastern Ontario, should begin now to make preparations for exhibiting.

The growing interdependence of the Provinces of this Dominion must be apparent to all.

It is estimated 20,000 farm laborers will be required from the older provinces in assisting in the harvest of their wealth.

The Canadian Pacific Railway has made the wonderful growth of the West possible.

Rev. Burgess and family have moved to Toronto.

Advertisement for 'The End of the Month Bargain Days' and other goods, including 'The Watchman-Warder' and 'The Peak Sisters Entertainment'.

E. E. W. McGaffey F. A. ROBINSON SHOE STORE Trunks and Valises For Holiday Travelling We make a Specialty of these Goods. Money Saved on every purchase

Married KEYS-POWELL-In San Francisco on July 19th, 1906, at the residence of the bride's mother, by the Rev. Dr. Hough, Dr. R. E. Keys, late of Lindsay, to Annie G. daughter of the late Wm. Powell.

You Are Invited to bring your Printing to the Watchman-Warder Job Department. We make a specialty of fine catalogs, programs, menus, wedding announcements, invitation cards and artistic printing of all kinds.