A number of "sample copies" of a Bowmanville paper come to citizens of our burg whenever a little Lifford news is inserted in the same. They came last week and the Lifford news was the same as that sent to The Watchman-Warder, word for word, about the driving and entrance results. One mistake was made in the latter, credit being given to Miss Sisson for only three out of four of her pupils passing when all got through. Your correspondent had nothing to do with the same. Where did the Bowmanville paper get it? Surely the unsealed envelope was not tampered with? Surely the Bowmanville paper would not take it from the W.-W. without acknowledging the same?
