IN THE GLOAMING.

When the dusk is slowly creeping, shutting out the glare of day; When the evening star in beauty trembles with reluctant ray;

There is pain in the awakening when the hush of night is past, And the morning brings its sorrows, and our dreams are over-past;

Misfortunes cannot be avoided, but they may be sweetened if not overcome by philosophy.

THIRTY YEARS OF DISFIGURING ECZEMA CURED

"Ever since I was a little girl, thirty years ago, I had suffered tortures from eczema in one of its worst forms. The disease runs in my family, and mine was of a really and most disfiguring kind. The eczema formed in round rings, and then scales all over my face and limbs."

Every one in the town knew of my case. My face was disfigured very badly. I was born in Leamington, which is famous for its sulphur baths and pump chutes. That after taking the treatment there regularly as I did, the eczema would long ago have been cured, but it was not. I attended the Hospital for Skin Diseases, and years ago I was told that I should never get rid of it. A doctor spent pounds in doctor's bills, and I attended several hospitals but nothing did any good. Then one day a uncle of mine recommended the Cuticura Remedies. I took his soap. To my astonishment an improvement came at once set in, and my hair, which had been a complete mass of scales and scurf, soon began to look in splendid condition. I bought a box of Cuticura Ointment, and in a few weeks time all traces of the scurf were completely disappeared. Now my skin is clear and healthy, and thanks to the Cuticura Remedies I am completely cured of eczema. All my neighbours were astounded. The Cuticura Remedies are worth their weight in gold, and one tablet of Cuticura Soap goes further than four cakes of soap. It has brought happiness into my life. (Signed) Mrs. Butler, 17, Francis Rd., The Cotteridge, King's Norton, Birmingham, Eng., July 26, 1910.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold everywhere without charge may be sent by post to Foster, Drug & Chem. Corp., 22 Columbus Ave., Boston, U. S. A., for a liberal sample of each, post-free, with 25-p. skin book.

Someone Who Should be Remembered

(Leigh Mitchell Hodges, in Philadelphia North American.) Somewhere-to-day—in some city or town or out on some farm—a woman with a face you used to think the sweetest in all the world is waiting for something.

She is more than waiting—she is longing or maybe praying. She goes on with her work, whatever it is, or her knitting or reading, but if you were where you could see, you'd notice she stops every little while to look toward the front gate or to find out who it was rang the doorbell!

When the postman or the rural delivery man comes, or when it's time for the afternoon mail to be brought home from the postoffice, she is waiting to see what comes.

If there are any letters, she looks at them over hurriedly and if ONE letter is not there, she lays them down and wonders a bit and then goes back to her work and her waiting.

Waiting for a letter from her boy or her girl!

Her boy or her girl who has gone away from home—and it's far away to her, no matter how few the miles.

She knows just how many days or weeks have passed since the last letter came.

She has read that letter over and over, and now that the waiting gets harder, she can't help thinking something may be wrong.

She has written four or five times since that letter came, so she just cannot help worrying some. Of course, everything may be all right—everything must be all right or surely she'd hear—but if she had even a postal!

"O boy" or "O girl" if you could be in her place for even a little while you'd understand!

You'd understand so fully that no social or business engagement in all the calendar could keep you from writing at least a line or two to mother!

You will know some day, when your boy or girl has grown up and gone away from home, but likely it will be too late then to make any difference to your mother.

Between now and the time you turn out the light to-night, write to her. Between now and the time you turn out the light to-night, make the small effort—it doesn't take much to write a letter—that will cause the sun to rise in the old home to-morrow or the next day or the next.

Spend thirty or sixty minutes in loyalty to your first love. Make her heart happier than anything else could make it. Put a stop to all the wondering and the worrying and start a song that will carry across the miles and echo in your heart and make you happier, too.

Let the new-made "friends" wait, or pass them by altogether for one evening. Let someone else have the seat you would have filled in the country-bound trolley or the town-bound train. Telephone or send word to whoever may be expecting you that you're "glad you can't come." Tell why you're glad.

Then sit down and open your heart to her as you used to do when you came in from play or when she answered your call in the darkness.

As nearly as you can, write as you would talk, were she sitting close by.

Tell her of the burdens as well as the brightness, for there's nothing makes a mother so happy as to feel she can help her child over a rough place in the road.

Make her sure, SURE that your heart still keeps time with hers.

Then turn out the light and go to bed. You may not sleep, but you'll be happy.

Dr. Henderson's Herb Treatment

Skin diseases are almost invariably due to impure blood, which is poisoned by inactive kidneys and a sluggish liver. In such cases the skin has been trying to do the work of the liver and kidneys in throwing off the "tissue waste" of the blood and it breaks down, resulting in Scourfula, Eczema, Sores, Black Heads, Ulcers, etc.

The continued use of Henderson's Herb Tablets, taken every night according to directions in conjunction with Hout-Tan Ointment, will heal the diseased skin and remove the cause of the disease.

Mrs. J. Hyndman, 26 Newton-st., Ottawa, Ont., says: "I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Henderson's Herb Tablets, Hout-Tan Ointment and Infantile Tablets. Two months ago my baby of seven months was suffering with a scabby ringworm on his head, I bought a box of Hout-Tan Ointment from your agent, Mrs. Drew, and in less than a week it was cured. I also give baby the Infantile Tablets, and they have me a lot of worry and I shall never be without them."

Dr. Henderson's Herb Treatment and Hout-Tan Ointment are for sale at Dunoon's Drug store at 50c and $1 per box.

A GOOD SCARECROW. The day of the horrible scarecrow has passed away, and more up-to-date methods are required to keep the crows out of the cornfield.

Mr. Chas. Ford, of South Ops, has got the latest in scarecrows, but he finds trouble now coming from an unexpected source. The earnest watcher is dressed in the latest fashion, representing a female dressed with a large black hat, shirt waist, hobble skirt and tan shoes. The Brickville bachelors have all the fences knocked down around the farm, and beaten paths tell the tale of the many visitors during the evening, all anxious to make the young ladies acquaintance. Charlie thinks he will have to devise some scheme to keep away the boys and a new scheme will be adopted to keep them away.

Was Confined To Bed FOR FOUR MONTHS RHEUMATISM THE CAUSE DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED HIM

Mr. W. H. Riley, Ruddell, Sask., writes: "It is with the greatest of pleasure that I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all suffering with rheumatism. I was so bad with this terrible disease, I was unable to get up from my bed for four months, and nothing seemed to relieve me until a friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. I had my doubts about them, but was so desperate I would try anything suggested to me. After taking half a box I was able to get up, and after taking two boxes could get around quite well. After taking six boxes I was completely cured, and able to work for the first time in five months, and have not had a touch of rheumatism since. Anyone who saw me then would not know me now, as I am so strong and active since taking your valuable medicine."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

In ordering direct, specify "Doan's."

MY POP. My pop, he is a traveling man, The best one in his line; His house is awful hard to suit, But they think Pop's just fine.

I have such fun when he's at home, He knows just what to do; He don't forget he was a boy And full of mischief too.

He takes me down in town to eat, Just like I was a man; He lets me order what I want, And eat just all I can.

And then at night when we're in bed We close together creep, And tell each other fairy tales, Until we fall asleep.

He loves to hunt and fish, Pa does, And he's bought me a gun, And when I have to hunt alone, It's not near such good fun.

I'm awful homesome when he's gone, I wish he'd omit the road, And settle down upon a farm, He always said he would.

I always look to find his name, When men's hurt anywhere, And feel just kinder sick inside, For fear he might be there.

And then last thing before I sleep, When I've put out the light, I always say a prayer for Pop, A traveling through the night.

It's great to be one of "The Boys," And carry round a grip, But yet, I tell you, I am glad, When Pop's in from his trip.

My Pop is just the kind of man I want to grow to be; I'm going to be a traveling man, And smoke the same as he.

HYMENEAL. BAINBOROUGH-MORTON

One of the prettiest June weddings was celebrated on Wednesday, at two o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morton, 685 Dundas street, when their only daughter, Annie Agnes Pearl, was united in marriage to Rev. George Arthur Bainborough of Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bainborough of Gainsborough, Lincoln, Eng., who crossed the Atlantic to be present at their son's ordination and marriage. Rev. Edgar Morton, of Little Britain, uncle of the bride, assisted by Rev. Dr. German, College street Methodist church, and pastor of the bride, conducted the ceremony in the drawing room, which was decorated with marguerites and smilax.

Skin Disorders in the Spring

To old and young, rich and poor alike there come disfiguring, annoying, itching skin diseases. There are many theories as to the cause of skin diseases, but one thing is certain: you can cure them with Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Relief from the itching, burning sensations comes almost directly after the ointment is applied, and with a little patient treatment the sores are healed up and entirely disappear.

Mr. John A. Creech, postmaster, Randwick, Simcoe county, Ont., writes: "I was a great sufferer from eczema or salt rheum. My hands and face were covered with itching skin eruptions and though I used many different remedies I could get no relief. Finally I was recommended to try Dr. Chase's Ointment and am thankful to say that it has completely cured me. You may publish this for the benefit of others suffering as I did."

Exciting scenes took place at the Democratic National convention at Baltimore. The outcome of the fight for the presidential nomination is still uncertain.

"Roosevelt and Bryan" badges made their appearance in Chicago.

Health For Every Woman No More Headaches

FROM WEAKNESS AND DESPAIR THOUSANDS HAVE BEEN RESTORED TO ROBUST, GOOD HEALTH BY DR. HAMILTON'S PILLS.

That sick women are made well by Dr. Hamilton's Pills is proved in the following letter:

"For years I was thin and delicate. I lost color and was easily tired; a yellow pallor, pimples and blotches on my face were not only mortifying to my feelings, but because I thought my skin would never look nice again, I grew despondent. Then my appetite failed, I grew very weak. Various remedies, pills, tonics and tablets I tried without permanent benefit. A visit to my sister put into my hands a box of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. She placed reliance upon them and now that they have made me a well woman I would not be without them whatever their cost. I found Dr. Hamilton's by their mild yet searching action very suitable to the delicate character of a woman's nature. They never once gripped me, yet they established regularity. My appetite grew—my blood red and pure—my rings under my eyes disappeared, and to-day my skin is as clear and untroubled as when I was a girl. Dr. Hamilton's Pills did it all."

The above straightforward letter from Mrs. J. V. Todd, wife of a well known citizen in Rogersville, is proof sufficient that Dr. Hamilton's Pills are a wonderful woman's medicine. Use no other pill by Dr. Hamilton's 25 c per box. All dealers, or The Catarhzone Co., Kingston, Ontario.

Peruna Secrets You Should Know

Golden Seal Root

Golden Seal, the root of the above plant, is a very useful medicine. Many people gather it in our rich woodlands during the summer. Few people know how valuable it is in dyspepsia, catarrh and as a general tonic.

Many thousands of people of this root are used each year in the famous cathartic remedy, Peruna. This fact explains why everybody uses Peruna for constipation.

His progeny are of good size and conformation thus proving the great producing families from which this horse came—the Darnleys and Sir Everards are counted amongst the first in Scotland.
