PRINCELY GIFT.

Toronto, July 3.—A magnificent monument that will speak for all time in memory of the Peterboro girl who was wedded to George A. Cox in Peterboro fifty years ago, is the Nurses' Home in connection with the new Toronto General Hospital. The donation of this integral part of the great institution on College-st. was anonymous. The general public, who admired the provision it makes for the comfort of those who sacrifice themselves in the alleviation of pain, know only that the $275,000 which it cost came from some princely giver. It is now being gradually learned that the building is a gift of Senator Cox and a few friends of his first wife in her memory.

If the new leather on soles of boots be well soaked for three days before use in linseed oil, to which a few drops of castor oil are added, and then allowed to stand for a few days to dry, it will last nearly twice as long.
The big smelter at Midland is closed down for a few weeks for repairs.
A. H. Graydon has been appointed deputy magistrate for London.

Wedding Bells

RICHARDSON—McMULLEN.

The marriage of Miss Lillian Mabel McMullen, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McMullen, of Bally-duff, to Mr. James J. Richardson, of Pontypool, took place at Maple Shade, the residence of Mr. Richard Shaw, of Manvers, near the village of Lotus, Ont. The Rev. Matthew E. Wilson, M.A., of Pontypool, officiating. The bride was given away by her father, and was attended by little Miss Neta McMullen as flower girl, gowned in cream silk with tulle veil, carrying a beautiful bouquet of cream colored roses with forget-me-nots. After the ceremony the wedding definner was served. The bride and groom left later for their honeymoon trip, the former wearing a traveling gown of blue silk with coat and panama hat to match. More than one hundred guests from Peterboro, Lindsay, Millbrook and surrounding community, were present.
Mr. and Mrs. Richardson will make their home in Pontypool, where Mr.
Richardson is in business.

HUNKING—MARLOWE.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Marlowe, of Nestleton Station, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when the marriage of their youngest daughter, Ethel May, to Mr. Henry Thomas Hunking, was solemnized by the Rev. Isaac Snell. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of cream mousseline satin with cream shadow lace overdress trimmed with brilliants. Her tulle veil was held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley, and wore the groom's gift, a pearl sunburst. The only attendant was little Miss Helen Branton, niece of the groom, who made a pretty flower girl in tan silk and carried a gold basket with sweet peas and lily of the valley.

Face To Face
WITH A Serious Problem.

BAD WATER WAS THE CAUSE.

Mrs. EDWARD KINGSTON, Mirror, Alta., writes:—"Coming to the Northwest from B.C., in the summer of 1910, we were face to face with the serious problem of being able to secure good drinking water; this we could not get, so were obliged to drink water containing a great deal of alkali, with the result that we were all troubled with Diarrhoea. Fortunately, we had a bottle of Dr. FOW-LER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY in the house which soon relieved our sufferings. I have always kept a bottle in the house since obtaining such beneficial results from its use when my boy as a baby was similarly troubled. It has always proved a friend in need."

There are many imitations of "Dr.
Fowler's," when you ask for the well-known article, insist on being given it.
It has been on the market for over sixty-five years, and has always given the greatest of satisfaction. It cures when all others fail.

Another National Birthday

Forty-six years ago Canada embarked timidly before the world's notice by adopting a Confederation of the four Provinces of Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. Years of agitation were necessary, and even then the union was not accomplished without considerable bitterness, which lasted, in the case of Nova Scotia especially, for many years to come. The movement had its inspiration in external as well as internal dangers, notably in anxiety over trade and other difficulties with the United States, which in the 'sixties was embroiled in its enormous civil war.

By 1870 Manitoba joined the Confederation; in 1871 British Columbia came in, under promise of the construction of a Pacific railway. In 1873 Prince Edward Island threw in her lot also, and in 1905 the Dominion was rounded off by the creation of the two Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan, carved from the existing Northwest territories.

The growth of the Dominion's population for several decades was so slow as to be disappointing and discouraging. The population of a little over three millions at Confederation had grown only to 5,371,815 in 1901. Ten years later, however, it was 7,204,838, and the country had entered upon its greatest period of prosperity and expansion, giving basis to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's declaration that "the twentieth century belongs to Canada."

Drain Digging Machine
Arrives for Concrete Co.

The National Concrete Co. have imported a tile drain digging machine from Ohio which will prove a great boon to farmers in this district who intend draining their lands.

In completeness the machine is a long step in advance of anything heretofore put on the market. The outfit weighs 18 tons and is run by a 15 h.-p. gasoline engine, mounted on four wheels, four feet high and 26 inches wide. In travelling over soft ground the wheels can be made wider by the addition of wider tires which can be put on or taken off by the operator. Two levers practically operate the machine, by the use of which the engine can be reversed at a moment's notice. The digging wheel, which is 9 feet in diameter and has upon its outside rim 12 digging buckets, revolves at a rate which can be controlled by the operator to run fast or slow; ordinarily it digs out a foot every three minutes, or on an average will dig 100 rods per day, and can go down 5 1/2 feet deep if desired, cutting a trench 15 inches wide.

This wheel is followed by a scraper, which leaves a smooth semi-circular bed for the tile, which can be placed in position as rapidly as the work of the digger progresses. Two men handle the outfit, one who manipulates the engine and levers, while the second man attends to work incidental to running. The machine is constructed of steel and iron, an all chain drive, with a double drive wheel, leaving nothing to get out of order by way of belts.

A demonstration of the work done by the machine will be given on the farm of Mr. Fred Hickson, near Reaboro, as soon as the company can get the digger out of bond, which may take a few days. The public can see and judge of its merits, where it will receive a crucial test, as many objections, by way of stone, are expected to be found, where, allegorically speaking, the machine will make its initial bow.

HOW TO KEN
A HEAT STROKE

How do you know when you have heat-prostration? Dr. Hastings, M.H.O., of Toronto, says that the worst thing about the complaint is that you usually don't know at all that you have it until you don't know anything.

"And you don't have to be in the sun to get it, either," said the doctor. "It would really be better to call the trouble heat-stroke. Physically it does not differ from the attacks of exhaustion from which the stokers suffer on Atlantic liners. Heat in any form will bring it on. If there is any warning it usually takes the form of headache, dizziness and 'gone feeling.' If a person thus affected is in the sun or in a very warm place, he should take measures to get to shelter or coolness at once to avoid temporary paralysis and unconsciousness."

"What is the best means of restoration in such a case?"
"Stimulants of any kind. The best remedy is aromatic spirits of ammonia. Alcohol may be used, but many people make the great mistake of trying to stave off the effects of the heat by indulgence in strong drink. That is the thing to be most carefully avoided."

"There are three things to be carefully observed—light eating, light dressing, and deep drinking of water. A person should wear as little and exercise as little as possible.
Eat no meat at all. In hot weather nature has provided great variety of vegetables and other things to eat.
The best beverage is buttermilk, because it contains all the elements that are in butter without the fat, which people do not need in hot weather; but, by all odds, the best thing to drink is plain cool—not iced—water."

"What is one to do if he feels very hungry?"
"Eat just as little as possible, and let that be bread and butter, vegetables and fruit. Substitute eggs for meat if something more substantial is necessary."

A farmer sold a hog on the Port Rowan market last week, for which his cheek was $76. To this piece of information the Port Rowan News adds: "It is said that lard from such pigs gives doughnuts a beautiful golden glow."

The immigration from Great Britain this year will be greater than ever.
Collingwood charged Howe's crews a license fee of $100; Barrie, $50; Orillia, $35.

If taken when they first show themselves, can be cured without difficulty. If neglected they may become incurable. Thus not only do they prevent the necessary warning, moistening and filtering of the air, but they spread and cause many diseases of the throat and lungs and are the commonest cause of serious and intensely painful trouble with the ears.

NO "STIMULANTS" FOR JIM.

"I think, madam," said the professionally polite young doctor to the wife of his first patient in the backwoods of a decidedly non-prohibition county. "I think that your husband needs a good stimulant of some sort, and I will leave for him some—"
"No, sir!" she said, with marked decision. "You ain't a goin' to leave Jim no stimulants like ki-nine or tinkler of iron nor that malt stuff some folks takes nowadays without know'n what it'll do to their systems!"

"Me an' Jim is both down on all stimulants. I'm goin' to fix him up a quart or so of good rye whiskey to take first thing in the mornin', an' I'll stir him up a good, strong whisky eggnog at noon, and let him have a steamin' hot brandy punch along in the middle o' the afternoon, an' give him a glass o' wild grape wine at night; but as for stimmy-lants, he ain't goin' to take none of 'em, long as I can help it."

First Black Squirrel
Seen in 15 Years

The first black squirrel seen in South Ops in fifteen years was captured by Mr. W. Walker on Thursday last, after an exciting chase.
The little animal was an exceedingly fine specimen but where he came from is a conundrum as there appears to be a dearth of such game in this district.

—Mrs. M. Loucks, and baby boy, of Donald, Ont., on the Haliburton line, arrived in town Saturday last, and will spend a few days with their friends. A few days ago the baby boy while playing in the house secured a quantity of Gillet's lye and swallowed a considerable portion before those in the house noticed the unfortunate case. Ever since the child has been suffering painfully and was brought to Lindsay to receive proper medical treatment.

clover crop. During this week he is visiting in Belleville and vicinity, and will return by wheel to Lindsay
