Boy Lived for Days on Berries

Gravenhurst, July 6.—A most remarkable incident occurred in the vicinity of Gravenhurst. On Monday morning, June 30, a little lad, scarcely four years old, wandered into the woods and had been wandering about for four days and four nights.

Search parties were organized and the neighborhood thoroughly inspected. For the last two days it was expected that he had perished in the swamps or drowned in the lakes, and that probably even his body would never be recovered.

Friday morning a large party was organized and search was made in the vicinity of Leg Lake.

The boy, Meyers by name, was found along the shore of the lake, his clothing off and carried on a stick. He was wandering about quite unconcerned, and stated upon inquiry that he had berries to eat.

The town is quite joyous this morning over his recovery, none the worse for his experience — four full days and nights in the wilderness with most intense heat in the daytime and a couple of rain storms.

His body was scratched quite badly by the briars and other undergrowth.

Found Wife at Last.
A dramatic reunion of an aged husband and wife took place at 840 St. Dominic street, Montreal, recently, when Sergt. Welland, who had been mourned by his wife as dead for 35 years, suddenly appeared at her kitchen door. Welland had not the slightest idea in the world when he knocked that his long lost wife lived within. Mrs. Welland was washing the tea dishes when the knock came. She opened the door, a weary old man without begged for a bite to eat. One glance was sufficient for each to recognize in the other the long lost partner in life. To-day it is the happiest home in Montreal.

Sergt. Welland's tale is a thrilling one. Thirty-five years ago, while he and his wife were living in Egypt, he enlisted under the Turkish banner. He was at Plevna and was taken prisoner by the Russians. He was confined to a dungeon for a year and a half; when it was over he found his wife had left Egypt for some foreign country.

New Immigration Plan.
The business of attracting immigrants to Canada has heretofore been a combination propaganda on the part of the Government and the railways. A new arrangement is about to be effected whereby the railways will contribute their efforts to the tourist traffic, the more profitable end of the business, and the Government will alone attend to immigration propaganda.

MR. ALVA PHILLIPS

BRISTOL, N. B., July 25th, 1911. "I am unable to say enough in favor of 'Fruit-a-lives' as it saved my life and restored me to health, when I had given up all hope and when the doctors had failed to do anything more for me. I had a stroke of Paralysis in March, 1910, and this left me unable to walk or help myself, and the Constipation of the bowels was terrible. Nothing did me any good and I was wretched in every way. Finally, I took 'Fruit-a-lives' for the Constipation, and it not only cured me of that trouble but gradually this fruit medicine toned up the nerves and actually cured the paralysis. Under the use of 'Fruit-a-lives', I grew stronger and stronger until all the palsy and weakness left me. I am now well again and attend my store every day and all day."

Two Houses Entered by Daring Thieves

The residence of Mrs. J. Whalen, 25 Ridout-st., was entered by some unknown person between Friday and this morning, abstracting from a trunk a box containing several documents and one $5 bill. At what time the thief entered the house Mrs. Whalen does not know. She had been up street on Friday afternoon. Previous to leaving her house she locked the money in a trunk which was in the front room, and locked the doors. On Sunday the lady opened the trunk, leaving the keys therein, after taking out some silverware. She was not sure whether the box was in the trunk then or not.

This morning as she had occasion to use the money Mrs. Whalen was much surprised to find it had mysteriously disappeared. Several other valuable articles including $50 gold watch was in the trunk, but were not disturbed.

The home of Mrs. Shea on Glenolyst, near Lindsay was entered by a sneak thief on Friday afternoon and $7, which was in a purse taken from beneath the mattress on the bed.

Mrs. Shea and her daughter were attending to their domestic duties in the culinary department when a noise was heard in the adjoining bedroom. On entering Miss Shea saw a pair of feet disappearing through the half uplifted window, which was protected by a screen, but this he had cut with a sharp instrument and therefore entered.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Down by The Scugog

Down by Scugog's shining shores, Where the rippling wavelets roll, Playing 'mongst the water lilies— Gently lapping little knolls Capped by dark, sweet-scented violets Curt'ying to the wooing breeze, Playing weird and touching music Through the green leaves of the trees.

There Springtime trails her mantle green A-sparkle with the dew, As a queen adorned in emeralds, With diamonds glistening through. There coquetish little cloudlets While the happy hours away, Drifting about with the sunbeams In their dazzling gold array.

There the birds are ever trilling In their soft, sweet tremolo; There the loveliest of flowers In the fragrant woodlands grow; There the sky seems always brightest, And, if sometimes overcast, Bursts into more radiant beauty When the rainbow shines at last.

Down by the tranquil Scugog There is sweet peace and rest, Calmly it basks in the sunshine, By Mother Nature caressed. There in its beauty and fragrance It lies secluded and lone, And there, 'neath the heavens of azure, There lies old Home, Sweet Home!

LIKES THE WEST

HEAR MORE ABOUT HARD TIMES IN ONTARIO.

Monday morning The Watchman had a call from a former townsman, now a resident of Calgary, Alta., in the person of Mr. D. Eagleson, former town auditor of Lindsay. Mr. Eagleson, who has been engaged on a large auditing contract in the Muskoka district for several days past, arrived in town Saturday night and renewed acquaintances with a number of old friends and acquaintances, leaving this morning for his home in the west.

Speaking of the west he stated that the country was continuing to develop and expand in all directions. "I have heard more about hard times in the west here in Ontario than I have heard in the west. In fact the hard times story is exaggerated. The west is a glorious country and just the place for the go-ahead progressive young man."

MET WITH MISMAF.
Mr. Harry Carr, an employe of the R. M. Beal Leather Company, who last week covered the distance between Lindsay and his old home in Belleville on his bicycle, met with a painful accident while on the home trip. He is at a loss to know just how the accident happened, but claims that he was either struck by a motor car while coming down a hill, or he may have fallen off his wheel.

For a time he lay unconscious on the roadside, being picked up by Mr. A. T. Johnston, of Peterboro, who was on his way home with his family. Mr. Johnston ascertained that Mr. Carr was from Lindsay, and very kindly brought him back to his home.

At the present time Mr. Carr is quite smart, with the exception of a few bruises about the face and body. He made the distance between Belleville and Omeene (87 miles) in 11 hours.

John Wilkinson, of Minto township, died suddenly of heart paralysis, in his fifty-fourth year.
