THE BURLEIGH TANGLE If men with business propositions make advances to this town it will not be because council's manner of receiving such advances of late gives them any encouragement.

Mr. J. A. Culverwell came to town on Tuesday, after consulting his board in Toronto, and asked to meet council that evening. Solicitor Hopkins was at the Point and could the Post attacked him in the most asily have been got by telephone in scurrilous, and in one instance, indetime to catch the afternoon boat, cent fashion. The difficulty between Mr. Culverwell and Mr. Hopkins is one that ought to be easily enough adjusted, when it comes before council. The wording of the resolution authorizing Mr. Hopkins to draw up an agreement allowing another $3,000 to go ahead of the town's mortgage on the Burleigh power would justify deal.
