Impurities of the Blood

Anyone whose blood is impure should read this Testimonial

Mr. Chas. Martin, Box No. 367, Kenora, Ont., writes: "Three years ago, while working in Hamilton, Ont., I was taken sick, and no one knew what ailed me. Every bit of food I ate I vomited up and consequently I became very weak. My landlord told me that after this he thought at one time I was booked for the cemetery. Walking down street one day I happened to see Burdock Blood Bitters in a drugist's window so went in and got a bottle. Before I had taken half of it I broke out all round my bones in sores. I showed it to my landlord and asked him what he thought of it. He told me it looked as if I had a heavy attack of chicken pox. Both he and his wife tried all they knew how to persuade me to stop taking the B.B.B. It was no use. I had gotten so bad I thought it did not matter much whether I went under or not, so I got a second bottle and judge to my surprise to see the sores begin to disappear, and by the time I had taken three bottles I did not care for the best man in Hamilton. I am 61 years of age and am able to do a day's work with the next man, thanks to B.B.B. Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured only by the F. Miller Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Campaign Reminders

Let Taft help to render Canada helpless.

Has Laurier made Canada an easy mark?

A fair deal is foreign to Uncle Sam's nature.

Keep the wolves' fangs out of the beavers' hide.

Keep up the bars if you would keep up the old flag.

Pass the pact and the old flag will be lowered to half-mast.

Give the pact a trial and Canada will receive her death sentence.

It isn't our produce Uncle Sam wishes to secure, it's our country.

Reciprocity will make the farmer richer. Yes, richer in sad experience.

Quebec has ceased to be solid since realizing what a hollow sham is Laurier.

Let Uncle Sam open our arteries of trade and he'll very soon bleed us to death.

When the Yankees agree to a bargain you may be sure it is they that are getting on.

Reciprocity would be a step toward annexation that we would find very hard to retrace.

Uncle Sam never did anyone a good turn unless he could figure on a return with interest.

In their desire for cheap food the Yanks have evidently sized the Canadians up for a lunch.

Let Laurier put you in the reciprocity trying pan and you'll soon find yourself in the annexation fire.

If Taft had not seen a good thing in the invitation from Ottawa we'd have met with the usual snub.

Open the door to Yankee greed and there won't be enough left inside to make it worth while closing it again.

Laurier is determined to carry out his part of the reciprocity agreement even if it be over Canada's dead body.

Home of Grain Growers' Association is Opposed To Reciprocity Pact

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT TO THE TORONTO NEWS AND THE DAILY WARDER.

Brandon, Aug. 5. — So far as the larger towns of Manitoba are concerned the movement towards free trade with the United States is distinctly slow. In these centres is the nucleus of an agitation in the other direction, namely, that of moderate protection. Brandon is one of the most prominent in this respect.

The feeling generally amongst the rising towns of Manitoba whose origin and point of view is more thoroughly Canadian than any of the other Western Provinces, is that their future must naturally lie more or less along the same lines as that of the established towns of the Western States, and everyone knows that these places across the border grew to a position of national importance under the nurturing hand of a high protective tariff.

Brandon in particular, even though credited with being the home of the Grain Growers' Association, is opposed to Reciprocity and in more than one conversation to-day the opinion was expressed that if Hon. Clifford Sifton would return to his old riding as an independent candidate he would be elected by a very substantial majority. Mr. Sifton's stand on reciprocity at Ottawa has pleased the people of Brandon and they are looking forward with anxious anticipation to his appearance in this constituency as a leader in the fight that is being waged most strenuously against the agreement.

At this particular point in the province there have been an number of influences at work to identify the mind of the people with a protectionist as opposed to a free trade policy. The Dominion Experimental Farm is situated about a mile from Brandon, and the country round about is closely in touch with the work that is being done there. One thing that has been proved and that weakens a strong argument for free trade to natural products, is that the variety of barley demanded for use in the States, cannot be grown in Northwestern Canada. There are two breweries in Brandon, and not two breweries of home grown barley is consumed by these factories. They import all their malt. The grades of barley grown in Manitoba are barley crop is fed at home: The live suitable only for feeding purposes, and the greater part of the Brandon stock industry is greatly on the increase in this district, as two large creameries and hide warehouses in Brandon attest. It is also a significant mark on the landscape to see waving fields of corn, which the farmers cut green and keep for fodder. The Experimental Farm says there has been about four times as much corn grown this year in Manitoba as was grown last season. McGregor's famous Poll-Angus cattle which are bred and raised here, have also given a stimulus to the raising of live stock. Farming as it should be is largely in vogue in the district adjacent to Brandon, and this fact is inclined to turn many minds against the proposals for free trade in natural products with the United States. As was expressed to me here by business men and farmers, free trade in natural products would undoubtedly tend to make the Prairie Provinces more growers of wheat for the United States. Concomitant to this single pursuit would certainly react against the cities and towns on the Canadian side, which need districts close to them that will grow adequate supplies of all the food products. Those who are acquainted with conditions in the United States know that with the tariff here down nearly all meat supplies would enter the Canadian West from Chicago. An authority in Brandon drew my attention to the fact that most of the annual three billion bushel corn crop of the United States went towards the cultivation of animal products in the United States. "That is the process we want to teach our farmers here," said he.

"That the citizens here of Brandon are decidedly against any alliance of interests with the United States was shown in a trial vote taken by one of the local papers six weeks ago. The ballots were returned to the newspaper office marked and signed by the men who marked them. The verdict at that time was 4 to 1 against the reciprocity agreement. I saw the pile of ballots which the paper has on file and it contained a number of names of men known as "amongst" the strongest Liberals in Brandon."

The Grain Growers' Association occupies a place in Brandon which is strikingly analogous to that of the prophet without honor in his own country. In the East the idea has prevailed that the Grain Growers' have consolidated the West on the policy of free trade. After talking with a member of the association in Brandon and with other men acquainted with its influence and actual work, one is led to believe that the real link between the West and reciprocity is the Leadership of all members of the Grain Growers' Association, which comprises most of the station, which comprises most of the farmers in the Prairie Provinces are warm advocates of reciprocity. In reality, such is not the case, and the numbers of the older members of the association see that the farmers of the West are being led by the nose of a few ardent Liberals, who, in the case of reciprocity, appear to be politicians first and farmers second.

reciprocity is the worst yet.

Self-respect is as important to a nation as it is to an individual.

Lower pay and dearer living for the workman under reciprocity.

Keep both hands on the flag and be sure there are no stars or bars on it.

Fighting says the pact can be cancelled at any time. Now is the time.

The national policy will build up Canada and reciprocity will tear it down.

Reciprocity means cheaper living in the United States and dearer in Canada.

Yes, Sir Wilfrid has submitted reciprocity to the people, but will the people submit to it?

'Tis feared that the promised benefits of reciprocity will be like the apples of Sodom.

If reciprocity meant the exodus of the party sheep it would have at least one redeeming feature.

The Globe compares Sifton to Sampson shorn of his locks. The Philistines be upon thee, Sampson.

The light weight Continentalism should not last a round with the heavy weight Canadian Nationality.

Had the Farmers Bank charter never been issued there would have been no plunderer and none plundered.

Jim Hill and hordes of other American millionaires are anxious to see the pact go through. Don't forget that.

What a far-seeing statesman Clifford Sifton would be in the sight of the Globe had he retained the party shackles.

"To think own self be true, and I must follow the right the day that thou canst not be false to any man" is just as good advice for a nation as it is for an individual.

The same arguments which are being used in support of the pact

Annexation is the goal of President Taft's ambition. The best way to keep him from searing is to put Borden between the flags.

Pulverise the pact.

Down with the deal.

Keep up the tariff wall.

Leave well enough alone.

Reciprocity is on the run.

Reciprocity means remorse.

No orders from Washington.

Laurier has finished his work.

Don't let Taft make a touch.

Will Reciprocity make you rich?

Take back your gold brick, Mr. Taft.

Uncle Sam wants it; that's sufficient.

Borden and a bigger British market.

Don't make Canada a dumping ground.

Beware of the trusts — they want Canada.

A nation's strength is in its self-reliance.

Reciprocity will gratify Uncle Sam's rapacity.

Relegate reciprocity to the realm of oblivion.

A vote against the pact is a vote for patriotism.

Make pulp of the pact and send it back to Taft.

Don't throw away certain good for doubtful gain.

And the workman sadly asks: "Where do I come in?"

Do you want to fall into the hands of the American trusts?

No need of raking up old scandals.

A BAD FALL

AGED MAN FELL INTO GUTTER AND INJURED HIS HEAD.

On Saturday an aged man from Kimmount was somewhat severely injured by falling from the pavement on Kent-st. The gentleman, whose name could not be secured, was walking along Kent-st. in front of Chamberlain's shoe store when his foot slipped and he fell off the high sidewalk into the gutter, striking his head on the pavement which rendered him unconscious, from a deep cut on the forehead. Dr. McCullough was passing and dressed the wound and the injured man was able to catch the train.
