CHESLEY RECEIVES SWANS. It is getting to be the thing. for towns and cities to get presents of swans from King George V. At the present rate the King will have to establish a swan farm. Owen Sound's mayor started the fashion, and Mayor Krug of Chesley followed suit, writing to the King's swan keepers some time ago re obtaining swan for Chelsey. The other day he received a reply stating that King George V. had been pleased to accede to the request of Mr. Krug and swans would be there in the in the course of a few weeks. The mayor, as Mayor Lemon did, agreed to pay all expenses for the care and keeping up of the birds. Now isn't t Mayor Wood's turn?

NEW THRESHING OUTFIT.

Mr. Norman Windrum, of Manvers received a brand new threshing ou fit from the Goodison Co., of Sarnia. The machine has all the new and up-to-date features, being equipped with self-feeder, blower and grain carrier. Owing to a mistake in the weight made by the railway company Mr. Windrum had the machine weighed on the market scales and was found that an overcharge for 1990 pounds was made.
