A collision occurred at Omenee

Monday morning that shook up the passengers on Conductor train and did not spare the conductor himself. The rear coupling parted and it was allowed to drop away from the train. When the latter stopped up at the coach overtook it and with a crash. Mr. M. Mulvihill was in the car and just before the collinoticed what was going to happen. His efforts to put on the brake had a good effect in lessening the blow. Conductor Britton was thrown against the door and cut on the head. Mr. Adam Switzer was thrown heavily to the floor. The other passengers escaped with a scrape.

Council met in committee on Monday afternoon to open tenders for building the Kent-st sewer. Five presented. They were Mc-

The council and water commisheld a joint meeting yesterafternoon and opened to tenders for the town debentures of $1000 to build the firehall and of $1000 to extend the water works.

The former will run for 20 years and interest at 4 per cent.; the other run for 10 years and bear the interest. The tenders were:

E. Ames & Co offered $4950 for $5000 and $3975.75 for the

$1000; the Central Canada Loan $9011 and the interest for both;

W. H. Browne $4887.50 and $3901;

Stinson & Co. $8966.50; and The Canada Life Ins. Co. $5025 for the debentures alone. The last offer for the one parcel of debentures was so good that the Canada Life was asked to tender for the other and the Central Canada will be asked if it will buy the $4000 debentures.

Industrial Exhibition Notes.

Mr. D. C. Trew of town made a trip to the exhibition taking five and three second prizes in Hand-his favorite breed, to which he had devoted special study and attention for years past. These were:

1st and 2nd in cocks, 1st and second in hens, 1st and 2nd in cockerels, 1st and 2nd in pullets and 1st in breeding pairs. Mr. Trew was offered and received $29 for a pair of Handans, four months old.
