HIS COMPANION MAY ALSO DIE

They Were Mistaken by Striking Miners' Pickets For Armed Non-Union Men Going to Work and Were Promptly Attacked—Friends of the Victims Promise That They Will Avenge Them.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Sept. 9.—Two Italian striking miners named Frank Portay and Sistine Vancostello left their homes in Swoyersville, near here, yesterday morning to go on a hunting trip. As they approached the Harry E. colliery they were held up by the pickets, who mistook them for armed non-union men going to work. The pickets at once attacked the Italians. Vancostello was shot in the leg and his brains beaten out with stones and clubs. His companion, Portay, was knocked down, his gun taken from him, and he was so severely beaten that his life is despaired of. The friends of the dead Italians have sworn vengeance and threaten to kill the men who committed the assault.

Bradford, the young man who disappeared from his home at 320 East Gerrard street, Toronto, on Aug. 23, was found here yesterday afternoon, and will be sent home to-day in charge of a friend, named Stewart, who arrived from Toronto last night. Bradford was walking towards the lake about 5 o'clock, when he was met and recognized by Chief Green, who had received a circular from Inspector Gregory of Toronto giving a description of the missing man. Bradford readily admitted his identity, and declared that he had left Toronto to preach the gospel. The young man is a nephew of E. P. Roden of the City Engineer's Department, Toronto.

DANCE TO KEEP ALIVE. Peasants of Spain Stung by Tarantulas—A Strange Remedy.

Madrid, Sept. 9.—The territory of Osuna, Andalusia, was invaded by the deadly tarantula spider, millions of which crawl in the fields, while hundreds of thousands have invaded villages and houses. To cure the afflicted people an army of guitar players and other musicians was prescribed, for music invites dancing—the only way to cure bites. To throw off the poison the persons stung must work themselves into a perpetual sweat, and no better or other cure has ever been effected. While all Osuna is dancing, the military performs the necessary harvesting work.

Mrs. White's Body Found at Parry Sound—Went in Sailingboat on Saturday Night For the Lighthouse With Her Son, But No Trace of Boy or Boat Has Been Found.

Peterboro, Sept. 9.—A triple drowning accident occurred in Chemong Lake Sunday evening, resulting in the death of Mr. J. M. Roberts of Smith Township and his two sons, aged 10 and 12 years. The three had crossed the lake in a canoe to attend a church service at Indian village, on the reserve on the opposite side of the lake. They left the village to return home at 8.30, and that was the last seen of them. The drifting canoe they had used is regarded as evidence of the drowning. It is supposed that the father, who was a good swimmer, perished in his efforts to save the two lads, who were unable to swim. Mr. Roberts, who is forty-five years of age, and a son of the late Rev. E. Roberts, formerly Baptist minister of Smith, was a very highly respected resident. He was a prosperous farmer, but took a most active interest in church and temperance work.

CUT BOTH NIGHT AND DAY. Hired Men With Lanterns Showed the Binders the Way.

Winnipeg, Sept. 9.—The weather yesterday was clear and warm, and by last night 85 per cent. of the crop in Manitoba and 70 per cent. in the Territories was cut. Thrashing is in progress all over, and would be more general if hands could be secured for the machines. Wheat is turning out 20 to 35 bushels to the acre, and prices quoted are 53c. to 57c. On Mennoite Reserve it ranges from 20 to 25; around Roland and Emerson, 30 to 35; around Melita, 25 to 30; Portage Plains, 25 to 30; Brandon, 30 to 35. On Saturday 25,000 bushels were marketed.

A peculiar feature this year was that many farmers cut night and day, men running ahead of binders with lanterns. For the Territories the best of good reports are received. The yield is high, and 70 per cent. of the harvest is over.

James Sutherland in regard to improvements to St. Lawrence navigation.

Frankfurt-on-Order, Sept. 9.—Eighty thousand soldiers camped in the open air last night, and 12,000 more are quartered in farm houses. The troops were waiting for the four days' sham battle on an immense scale, that began at dawn to-day. Emperor William left Potsdam at 4 o'clock this morning, in order to be early on the field. A great blue and white pavilion fringed with gold hangings, had been pitched on the southern shore of the Weissensee and here Emperor William will bivouac Wednesday night. He will lead the cavalry down into action on Thursday. There was some slight skirmishing by the cavalry yesterday. The roads about here are in wretched condition, having been cut up by the recent rains. Banqueted 110 Notable Guests.

His Majesty's guests were nearly all visitors who have come to attend the manoeuvres, and they included Earl Roberts, chief of the forces of Great Britain, Mr. Brodrick, British Secretary of War, and the British generals who are here for the manoeuvres, the visiting German Princes and the commanding generals in charge of the manoeuvres. How he came by the injuries he does not know. He says he reached the city from Rochester, and with a friend went for a car ride. He remembers going into a saloon, but what followed he does not know. When he came to his senses he found he had been robbed and beaten. A policeman directed him to a doctor, who sent him to the hospital.

ARE YOU SCRATCHING YOUR HEAD?
Have you reached the point where you know you need a Separator and do not know what kind to buy? If you can't decide the question, wait until you see the TUBULAR, and unless you are very different from other people, one glance will decide the question for you. Take a look at this cut of the TUBULAR and then look at some other Separator. Which do you think you would prefer? The TUBULAR itself looks better than the picture. Are you in doubt as to what Separator turns the easiest? Take hold of a Tular and turn it, then try any other Separator: you will no longer have a doubt. The TUBULAR has but three parts to the bowl, runs easier than other Separators, skims closer, is more durable and much more simple and convenient. LOOK AT THE LOW DOWN SUPPLY CAN. A post card will bring you one for trial. If you live south or east of Lindsay, or south of Oakwood road, send to Geo. Hunter, Massey-Harris shop, Lindsay. If north or west, write to P. J.
