HAPPENINGS ABOUT TOWN

Little Local Lines

—The pupils of the north ward school killed a porcupine yesterday.

—On Tuesday morning Mr. Frank Corver fell and sprained his right arm quite severely.

—On Saturday, Mayor Ingle received the certificate of the Humane Society for Mr. Thos. Elliott who saved a young King from drowning last July.

—Mr. H. E. Graham of town teacher at Noyes's Creek school, near Boboygeon, is at home because his school had to be closed on account of diphtheria.

—While handling part of the lock gear at Fenelon Falls yesterday, Mr. G. H. M. Baker had his thumb and hand badly lacerated. Five stitches were put in the wound.

—Mr. Taylor Parkin, Cameron attended the Toronto exhibition and was very proud of the exhibit of disease. A Montreal expert told him that the world could produce no finer.

—On Monday Mr. Stanley Soanes, who has for some years been in the Bay River district as missionary with Rev. Thos. Marsh, arrived in town. Mr. Soanes will stay all winter. Mr. and Mrs. Marsh will reach here early next month.

—On Wednesday of last week Mr. John Kinnear of the Flavelle Milling Company, and a man from Chicago were upset from a boat in the tail race of the chop mill. The Chicago man got on Mr. Kinnear's back and both were in danger of drowning when rescued by Mr. Robt. Miller.

—Sunday will be Rally Day at the Cambridge-st Methodist church. At 11 o'clock Rev. A. J. H. Strike will address the children. An open session of the Sunday School will be held in the afternoon. The pastor, Rev. G. W. Henderson will preach in the evening on "Parental Responsibility."

—Yesterday afternoon as Mr. Ernie Weese was exercising his little trotter, "Johnny Weese" that was hurt recently in the race with Brown's mare at the track, the animal was stung opposite the Separate School and dashed down Lindsay-st. At the bridge he ran against Jas. Dick's coal wagon and hurt his shoulder. It is expected he will be all right again.

—A large audience witnessed Mr. John Fay Palmer's production of Pharaoh at the Academy of Music on Tuesday night. The performance was in some respects very good but on the whole failed to capture the audience. Mr. Palmer's support was not equal to such a heavy play. The music at the close were very fine. Last night Mr. Palmer and his company put on "Ingomar, the Barbarian."

—The harvest festival celebration of the local Salvation Army which takes place on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, Sept. 20, 21 and 22, promises to be a successful affair. The barracks is being tastily decorated, and the articles given to this effort will be displayed on Saturday. On Monday the barracks will open at 3 p.m. and remain open until 9 p.m. for all people who wish to purchase. Everybody is invited to come to these special gatherings.

—On July 3rd the township of Marjones sued King, Jenkins, Parks and Kessick, hotelkeepers of that municipality for $60, on the ground that these men had agreed that if council would submit the repeal of the Local Option bylaw to a vote of the people in January last, and it was submitted they would pay the cost of submitting it. Mr. D. R. Anderson solicitor for the township conducted the suit which was defended by Mr. F. A. McDiarmid. The case was laid over till Sept. 3rd, when it was argued at the court house here before Judge Harding who dismissed it on the grounds that the agreement had not been valid and that in any case, it would be against public policy to allow bargains of that sort.

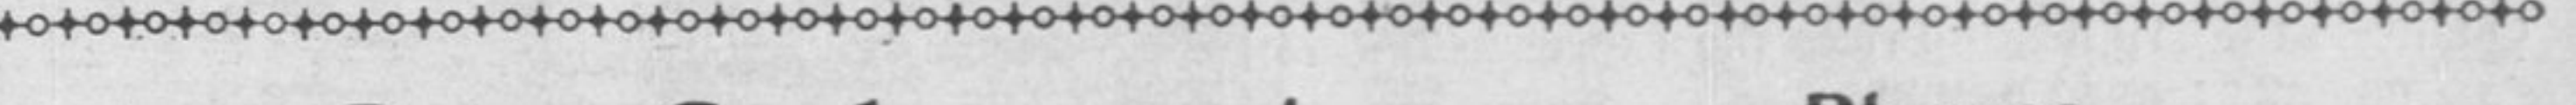

—When coming down from Toronto on Monday night Mr. Jas. Storer was taught some of the "rules of the road" by an agriculturist. Mr. Storer and his wife were sitting together in a seat. The car was crowded and some were standing. Mr. Storer got up and went to the car door for a moment. An aged farmer promptly sat down in the empty seat beside Mr. Storer's wife regardless of that lady's protest that the seat was her husband's. In a moment Mr. Storer returned and claimed the seat. "Surely you don't own the seat," replied the agriculturist. "No, but I was occupying it and left my wife in it, and that gives me a right to it," said Mr. Storer. "Oh, but it doesn't," rejoined the other. "Well, you are sitting beside my wife, too, I hope you will take care of her, too," put in the good-natured superintendant of the G. T. R. who made the best of the car for the rest of the journey.
