DOXSEE-LILLICO. On a very artistically decorated lawn an interesting and pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. Wm. Lillico, Orange Cottage, Mariposa, at 3 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 5, when Miss Jennie C. second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lillico, was married to Mr. Douglas Doxsee, of Peterboro.

The impressive ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. E. Cragg, B.D., of Manilla, and a very pretty wedding march was rendered by Miss Willie Fee, of Cannington. The bride looked extremely graceful and handsome in a lovely wedding gown of white ivory Henrietta, with taffeta and silk trimmings. She wore a tulle veil and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses.

The bride's eldest sister, Edith was maid of honor, wearing a beautiful cream silk gown, and carrying a long bouquet of pink roses with silver silk streamers. The best man was Mr. G. A. Doidge, of Lakeside. The little flower girls, Miss Gracey and Hilda, were charming, and did their part well.

After the ceremony five o'clock tea was served in the tastefully decorated dining hall. Mr. and Mrs. Doxsee left on the 7.30 train for the east, and will make their home in Peterboro.

A few of those present were, Rev. C. E. and Mrs. Cragg, Miss Edith Doxsee, Peterboro, Mr. and Mrs. M. Mitchell, Peterboro, Mr. J. Bert Lillico, Belleville; Miss Willie Fee, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fee, and Mr. and Mrs. Squires, Cannington.

TREMEER-JENKINS. A very pretty wedding occurred at Little Britain on Monday, Sept. 3, when Mr. A. Leslie Tremere, of Peterboro, was united the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Louie E. Jenkins, of that village. The day was bright, breezy and beautiful, an ideal day for September month, and a marriage occasion. The Christian church was the scene of the ceremony and was very prettily decorated with evergreens and seasonal flowers and plants, and presented a most splendid appearance. As the time for the ceremony drew near, the church was filled. Messrs. Victor Pogue and John Ferguson acted as ushers with facility and efficiency. Promptly at 3 o'clock the wedding party, conveyed in Mr. Albert Jett's cab, arrived at the church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. A. Delve, of Blackstock, cousin of the groom. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in point d'esprit, over white taffeta silk, with chiffon trimmings. She wore a bridal veil of tulle, with orange blossoms in her hair, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and chrysanthemums, and looked really charming. The bridesmaid was Miss Agnes Graham, of Toronto, who wore pale blue cologne over blue taffeta, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and chrysanthemums.

MARRIAGE LICENSES are issued by Mr. Thos. Beall, either at his office in MR. G. W. BEALL'S Jewellery store or at his residence on Albert-st., Lindsay.

Golden-McElroy. The marriage of Edward Golden and Miss Edith McElroy was quietly solemnized on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 5th, at the home of the bride's mother in Linden Valley.

Rev. James Wallace, B.D., officiated, and only the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom were present. Mr. Hache, McNabb rendered the wedding march. The bride, who was given away by her brother Robert, was attired in cream silk crepe de chine, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

She was attended by Miss Golden, sister of the groom. Mr. Harry Reeves, of Lindsay, performed the duties of best man. After the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining room, where a dainty dinner was served.

After the customary toasts were duly honored the happy couple left for the north and west. The bride's going away dress was of green Venetian cloth, the tulle being worn over a white silk blouse. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold necklace, to the bridesmaid a gold brooch, set with rubies, and a gold stick pin to the groomsmen.

The wedding march was played by Miss Flossie Smith, of Raglan, who rendered Lohengrin's march while the party were coming in, and Mendel's march as they left the church. Miss Gracie Greenway, wearing white pointe d'esprit over silk, acted as flower girl, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The groom was supported by his only brother, Herbert W., of Toronto, who proved an able assistant. After congratulations had been received at the home, about fifty guests sat down to a splendid dejeuner of the most delicate and palatable viands, with dessert of ice cream, grapes, bananas and peaches. The wedding presents were of a high order—valuable and suitable—showing the esteem in which the bride was held. Among the gifts was a sterling silver manicule set from the groom, and a magnificent Gerhard-Heintzman piano from her father. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a pearl ring; to the groomsmen a pearl stick pin, to the flower girl a bracelet. Near relatives were present from Toronto—Post Terry, Lindsay, Bobeyson, Cartwright, Raglan, and other points. The bride's going away gown was a plum-colored shirt waist suit, with trimmings of baby Irish lace; and feather hat of the same shade; a three-quarter length cream serge coat, with lace collar and cuffs. At 7.30 p.m. the happy couple, amid showers of rice, confetti and congratulations, were driven to the station, whence they took the train for their future home in Peterboro. 'Tis joy will spend their honeymoon in a trip over the Kawartha lakes. All join in wishing them a most happy and prosperous journey on life's matrimonial highway.

A SUBSTITUTE. Little Helen, aged four, was in a frightful predicament. The nurse, carrying the cherished two-week-old baby up and down before the house, had paused to show the new infant to the bishop, who had asked to look at it. And then the tall, grave bishop, of whom Helen stood greatly in awe, had unexpectedly asked the little girl to give him the baby. How in the world to refuse a request made by such an awe-inspiring person as the bishop the child did not know. But presently she wrinkled her small countenance shrewdly, moved closer to the petitioner, and said, ingratiatingly, "I'll let you have the next.—Harper's Weekly.

NOT BETTER, BUT MORE. Church—What do you think of your wife's voice since she took music lessons? Gotham—It's no better; but there seems to be more of it.

ONE ON THE CABMAN. One night Paganini was going to the Paris Opera House, where he was to astonish everyone by playing on one string. Being late, he took a cab, and when he arrived at his destination, the cabby wanted ten francs. "What!" he exclaimed, "you are crazy; I have only had you five minutes!" "I know it is much," said the other, "but for you to make a fortune by playing on one string it must be ten francs." "Well," said Paganini, handing him the right fare, "when you can make your cab go on one wheel come to me and I will give you nineteen francs."—La Caricaturista.

ROOM FOR ONE MORE. A visiting bishop in Washington was arguing with a friend of his on the desirability of attending church. At last he put the question squarely: "What is your personal reason for not attending?" The gentleman smiled in a non-offensive intended way, as he replied: "The fact is one finds so many hypocrites there."

Returning the smile, the bishop said: "Don't let that keep you away; there is always room for one more."

TOOLE'S ONE-ACT PLAY. Here is a good story of the late Mr. Toole: "What I want is a bright, short play," said Toole to the amateur who had brought him a six-act drama. "How do you mean—a short, bright drama?" asked the author. "Can you give me an idea?" "Oh, yes," said Toole, "here's one. It's direct and leaves much to the imagination."

"It is in one act. "When the curtain goes up two persons are discovered on a sofa, one a pretty young woman, the other a nice-looking young fellow. They embrace; neither of them says a word. Then a door opens at the back and a commercial traveller enters. He wears an overcoat and carries an umbrella. You can tell at once by his manner that he is the husband of the young woman. At least that would be the inference of every intelligent playgoer."

"The husband takes off his coat, draws from his pocket a heavy Colt's revolver and in the midst of the silent embrace of hero and heroine fires. "The young woman falls dead. "He fires again and the young man is similarly disposed of. Then the murderer comes forward, puts on a pair of eye-glasses and proceeds to contemplate his sanguinary work. 'Great heavens!' he exclaims, 'I am on the wrong floor.'"

Baby Nearly Dead Mrs. John Cuddy, Killaloe Station, Ont., says:—"My baby was so nearly dead that I had to place my ear close to his breast to know that he was breathing. He was in this condition when I first gave him Baby's Own Tablets and I hardly dared hope that they would save him. But they helped him almost at once, and soon made him a well child. He is now two years old and weighs forty-five pounds, and has never known a sick day since I first gave him the Tablets." Baby's Own Tablets cure constipation, indigestion, diarrhoea, teething troubles, break up colds, expel worms and give little ones natural healthy sleep. And the mother has a guarantee that this medicine contains no opiate or poisonous soothing stuff. Sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail at 25c a box by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

Wise Sayings. Those things called dear are, when justly estimated, the cheapest; they are attended with much less profit to the artist than those which everybody calls cheap.—Ruskin.
