Bowmanville Fair.

Bowmanville Fair will be held on Thursday and Friday, Sept. 27 and 28. This exhibition is one of the leading exhibitions of the Province and it is expected will be bigger and better than ever this year. Stock men will find here one of the finest exhibits of live stock to be seen anywhere. Intending exhibitors, should send their entries at once to the Secretary, M. A. James, Bowmanville, Single railway fare. Arrange to attend and you will be well repaid. The D. O. & P. Co. and the Durham Rubber Co. bands will furnish abundance of music. Grand concert Friday night.

COBOCONK.

On Sunday, 9th inst., Mr. Samuel Mahaffy, a widely known and highly respected resident of Bowmanville, died at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Samuel Smithson, near Rosedale. Mr. Mahaffy was born sixty-eight years ago in Coronary, Baillie-boro, Ireland. He came many years ago to Cartwright, in Durham county, where he resided with his family until about fifteen years ago, when he took up his residence in Somerville. His wife and one son predeceased him many years ago. Although one of the most genial and inoffensive of men, Mr. Mahaffy was a man of definite opinions, who possessed the courage of his convictions, and who was ever ready to defend by argument what he believed, and in the prime of his life he had a retentive mind and a ready wit which rendered him a powerful debater, and consequently he usually had the victory in these intellectual controversies. He was a life-long conservative, a member in good standing in L.O.L., No. 64, Janetville. In religion the deceased was a zealous Presbyterian, and a conscientious christian gentleman.

His burial was conducted in the Fenelon Falls cemetery on Tuesday of last week, Rev. Mr. J. Macdonald, his pastor, officiating.

On Monday of last week the home of Mr. Jer. Phillips was saddened by the death of the youngest member of the family, Master Earl, a fine little boy about two and a half years of age. He fell into the river just behind the home, and was not recovered until life was gone. The family have the sincere sympathy of the whole community in their sorrow.
The home of Mr. Jos. Phillips was brightened by a new face last week.
Mr. Bruce Weaver is receiving congratulations in the arrival of an addition to the family.

Lindsay's Great Exhibition Will Open To-Day

Increased Entries for Competition in all Lines, and Unexpected Program Portend Great Success.

The 1906 fair at Lindsay, which is known as the Lindsay Central exhibition, which opens at the agricultural grounds to-day (Thursday) will without doubt be the grandest event of its kind ever held in this county.
The gentlemen who in the past have brought it to success are still on the list of officers and exhibitors, and their progressive spirit has caused the fair to grow in influence and magnitude, and made it the pride and delight of the county and town.
The progress of the country, and the improvement of conditions in agriculture, in trade, in manufacture, and in the household, are the aims of those who go to the trouble to prepare the choicest exhibits from their farms, workshops, salesrooms and homes.

The officers are as follows: Johnston Ellis, Lindsay, president; Robert Bryans, Lindsay, vice-president; William Channon, Oakwood, 2nd vice president; James Keith, Lindsay, secretary-treasurer; Senator McHugh and S. J. Fox, M.P.P., superintendents. The executive committee is composed of Johnston Ellis, Robert Bryans, John Carey, J. A. Williamson, J. Eyles, Geo. Simpson, John B. Graham, George Rea, E. H. Hopkins, Lindsay; Wm. Channon, Fred Brass, Oakwood; Wm. Lehane, Down-sville; J. Hickson, Mount Hope; Edwin Mark, Little Britain, and Chas. Fairbairn, Bobcaygeon.

Honorary directors: Messrs. S. J.
Fox, M.P.P., Dr. A. E. Vrooman, ex-M.P., J. H. Carnegie, M.P.P., Sam. Hughes, M.P., A. E. Stabach, Newton Smale, Dr. Cornwall, R. J.
Paterson, James Deacon, Arch. Mc-Farlane, John Bailey, Geo. Johnston, Isaac W. Reid, J. H. Sother-an, J. D. Flavell, James Graham, Hon. John Dobson, J. Austin, Hon.
Geo. McHugh, A. L. Campbell, Wm.
Flavell, A. McGee, Frederick Shaver, Dr. McKay, ex-M.P.P., and T.
H. McQuade.

Auditors: Newton Smale, J. H.
Hopkins.

Large entries in the various classes speak of prosperity, and the names of exhibitors will show that the loyalty of the farmers and producers to the Lindsay Central is on the increase.

Among the poultry raisers who are exhibiting are Messrs. King, of Oakwood, Oliver, Lindsay, Alex.
Horn, Lindsay, R. H. Chant, Lakeview, Sam. Snowden, and W. R.
Knight, Bowmanville.

Herds of fancy cattle from the stables of Mr. Campbell, of Camp-bellcroft, Messrs. McDougall & Paterson, of Fenelon Falls, McLeod, of Plainfield, and Jas. Connolly, of Ops, and many other prominent breeders.

Sheep may be seen from the farms of Messrs. H. and N. Allen, of Newcastle, G. H. Mark, Little Britain, John Culb, Linden Valley, J. R.
Keasey, Woodville, Levi Skinner, Tyrone, and George McKague, Cannin-ton.

Pigs are being exhibited by Messrs.
George Mark, Little Britain, Wm.
Hancock, Oakwood, Robert McEach-ern, Argyle, and others.

This county is still noted for fine horses as the thoroughbreds of Messrs. J. S. Staples, Ida, John Torrey, Argyle, Geo. Foster, Brunswick, Wm. Leask, Taunton, A. E.
Webster, Oakwood, Wm. Pollock, Seaward, Peter Hawkins, Reaboro, Geo.
Ward, Peterboro, Thos. Deyell, Mt.
Horeb, H. A. Fallis, Millbank, Sam.
Coulter, Ops, Michael Cochrane, Lindsay, and others, will show.

The speeding events are of unusual interest, as some of the horses entered have lately made fine showing in the track races, and there will be keen contesting. The entries are as follows, and others are yet to enter:

FREE-FOR-ALL.

Blackbird, 2.11, Mr. Willoughby, Sutton.
Cleopatra, 2.12, Mr. Gray, North Bay.

Fenelon Council Pro- ceedings

Council met as per motion at last meeting.

The clerk had been served on the previous Thursday, August 23, with the notice that H. McLachlan had through F. McDiarmid, barrister, of Fenelon Falls, entered suit to recover some $60, damages to his horse owing to a defect in one of the Long Point roads. Council decided to make a defence and directed the clerk to write to their lawyer, Mr. R.
J. McLaughlin, to that effect.

The following motions were passed by the council:

Crags-Smithram—That R. J. Mc-Laughlin be requested to attend the court in Fenelon Falls, Sept. 24th to defend the township in the case of Hector McLachlan against the township of Fenelon claiming $60 damage for injury to his horse on a Long Point road.

Webster—Dewell—That a by-law be introduced authorizing the levying and collecting of the different rates for the year 1906, and the appointment of a collector for same. The by-law was introduced and given its third reading, but was not finally disposed of as no application for collector was received. Mr. Dewell in the chair.

Crags-Smithram—That the $15 granted to Wesley Webster, be spent on quarter line between lots 25 and 26, con. 6.

Smithram—Dewell—That Albert E.
Hore be instructed to spend $5 in graveling the balance of grading done on his beat, and that William Landa, be commissioner to spend $5 on the quarter line between lots 20 and 21, con. 3.

Smithram—Dewell—That Fenelon Agricultural society be made a grant of $20 in care of its secretary, Mr.

Isaac Naylor.

Crags—Webster—That the following bills be paid: John Copp, for 72 loads of gravel, $3.60; W. H.
Powles for postage and stationery, $2.40; Peter Moffat for 108 loads of gravel, $5.40; M. Haygarth for 25 loads of gravel, $1.25; Norman Murchison for 2 days shovelling $2; Good Roads Machinery Co., repairs to grader, $1; Richard Parrington, amount due from 1905, $4; William Tamblyn for 180 loads gravel, $9; Mrs. W. Bailey, bonus on 40 rods wire fence, $10; T. Parkin and R. C.
Webster $1.50, each for examining road where H. McLachlan's horse was said to be hurt, $3; John Waldon, extra grant on his beat, $5; Thomas Shire for 500 loads gravel, $25; W. B. Feir for use of hall today, $2.

Council then adjourned to meet at call of the revee.
JOHN B. POWLES, Clerk.

Death of Mr. Edward Benson

One of our best respected and popular citizens, Mr. Edward Benson, broker, passed away at Granby, Que., on Friday, the 14th, inst., after a brief illness. For many years Mr. Benson had been a resident of the town, being a leading spirit in all commercial enterprises which tended to prosperity and was one of its leasing business men. Of late years he directed his attention to the brokerage business and held a first place amongst the Ontario brokers in this line. He was born in New York city on April the 12th, 1846, and was the youngest of a family of five children, and was the son of J. W. Benson, banker, of that city.
He came to Canada while young, where he has since resided. He married Katherine Marion Duck, of this town, who, with four children, survive to mourn the loss of a kind husband and parent. The children are Mrs. Dr. Blanchard, of town E.
F. Benson, of the Dominion Bank, Hospeler; Teresa and Rupert, who reside at home. Interment took place on Monday at 3 o'clock p.m. from the family residence, Glenelg street, to St. Mary's church, thence to R. C. cemetery. Death was due to cholera.

...It is a great and beautiful thing to be patient if wrongfully accused; to be so strongly grieved round with right that you can meet slander by silence, and calmness with a smile.— Selected.

...I do not believe in the manifestation of the emotions for emotion's sake, nor for mere expression; but the church suffers from lack of the free exercise of the emotional nature as it is moved upon by the great experiences of the Christian life.— Rev. G. J. Bishop, D.D., Lindsay.

...A hard story may be improved by introducing a few hair-raising incidents.

MANILLA.
After a long and painful illness, borne with patience and Christian fortitude, Mr. Wm. Philip, passed away on Saturday afternoon despite all that medical skill, tender care and loving friends could do to alleviate his sufferings. The deceased had been ailing for a long time, so that his death was not unexpected.
The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Ezzard, of Orangeville, a particular friend of the deceased, and a former pastor of the Methodist church here. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved wife, one son, and two daughters, and also to his two remaining brothers, Thomas, of Can-nington, and John, of Brock, in their irreparable loss. Mr. Philip had reached the advanced age of 76 years.

Mrs. Berkley and family, of Hamilton, are the guests of her father, Mr. L. Pearce.

Mr. and Mrs. Jamie McLean and young child, have returned from their trip to Rochester from visiting friends.

Mr. Wm. Jewell, of Port Perry, visited his brother, Mr. T. Jewell, last week, who is quite poorly, and who purposes renting his farm to go to Cannington to reside in the near future.

Mrs. John Michael, jr., who was taken very ill with inflammation of the lungs while attending her father, is, we are pleased to say, much better and able to be out again.

Miss Mary Douglas went to Blackwater last week to visit her niece, Mrs. Joe Allan, and from there to Toronto to spend her holidays with her sister, Mrs. John Thompson.

Opening of the Academy "The Arrival of Kitty."

A Good Audience and Interesting Comedy Opened the Theatrical Season in Lindsay—Improvements to the Theatre.

The elite of Lindsay were well represented at the opening of the Academy of Music on Monday evening, and thoroughly enjoyed the merry comedy success, "The Arrival of Kitty." Manager Shelton has succeeded in making the academy an attractive place in which to spend an evening. Last season he put in operation some reforms which placed the house upon a basis of refinement and order, and this season he has had the handsome theatre decorated and renovated, and the interior is indeed a pleasure to the eye. The academy is now in the regular circuit and the attractions mentioned in another column are a guarantee that the season will be a success as far as the character of entertainments is concerned.

"The Arrival of Kitty" is a light comedy full of fun, and the several players belong to the best class of comedy artists. The role of Kitty Benders, gave ample opportunity for the talents of Miss Eveleen Dunmore.

Her singing and acting showed her to be a clever artiste. Her voice is of good quality, and both in speaking and singing she has excellent control of it.

It was a wonder how Hal Johnson, as Billy Brown, managed to make such a good impersonation.
Mr. Mark Lane as Colonel Bell, made things lively in the role of leading man, and did first-class work in the half sporting, half business character which appears in many modern comedies. The French maid, Suzette, Miss Branscome, was petite and "knows her business." She was quite fetching in her appeal to the gentleman in the box. Miss Gladys Arnold as Jane, and Miss Frede West as Aunt Jane, are actresses of a good school. The "mascot," a little dog, which occupied a dress circle seat, and laughed at all the funny things, and came on the stage at the right time in the last scene, was an object of admiration.

Mr. C. B. Lasell, of New York, and who was for two terms an alderman in that city in the '90's, is here working on the publication of a fire chart. He has just completed the work of a similar publication in Peterborough, which netted the sum of $108 as a nucleus for a firemen's sick benefit fund of that city. The proceeds of his efforts here are to be devoted to the starting of a firemen's benefit fund for Lindsay. Mr.
Lasell has the endorsement of the mayor, Dr. E. A. Vrooman, and Chief Harry Bell, and is calling upon local manufacturers, merchants and financial institutions, soliciting advertising for the chart. This official fire chart will be distributed throughout the town for handy reference. It will give information about fire regulations and the numbers and places of alarm boxes in the town, and will prove a useful thing for citizens. Two copies will also be sent to fire departments, councils and boards of trade throughout the country, thus keeping the various brigades and municipal organizations in touch with each other in regard to fire protection.
Mr. Lasell should have the hearty support of the townspeople. The object is a good one, and the chart will be most useful.

BOARD OF TRADE.

The council of the board of trade met last week to organize for a progressive season. The boatbuilding industry, which has made a good start through the efforts of Mr.
Jessie Ferrin, under discussion, and the board will doubtless lend its influence to extend this business which has good opportunities. The report of the improvement committee was not presented, but it is anticipated that the prizes for well kept premises in the town will be awarded shortly. The gas proposition is also under consideration and it is hoped that some arrangement can be made this year whereby Lindsay can have a first-class gas plant. The street railway and some large industries are also to come soon, and there is busy work for the board this year.

BROKE HIS LEG.

Mr. I. Reed, of Reaboro, last week while standing on an elevated platform feeding a threshing machine, met with a bad accident. The platform fell with Mr. Reed, causing a very bad fracture of both bones of right leg. He is now progressing favorably.
