

HORSE HEALTH

Horses are subject to winter ailments—colds, coughs, lung troubles, etc., the same as humans and need their vitality and strength kept up so as to withstand sudden attacks. Don't wait till they are sick and unfit for work, but give them right through the winter. It purifies the blood and corrects all disorders of kidneys and liver. It will save you veterinarians' bills and will keep your horses in splendid condition. Just as good for cattle as for horses. Even one 20¢ package may be the means of saving the life of a valuable animal

Old English Condition Powder

Little Local Lines

—Henley Bros., who have been handling the Watchman-Warden Pictorial Post Cards have now added the views of the Sturgeon Point regatta. Sturgeon Pointers should secure these fine views for their albums or to send to their friends.

Don't you think of buying your Suit or Overcoat until you have seen the NEW GOODS at the STAR CLOTHING STORE.

Fenelon Falls Gazette says: Victoria County Butter is the best in Canada, according to the judgment of the judges at the Toronto exhibition, who gave the red ticket to the produce of the Lindsay creamery.

Lucky for it that the proprietors of the Fenelon Falls creamery had not time to get up an exhibit for the fair, or the award would have been in grave danger of coming a few miles further north.

Come in and see the new stock of Fall Clothing, at the STAR CLOTHING STORE, two doors east of the Benson House.

—Patrons of the highest class of theatrical performances—people who demand absolutely the best—will be pleased to know that Canada's leading tragedian, John Griffith, will shortly appear in Lindsay in a majestic revival of Shakespeare's immortal tragedy "Richard the Third," aided by a superior company and complete scenic equipment.

—The Gulf River Lumber Company have recently purchased the Rathbun timber limits in the townships of Sherbourne and Stanhope, comprising over seventy square miles, on which there is still a very large quantity of valuable timber.

WANTED TO BUY.—Good comfortable house near the R. C. church. Cash purchaser. Apply at this office.—37.

—The North Verulam correspondent of the Bobcaygeon Independent says: A very interesting event took place at the residence of Mr. Wm. Elliott last week, being no less than the marriage of two persons, each of whom are deaf and dumb. They were both educated at Bellville Institute, and are each clever and in many ways gifted. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Coon, of Bobcaygeon. Mrs. Foster Heron acting as interpreter and repeating the ceremony by signs. There were about forty guests present and the young couple left for their future home near Bracebridge with the good wishes of a host of friends.

You can save $ Dollars by buying your Clothing, Furnishings, Hats, Caps and Furs at the STAR CLOTHING STORE, two doors east of the Benson House.

—The Peterboro Examiner says: It is probable that some of the local poultry fanciers will go to the Lindsay fair this week with their birds. One of the leading poultry breeders in the city told the Examiner to-day that it was quite probable that about 50 pairs of chickens would be sent from this city by the breeders here, and he expressed himself as confident that some prize money would find its way back to Peterborough.

—WANTED—Girl for general house-work. Apply to MRS. DEACON, 4 Glenelg street.

—An Exchange says: The encore fiddle is at his old tricks again! He could be cured by being compelled to stay, after the regular program has been carried out, to hear all the encorers for which he has asked by his applause.

—Mr. E. A. Edwards, formerly with Mr. B. J. Gough, corner Kent and William streets, begs to inform his many friends that he has severed his connection with the above firm and has taken an interest in the STAR CLOTHING STORE. He wishes to have all his old friends as well as new ones call on him at the new store, Graham's Old Stand, two doors east of the Benson House.

—Students may still enter the Lindsay Federal Business College for fall term. We are living in a time when it pays to possess a good commercial education, and the success of "Federal" graduates in obtaining and retaining the very best situations, testifies to the merits of the instruction.—38-2.

—The Annual convention of the Baptist churches in Ontario will be held in the Murray street Baptist church, Peterboro, from October 17 to 23rd, and it is expected that between 350 and 500 delegates will be present. The question of holding a Dominion Convention will be discussed. It is some years now since a gathering of Dominion Baptists was held, and it is probable that at this convention representatives from the various provincial bodies will be present to take part in the discussion on this question.

—The funeral of the late George Perrington, of Omemee, who died on Thursday, at the age of 50 years, was held on Saturday, the burial taking place in Zion cemetery, Fenelon. Mr. Perrington was an Englishman, and came to this country about 50 years ago. He leaves a family of eight children.

—An exchange says: The trade territory of a town is not all dependent upon the distance to neighbouring trading points. The trade territory depends upon the enterprise of the merchants and residents of the town. If the town does not reach after trade it will only come as fast as it has to, and it will grow as it is forced to. But if the merchants go after business in every possible way and make good every word of their advertising, trade will come from an ever increasing radius, the town will gain a reputation for being awake, and it will forge to the front. It is the men in town, and not altogether the men living within a certain number of miles from it, that make a town.

—The following from the Leader and Recorder is one of those arguments in favor of buying at home that no one can object to.—"Bacon is 24¢ a pound sliced on the counter of a big departmental store in Toronto. The same goods can be bought in Toronto Junction for 18 and 20 cents. As a rule money can be saved by buying goods at home. There is a wonderful organization behind the business of these great establishments but they are not philanthropic institutions. Now, again things you can do without are thrown on the bargain counter, but the staple articles that must be bought every day are not given away. They get as big a profit and a little more than your local trades-

SATURDAY, SEPT. 29.—By Evans Bowes, auctioneer, crockery sale of household furniture on the premises, over Lindsay's store, south side Kent-st., Lindsay, the property of Mrs. Charles Bartlett, Sale at one o'clock.

POWLES' CORNER.

Visitors at the Lindsay Central exhibition should call at The Watchman-Warden and renew subscriptions. Mr. N. E. Johnston had the misfortune to fall from a wagon Monday afternoon, and sustained the fracture of two bones below the elbow in his right arm.

A large number from here intend going to Fenelon-Falls to hear Mr. Hector (known as the Black Knight) deliver his lecture on "The Evils of the Bar-Room."

Mr. A. C. Greenaway has resigned his position as school teacher for the year ending 1906. He leaves to continue his studies at college.

Rev. H. B. Kenny has returned from his trip to Manitoba and Chicago, and occupied his pulpit here last Sunday.

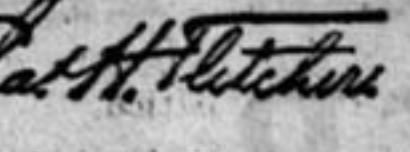

Threshing and cutting corn are the doing of the hour.

Mrs. Kenny, of Toronto, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Simms.

There were two funerals on Saturday last. That of the late Mr. G. Parrington, sr., at 9 o'clock, and the late Wm. Adams, at 2 o'clock, at which there were about 80 vehicles. A number of county officials and others attended from Lindsay and other places.

The unveiling of the monument erected to the late Wilbert Switzer, a Woodman, will take place in the Emily cemetery next Sunday at 2:30 p.m. Many members of the order are expected from Lindsay and Peterboro, besides some of the Grand Lodge officials.

At the Presbyterian church on Thursday, 25th inst., at 8 p.m., Dr. Alex Nugent, a returned medical missionary from India, after seven years there with his wife and daughter, during the famine and plague, will give a description of his work. Being a former pupil of Omemee high school, he will no doubt attract large audiences.

R. J. Grandy, son of our postmaster, was a passenger on the ill-fated harvest excursion train that was wrecked at Azilla, but escaped uninjured, and continued his "trip west." Dr. W. Mulligan, one of the physicians who was in attendance at the wreck, is a brother of Mr. R. J. Mulligan, of this village.

Dr. Cornwall's condition is unchanged. A number of his old Lindsay friends cheered him up last Saturday by a short call.

The water is low in Pigeon river now, but there is still very good sport shooting and fishing.

PERSONALS

Mr. J. A. Deacon, is again in Toronto, having spent a month's holidays with friends in town.

Rev. R. McCulloch, of Omemee, has been attending the Methodist general conference at Montreal.

Mrs. May Bird, who has been visiting Mrs. Myles Elliott, town, has returned to Rochester, N.Y.

Harold Varcoe, of Midland, four years ago, a boy in the local Bell Telephone office, has been promoted to the position of manager of the North Bay district.

Mr. J. Houser, clothing merchant, William street, is in Toronto this week, attending the fast and attorney services at the synagogue. His store will be closed from Wednesday to Saturday evening.

Mr. Alex. Horn, was in Ottawa last week on business. He was registered at the Gilmore, but on the night of the fire had accepted an invitation to spend the night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Combes, formerly of Lindsay. Mr. Horn thinks the invitation was providential in leading him to a place of safety.

Miss Alma A. McLeod left for Toronto Monday evening, after spending two weeks under the parental roof.

Mr. Wickett, of Clark's tailor shop, has returned from his vacation.

Mr. W. H. Clarke was one of the delegates to the Seventh General Conference of the Methodist church, which met in Montreal during the past week.

Mr. T. G. Hawkins, merchant, Janetville, is spending a couple of weeks vacation on the Kawartha lakes.

The men living within a certain number of miles from it, that make a town.
