By-Election Devices for the Machine's Benefit

Polling Arranged With a Purpose. Increase of Taxation. Mr. Fielding's Mint Mistakes. Mr. Parent's Pleasant Position. Mr. Aylesworth Pleased, but Other Liberals Complain Over New Cabinet Appointments. Mr. Borden's Meetings.

Ottawa, Sept. 7, 1907. Though five constituencies are vacated writes have been issued for only two. These nominations are to take place on the 18th, giving the shortest possible notice. The seat for London which was not occupied last Session, and those for Wellington and Northumberland, vacated during the sitting of the House, wait for a future day. The Premier expects the election of his two new Ministers and hopes to impress the three doubtful ridings with this record. It will then be possible to concentrate the work of the machine on the close contests.

IN A CRIMINAL PROSECUTION

It has already been shown how by elections may be worked in London city, and it may be that the organization is not yet in shape for business there, since a part of it is in exile, and a larger portion out on bail. In former times Sir Wilfrid Laurier was accustomed to denounce the practice of holding by-elections piecemeal and at times that suited party convenience. But no leader in Canada or any other country has used its power so much as he to obtain unfair advantage over his opponents and over public sentiment.

GROWING TIME IN TAXES.

The revenue returns for August show that Mr. Fielding collected in customs taxes a million dollars more than he did in August last year. It is the boast of the Government organs that a millions dollars increase has been recorded in each of five months of this fiscal year and that the Customs Department is now 5,000,000 ahead of the record. This is a queer boast from ministers who came into power pledged to reduce taxation, and who even last year took in taxes just twice as much per head out of the people of Canada as the Conservative Government took in 1896. The Minister of Customs says its all right because the people are paying voluntarily since they would

MR. FIELDING'S MINT.

It is announced that besides nine officials imported from England to operate the new mint there will be sixty-five other employees. It will cost nearly $20,000 a year for the first nine, and between fifty and sixty thousand dollars a year for the others. When Mr. Fielding proposed to establish the mint he promised to operate it for $65,000 a year. It will cost him more than that for wages and salaries alone, and this will be not more than half the actual charge. Mr. Fielding proposed to build the establishment for $200,000, and one contract has been given for $267,000 leaving a great deal of work for others outside of it. The equipment will cost nearly double the estimate and the interest charge, which the minister estimated at $9,000 will be more than twice that. Heretofore the manufacture of Canadian coins has cost on an average about $10,000 to

MR. BORDEN IN QUEBEC.

Mr. Borden has reached Ottawa after a remarkably successful series of meetings in Quebec, and begins at once his Ontario tour. The most exacting Conservative could not fail to be satisfied with the attendance at these meetings and their enthusiasm. Everywhere the leader has been heard with profound attention by immense audiences, and has discussed frankly the principles laid down in the Halifax platform. While the Nova Scotia and New Brunswick meetings endorsed these doctrines by strong manifestations of approval, the French Canadians have not been less cordial. There is no doubt that the Government is losing its hold in the Province where it has been the very strongest, and that Sir Wilfrid's personality is no longer sufficient to atone for the errors and offences of his administration and of his colleagues.

THE QUEBEC SITUATION.

Mr. Bourassa's movement, and the exposures made by a number of Independent Liberals, have greatly discredited the Provincial Government, which has been since the fall of the Ross Administration the right hand of the Ministry at Ottawa. During the last few days Senator Legris, a prominent Liberal politician, and Mr. Lafamme one of the leading Liberal jurists of the Province, have joined in the platform campaign that Mr. Bourassa is carrying on. These disclosures among the Provincial Liberals encourage the people of the Province to give careful attention to political questions on their merits.

This is what Mr. Borden asks from them. Among powerful speakers who occupied the platform with Mr. Borden in Quebec, were Mr. Monk, Mr. Bergeron, Mr. Marechal, Mr. Pope and Mr. Ames, and several other effective orators and debaters.

SCANDALOUS DELAY IN ELECTION TRIALS.

One clause in the Conservative platform demands the speedy trial of election petitions. A comment on this is the Halifax election trial, which began in December, 1904, and is again postponed at the request of the sitting members. Mr. Borden said in Halifax that he believed he was fairly elected by the people. It is the business of the Court to determine whether his claim is just. Yet for three sessions the two respondents, said to be illegally elected, have occupied seats in the House, and this postponement will give them a fourth session, which will probably complete the Parliamentary term.

For the third time the case is coming to the Supreme Court of Canada on appeal, arriving as before just in time for the proceedings to delay the trial to the beginning of the session, and therefore to the end of it, since trials cannot take place while the house is sitting. On the last occasion the Supreme Court sent the petition back without even hearing what the petitioner's counsel had to say, so little reason did the members give for escaping trial.

THE CONSTITUENCY CHAIR.

The sitting members have second postponements during recess and enjoyed immunities during the recess. They have evaded service and failed to respond to summonses, they have taken appeals that were dismissed at sight and secured one dismissal of the petition which the Supreme Court on an appeal reversed after hearing counsel for sitting members only. They wound up at Halifax with a grand flourish by summoning an array of bankers, railway agents, capitalists and notable people from all over Canada to appear as witnesses against Mr. Borden, and then without allowing them to testify had the trial postponed and sent out stories of what these witnesses were expected to tell. Mr. Borden and his friends did all they could to have the whole story told years ago, and to have the Halifax seat awarded to the men honestly elected. Yet two alleged usurpers have been occupying the seats and have been off all enquiry as to their right to be there. It has cost them many thousands of dollars to do this, but their funds are rich. There is sufficient reason in this crime against the people for Mr. Borden's demand for the prompt trial of petitions.

WHEN HE WAS VINDICATED.

It is announced in the Government organs that Sir Wilfrid Laurier ordered Mr. Sifton one of the members of the Cabinet lately filed. Mr. Pugh and Mr. Graham must be pleased with (Continued on page 7).
