By-Election Devices for the Machine's Benefit

Now that they were second choices! Sir Wilfrid does not appear to have asked Mr. Sifton to go anywhere and obtain a vindication, as he did with Mr. Emmerson, nor did he send a mutual friend to obtain a statement from Mr. Sifton in regard to rumors of a stratagem, as was done in the case of Mr. Hyman.
ABSENT TREATMENT.
Mr. Hyman went abroad in November of last year. He began to resign his seat at the same time and kept at it during several months, finally announcing about the first of April, that his salary as Minister of Public Works at $7,000 a year paid down to the appointment of Mr. Pugsley a few days ago?
MR. AYLESWORTH SATISFIED.
A meeting of the Ontario Reform Association was held this week in Toronto. Mr. Aylesworth took occasion to say that Sir Wilfrid had selected "the ablest man in sight," who he passed over all the Ontario members and promoted Mr. Graham. Mr. Aylesworth would say that Sir Wilfrid did the same when he passed over the elected and called in Mr. Aylesworth himself, but his party is not now unanimously of that opinion. The Minister of Justice indicated the value of his own opinion when he heaped high praise on Mr. Hyman and endorsed the conduct of the Ross ministry in its last days. He made his remarks about Mr. Emmerson, but did not explain how disappointed Sir Wilfrid was when he could not get Mr. Sifton.
NOT FOND OF OPPORTUNISTS.
Mr. Howat, the present head of a well-known Liberal family, presided at the Reform Association meeting. He rejoiced that the Liberals' present were "not like those unfortun-

WEAK, SICKLY PEOPLE

WILL FIND NEW STRENGTH IN THE USE OF DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.
A great many young men and women are suddenly seized with weakness. Their appetite fails them; they tire on the least exertion, and become pale and thin. They do not feel any specific pain—just weakness. But that weakness is dangerous. It is a sign that the blood is thin and watery; that it needs building up. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will restore lost strength because they actually make new, rich blood—they will help you.
Concerning them Mr. Alfred LePage, of St. Jerome, Que., says: "For several years I have been employed in a grocery and up to the age of seventeen I had always enjoyed the best of health. But suddenly my strength began to leave me; I grew pale, thin and extremely weak. Our family doctor ordered a complete rest and advised me to remain out of doors as much as possible, so an uncle who lived in the Laurentides. I was in hope that the bracing mountain air would help me, but it didn't, and I returned home in a deplorable state. I was subject to dizziness, indigestion and general weakness. One day I read of a case very similar to my own cured through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I decided to give them a trial. After taking four boxes of the pills I felt greatly improved, so continued their use for some time longer and they fully cured me. I am now able to go about my work as well as ever I did and have nothing but the greatest praise for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."
"The blood—good blood—is the secret of health. If the blood is not pure the body becomes diseased or the nerves shattered. Keep the blood pure and disease cannot exist. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make rich red blood—that is why they cure anemia-

An Englishman, an Irishman and a Scotchman were one day arguing as to which of the three countries possessed the fastest trains.
"Well," said the Englishman, "I've been in one of our trains, and the telegraph poles have been like a hedge."
"I've seen the milestones appear like tombstones," said the Scot.
"Be jabers!" said the Scot. "I was one day in a train in my country, and field of carrots; also a field of cabbage and parsnips; then a pond of water, and we were going so fast I thought it was broth!"

SOCIETY AT THE D. R. A. Matches
RECEPTION OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE D.R.A., AND MRS. HUGHES, WAS A BRILLIANT FUNCTION.
The Ottawa Citizen in its report of the D.R.A. matches at Ottawa last week, says:
The range was largely attended yesterday. The At Home, given by the new president, Colonel Sam Hughes, and Mrs. Hughes, was attended by the elite of Ottawa, and the pretty grounds of the association were thronged with visitors, and the drives were filled with carriages and autos. Refreshments were served, and the Guards' band furnished music for the occasion. The attendance was very large, perhaps one of the largest since the range opened, denoting the popularity of the new president and Mrs. Hughes.
Under the heading "Society at the Range—Reception of the President of D.R.A. was Brilliant," the following is given by the Citizen:
The first large social function of the season took place yesterday at the Rockcliffe rifle ranges, when the popular president of the Dominion Rifle Association and Mrs. Hughes were at home from 4 to 6.30 o'clock to several hundred of their friends.
Col. Sam Hughes and Mrs. Hughes received in the reception hall of the bungalow, and were assisted by their young daughter, Miss Hughes. The afternoon was all that could have been desired, and the beautiful spot never looked lovelier. The bright uniforms of the military men, mingling with the gay, becoming gowns of the ladies, made a pretty scene. Many new faces were noticeable among those present, and to those who visited the range for the first time on such an occasion it must have been a revelation. The various trophies on view as usual attracted a great deal of attention, and were much admired.
This annual social affair is always much anticipated by Ottawans, especially as it is really the first glimpse of those who have returned from their summer outings, and consequently many warm friendships are renewed and enjoyed. Light refreshments were served to the guests throughout the afternoon, and the delightful music furnished by the guards band on the beautiful green lawn was very greatly appreciated.
Among those present were noticed: Lady Laurier, Colonel Gibson, Mrs. Robert Cartwright, Miss Aylmer, Miss Campbell, Mrs. H. K. Egan, Mr. and Mrs. Henry McLeod, Colonel and Mrs. Tilton, Major, Mrs. and Miss Winter, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. C.P.R. TO BUILD FROM KAMLOOPS TO EDMONTON

COMPANY HAS THE ROUTE SURVEYED AND PLANS PREPARED. ESTABLISHING TERMINAL DOCKS.
It must be conceded that the C.P.R. has figured very largely in the growth of the West, and it is interesting to note that the railway intends to grow with that growing country. According to the Edmonton Journal a line is to be built from Edmonton to Kamloops in the near future. The Journal says:
R. Marpole, of the C.P.R., reached here yesterday to meet the shippers of the city who are dissatisfied with the terminal arrangements now in force in connection with the E. & N. railway. When the line was in the hands of the Hon. Jas. Dunsuir the depot at Store streets and the yards there and in Victoria west sufficed for traffic. There has been such an enormous development under the new management that the congestion is hampering business badly. The company wants to clear the C.P.R. lands on Vancouver Island, but so far the railway and land company have not been able to complete arrangements. If the meeting to-day fails in clearing up the matter it is likely the C.P.R. will do the clearing by employing machinery. The cleared areas will be laid out in such a way that a man may buy two hundred acres of which perhaps twenty or forty will be cleared, the remainder being available for timber or cord wood, and the whole being purchasable at a much lower figure than under the original plan of clearing all the land. Mr. Marpole thinks the cost of clearing will be lower than the estimates allowed, but thinks each of his gangs will be able to clear up half an acre a day.
Several miles nearer the ocean than Old Albernia is the objective of the C.P.R. for its line across Vancouver Island, according to a statement by Mr. Marpole. He announces that the line will be continued right down to New Albernia, where there is deep water for the liners without dredging. He denies that the C.P.R. owns any townsite at Albernia, but states it has a large portion of water front from the Anderson syndicate of London, and will let this to the mills and other industrial enterprises.
Mr. Marpole states the E. & N. will seek a subsidy at the next session of the House for an extension of the line from Comox, to which point they already have a subsidy, as far as Campbell River. The C.P.R. has decided to commence immediately the construction of the line from Kamloops to Edmonton via the North Thompson River. This information is gleaned from private sources which are in close touch with the Montreal headquarters. Mr. Marpole is now gathering data in respect to this plan to place before Sir Thos. Shaughnessy when he arrives in British Columbia in September, accompanied by some of the directors of the railway. The C.P.R. owns the charter covering the construction of this route and is in possession of comprehensive reports and field notes which were made years ago when the intention was to build the main line through the Yellowhead Pass and down to the North Thompson River. Having this information at hand, the C.P.R. is placed at an advantage over competitive lines which plan to build lines over practically the same route. The route as surveyed was by the east bank of the North River to the mouth of Clearwater where it crosses to the west bank. It then follows the general course of the river to the Alhreda River where it again crosses and there leaves the Thompson to follow the south and east sides of the west and north for some distance, and thence on the south and east sides of the river to Tete Jaune Cache, where it would meet the road from Edmonton.

DUBLIN'S GREAT SHOW

OPENS IN SPLENDID WEATHER WITH ATTENDANCE LARGE AND BRILLIANT AND VERY SATISFACTORY ENTRIES.
Mr. Thomas Elliott, the Ontario Government representative, sends the Watchman-Warder a copy of the Evening Herald, (Dublin) of Tuesday, August 27th, containing a report that will be of interest of the great Dublin Horse Show. The Herald says:
Beneath the smile of a benign sun the great Horse Show opened this morning. Such climate conditions came as a pleasurable surprise to the majority of people, who had been led by the experience of the past six months to expect anything but brilliant weather. Given a fine day, nothing else is wanted to make the show one of the most successful in the Three Kingdoms, not only as an equine carnival, but as a social function.
It is probably the social side of the Show that appeals to the many. Of course its unique position amongst the horse shows of a horse show, goes without saying; but after all, the "friend of man" does not make universal appeal to the public, and if it were to rely solely upon its merits it is doubtful if the name and fame of the great summer display at Ballsbridge would attract that it does at present, be the display of horses never so magnificent.
This year the Show is even more conspicuously brilliant as a social function than ever before. The International Exhibition has been a magnet to draw thousands to the Irish capital during the past few months, and even before Horse Show week the hotel accommodation of the city was taxed to its utmost capacity. Where the additional thousands who have come up for the Show can find shelter and food, is a problem that baffles solution. If the fine weather had not come with such unexpectedness, it is probable that some enterprising individual might have started a city of tent in the fields adjacent to Ballsbridge, with the VERY JUSTIFIABLE EXPECTATION of reaping a fair profit. The Show grounds, spacious as they are, to-day gave plain evidence that so far as attendance went this year was going to mark a record. The broad walks and cool, roomy enclosures have been scarcely ever more congested, and the attendance was of a more cosmopolitan character than even veteran show-goers could remember.
Last year no less than 58,176 people passed through the turnstiles; this year that number will probably be INCREASED BY A THIRD.
The entries this year total 1,816, which is below the number for last year—1,855. It is, however, above the average for the past five years, which was 1,298. The highest number of entries received during the forty years of the show's existence was in 1897, when the total exceeded 1400. There have been occasions when they fell below 1,200, but these have been rare. It should be borne in mind, however, that it is not to the total entry that the show owes its greatness, but to the fact that it is the greatest show of hunters in the world the hunter classes being the backbone of the fixture. This year's display of hunters shows no falling away from the high quality
OF PREVIOUS YEARS.
The Lord Lieutenant, Earl of Aberdeen, arrived at the show in his motor at 12.30. His Excellency, who was accompanied by Lord Grenfell, and the Hon. Mervyn Williams, A.D.C., was received at the entrance by the Earl of Drogheda and other members of the Council of the Royal Dublin Society. The distinguished party first inspected the hunters and then proceeded to visit the different rings.
In addition to what our Galle neighbors would call the "haut ton" the masses were strongly represented at the show. Rural Ireland came in countless trainloads from north, and south, east and west. On their way they encountered the International Exhibition, and the sight of its white portals and pinnacles a-butter with flags proved too much for many of them. "The Horse Show inter," they said in effect, and dismounted themselves from the crowded frame and went into the great white fair there to spend a few hours of unqualified enjoyment. Late they made their appearance in the show grounds to swell the huge assembly there.

Civil Service Reform
In introducing the civil service reform plank of his platform at Halifax, Mr. Borden said: "Three-fourths of the time of members supporting a Government is occupied in dealing with matters of patronage. Party pressure and party service have more weight than character and capacity. The public service is cumbered with useless officials. I am convinced we shall perform a great public duty by establishing in this country that system which prevails in Great Britain, under which a member of Parliament has practically no voice in or control over any appointment to the civil service. Upon attaining power we shall without delay enter upon and complete the necessary investigation to guide us as to details, and this investigation will be promptly followed by the requisite legislation." This is a straightforward and statesmanlike utterance on one of the most important public questions of the day.
