

TELEGRAPHY OPENS THE WAY

To a Successful Life

Several thousand Telegraph Operators will be required by the various Railway companies within the next six months. On AUGUST 1st, I will open a school in Lindsay, to be known as the

National School of Telegraphy

Board here is reasonable, and all ordinary students should graduate here within six months. Write or see me for terms. The greatest and most successful managers of to-day have, with rare exception, risen from the ranks of the operators. Salaries of operators run from $50 to $80 per month, according to the importance of the position. Operators who are Agents, make from $60 to $100 per month, and are always eligible for promotion. Lady operators for commercial work are in great demand. Qualifications necessary are few but absolutely essential, viz: a common school education, strict sobriety, honesty, industry and carefulness.

Sir William C. Van Horne, of C. P. R. fame, began his railway career as an operator; so did J. W. Leonard, C. W. Spencer, George C. Jones, and scores of others, all now holding high positions. Address NATIONAL SCHOOL OF TELEGRAPHY, Lindsay, Ont.

While Mr. F. C. Stephenson was making alterations at the grist mill before installing the electric dynamo, he observed a large mud turtle in the water. The animal was considerably difficult to handle, and was pulled from the dam. It proved to be a snapping turtle, and measured 2 feet 7 inches across the back. No doubt this fellow has inhabited the Pigeon waters for a great many years.

BEXLEY.

Owing to the disagreeable weather the last few days, the harvest has been greatly delayed. Our school has opened with a fairly good attendance. We are pleased to see our teacher, Miss McAnis, with us again.

Mrs. Josie Brentnell returned after spending a couple of weeks with friends at Glenora. The McKague brothers are doing a rushing business these times. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Black and two children of Vancouver, B. C. spent a few days with friends here. Quite a number from here intend to go to the Lindsay Central Fair. Mr. Sangster is still giving the Bible reading. Miss McDonald was a young woman of excellent character and attractive personality, and much sorrow is felt for her loss.

Another funeral, that of the late Thomas Munroe, was held at four o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Turner conducted the service, and the body was interred in "Lakewood" cemetery. The bearers were all intimate friends of the deceased.

The above concert was largely attended, showing the appreciation of Mrs. Eaton's kind gift, by the good citizens of the village and community.

The congregation of Pleasant Point were all pleased to have their pastor, Mr. Robbins, with them last Sunday, after his recent illness.

West Durham Fair at Bowmanville on Thursday and Friday, Sept. 26 and 27 promises to surpass any former exhibition in some respects. The competition in light and heavy horses, Durham cattle, Shrops and South Down sheep, poultry, fruit and vegetables, will be very keen. As a live stock show Bowmanville has led all Eastern Ontario for years; indeed, there are few better purely agricultural exhibitions in Ontario.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT SUNDERLAND

MRS. SHANNON, OF RED CLOUD, NEBRASKA, THE VICTIM OF AN UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT. Mrs. Shannon, of Red Cloud, Nebraska, who was visiting at Mr. Bryson's, near Sunderland, was the victim of a most unfortunate accident last week. Mrs. Shannon was driving to town accompanied by a young girl, when they met an automobile. The horse took fright, and though the machine was promptly stopped, she so to give every assistance to the lady, the horse was beyond control, and before it could be reached, had thrown the occupants out. Mrs. Shannon was thrown heavily onto her head first and fell against a stone. Death resulted in a few hours from the severe injuries received. The girl was uninjured.

The accident was apparently unavoidable, and all concerned will have the sympathy of the community. The remains of the late Mrs. Shannon were sent to Red Cloud, Nebraska for interment. A husband and seven children are left to mourn the loss.

A few days ago an officer of the C. A. Society received a note of information regarding a neglected child—a babe 4 months old, and in order to make enquiries into the matter, the recipient of the note visited the home on Saturday last.

The parents were both at home and the babe was to be seen as reported in very scant attire. When the object of the visit was made known there was for a time a flurry of profanity.

The woman then uttered, as it were, a signal of warning to her husband, who was in an adjoining room, and as yet had not appeared on the scene. With great force of speech she yelled: "Jack, tis time to fire up! Jack 'tis time to fire up!"; but there came no answer from Jack.

The visitor could not understand what the woman meant, but supposed she was calling to her little boy to come and start a fire in the stove. After exchanging a few words more with the visitor, the woman again called out fiercer than before the same mystic warning.

This time Jack appeared—as the husband and father, denying the charge that his children had been neglected. He declared quite manly that he himself took care of the children whenever his wife went out to work.

Somehow it is difficult to understand why "Jack" had not been out working instead of his wife. The mother then told the visitor that she could care for her children as she pleased; that she would even lock them in the house alone if she wanted to do so; and when told that such an act would not be allowed the storm of words grew wider and vicious threats were made against any person who might attempt to take her children from her.

She was assured by the visitor that no such action was contemplated, but the Society would certainly request her to give better attention to her little babe.

Just then the woman seemed to take thought of some party whom she supposed had written the note, and giving the child hurriedly to the father, she started out in swift pursuit.

Judging from the language used at the time, this woman could not be deemed a proper guardian for little children.
