Curtain Stretchers Bird Cages Horse Clippers Poultry Netting

Alabastine Kalsomine Prism Paint Floor Wax

Portland Cement Glazed Sewer Pipe Fire Bricks Fire Clay

McLennan & Co. Hardware, Coal, Iron

Here's Your Chance

If you want a nice suit for hot weather. We have them at all prices. Call and see them.

Lou Wickett

2nd door to Post Printing Office Lindsay William St.

Marble and Granite Monuments

Still doing business in the same old stand but not in the same old way. We advance with the times andare in a position to do better work than ever New designs, new granites, new and mproved tools and methods, in fact the most up-to-date Marble and Granite Works in this part of Ontario. Get our prices and see our designs before purchasing.

Shop and show rooms 11 & 13 Cambridge St., immediately north of Fire Hall.

Lindsay Marble Works R. CHAMBERS, Prop

Cecil Carl Forsyth

Organist and Choirmaster Cambridge street Methodist Church. Teacher of Piano, Organ and Yocal Culture Residence and Studio, 53 Sussex St. 2nd door north of Bond. Examinations held twice a year, January and une.

Ontario Marble & Granite Works

Kent St., Lindsay, Opp. the Library W. H. CRESSWELL Prop. Formerly Cresswell & Jordan

Dealer in all kinds of Foreign and Domestic Marble and Granite Monu ments, etc., of the latest designs and workmanship.

A CALL SOLICITED Intending purchasers can incervies Mr. W. W. Jardan, whose good wil still in the business.

A PRETTY PICTURE

Is always worth Framing and you will often be surprise dat it's appearance when Frame i.

We have just received a large shipment of American Moulding and will give a Special Low Price on Work recei ed during the next month.

Bring Your Picture in and let us quote you for a Frame on it.

Henley Bros.,

Near the Market

June, July and August leads into our Fall Term without any break. Enter any time. New Catalogue free. Write for it to-day. Central Business College, Toronto, The largest, most reliable of its kind. W. H. Shaw, Principal Yonge and Gerrard Streets, Toronto.

Pianos, Organs, Sewing Machines, etc.

Our regnlar stock is complete in high-class goods at very right prices and terms, and in addition we are anxious to clear the following slightly marked in case through being out.

Karn Piano, regular $350 at ..$245. Karn Piano, regular $325 at ...$225. 1 Bell Piano, regular $325 at ...$230. 1 English Piano......$100.

10 per cent. off cash 10 per cent off cash 10 per cent off cash 10 per cent. off cash

2 High-grade Bicycles at cost

WM. WARREN

P. O. BOX 217 Opposite St. Andrew's Church, William-St., LINDSAY, Ont.

 ANNOUNCEMENT

TO CONTRACTORS AND PARTIES WHO INTEND BUILDING: Our factory has been rebuilt and equipped with the most modern and up-to-date wood working machinery.

We are in a position to furnish all kinds of Lumber for Building Purposes. We manufacture Doors, Sash, Frames, Base, Casings, Mouldings, Inside and Outside Trimmings. All kiln dried. We are the sole manufacturers of Painted and Grained Lumber in the Province. Parties having their own lumber can have it dressed and matched on short notice. All goods manufactured by ourselves must be as represented.

Our Motto: "Fairness, Promptness, Satisfaction."

The Kennedy & Davis Milling Co., Limited Office and yara East side Wellington Street Bridg

...... Optical Information

Needed help is denied many eyes because of the wrong idea that glasses once used become always necessary. In many cases they may be used occasionally-like a tonic-with benefit and comfort. Yet there are cases where the constant use of glasses is as necessary to health as food is to life

EXAMINATION FREE

BRITTON BROS.

Issuers of Marriage Licenses. Foot of Kent-St., LINDSAY

The Manager Of the B. Q A.

By VAUGHAN KESTER

Copyright, 1901, by Harper & Brothers the left sisle and on out through the door. This will prevent confusion and make it much pleasanter for all." There was a rustle of skirts and the awkward shuffling of many feet as the filed slowly up the aisle to where Chris Berry stood, weazened and dry, with a vulture look on his face and a vulture touch to his hands that now and again picked at the flowers which were banked about the coffin.

public sentiment, had attended the funeral, for, as the doctor said, they were the only real friends Griff had in the town. They had known and liked him ways were not its ways.

the aisle Constance, who had endured the long service, which to her was unspeakably grotesque and horrible, in hand into her mother's. "Take me shall cry out! Take me away!"

desertion of a trust to go and leave Griff to these strangers, who had been brought there by morbid curiosity. Constance guessed what was passing in her mind.

"Papa will remain if it is necessary." Mrs. Emory touched the doctor on the shoulder. "We're going home, John: Constance doesn't feel well; but you stay.'

When they reached the street the last vestige of Constance's self control vanished utterly. "Wasn't it awful!" she sobbed. "And his life had only just begun! And to be snuffed out like this, when there was everything to live for!"

Mrs. Emory, surprised at the sudden show of feeling, looked into her daughter's face. Constance understood the all, might end only at Barrow's Saw-"No. no! He was only a friend! He could never have been more than that Poor, poor Griff!" "I am glad for your sake, dearie," said Mrs. Emory gently.

"I wasn't very kind to him at the last, but I couldn't know-I couldn't to. know," she moaned. She was not much given to these confidences even with her mother. Usually she never questioned the wisdom or righteousness of her own acts, citedly. and it was not her habit to put them to the test of a less generous judgment, but she was remembering her last meeting with Ryder. It had been the day before his death. He had told her that he loved her, and she had flared up, furious and resentful, with the dull, accusing ache of many days in her heart and a cruel readiness to make him suffer. She had tried to convince herself afterward that it was only his | ping calico skirts.

vanity that was hurt. Then she thought of Oakley. She had been thinking of him all day, wonwere going up the path now toward the house, and she turned to her moth-

"What do they say of Mr. Oakley-I her arms about his neck. mean Mr. Dan Oakley? I don't know why, but I'm more sorry for him than I am for Griff. He has so much to

"I heard your father say he was still here. I suppose he has to remain. He can't choose. "What will be done with his father if he is captured? Will they"- She could not bring herself to finish the "Goodness knows! I wouldn't worry about him," said Mrs. Emory in a tone of considerable asperity. "He made all the trouble, and I haven't a particle of patience with him!"

CHAPTER XVIII.

Y 3 o'clock the saloons and stores, which had closed at noon, opened their doors, and Antioch emerged from the shadow of its funeral gloom.

By 4 o'clock a long procession of carriages and wagons was rumbling out of town. Those who had come from a distance were going home, but many lingered in the hope that the excitement was not all past. An hour later a rumor reached Antioch that Roger Oakley had been captured. It spread about the streets like wildfire and penetrated to the stores and saloons. At first it was not be-Just who was responsible for the ru mor no one knew, and no one cared. but soon the additional facts were being vouched for by a score of excited men that a search party from Barrow's Sawmills, which had been trail-

GREAT DISTRESS IN THROAT. Not an uncommon experience was that of Mrs. H. S. Wilmot, of Shuler, N.S. Doctors failed, still a quick cure was found in "Catarrhozone." Notice this statement: "I have been a most dreadful sufferer from bronchial trouble and catarrh. On damp days I would hawk and suffer great erywhere, at open doors and windows, distress in my throat. I used all permanent relief till I used Catarrhozone. It has strengthened my throat, cured my cough and made me entirely well. Refuse substitutes for the one reliable bronchial and throat cure. All dealers sell "Catarrhozone" in 25c and $1.00 sizes.

Every time 'a married man starts to steele down his wife stirs him up.

"All those who care to view the re- lag the fugitive for two days, had efmains-and I presume there are many | fected his capture after a desperate here who will wish to look upon the fight in the northern woods and were face of our dead friend before it is bringing him to Antioch for identificaconveyed to its final resting place | tion. It was generally understood that will please form in line at the rear of | if the prisoner proved to be Roger Oak the edifice and advance quietly up the ley be would be spared the uncertainty right aisle, passing across the church of a trial. The threat was made openly as quickly as possible and thence down | that he would be strung up to the first convenient lamp post. As Mr. Britt remarked to a customer from Harrison for whom he was mixing a cocktail: "It'd be a pity to keep a man of hi years waiting; and what's the use o congregation formed in line; then it spending thousands of dollars for a conviction anyhow when everybody knows he done it?" At this juncture Jim Brown, the sheriff, and Joe Weaver, the town marshal, were seen to cross the square with an air of importance and preoccupation. The Emorys, partly out of regard for It was noted easually that the right hand coat pocket of each sagged suggestively. They disappeared into Mc-Elroy's livery stable. Fifty men and boys rushed precipitately in pursuit when the rest of Antioch was dubi- and were just in time to see the two ously critical of the newcomer, whose officers pass out at the back of the stable and jump into a light road cart When the congregation thronged up | that stood in the alley. A moment later and they were whirling off uptown.

All previous doubt vanished instantly. It was agreed on all sides that they shocked if silent rebellion slipped her | were probably acting on private information and had gone to bring in the away," she whispered brokenly, "or I | prisoner. So strong was this conviction that a number of young men whose Mrs. Emory hesitated. It seemed a teams were hitched about the square promptly followed, and soon an anxious cavalcade emptied itself into the dusty country road. Just beyond the corporation line the North street, as it was called, forked. Mr. Brown and his companion had taken the road which bore to the west and led straight to Barrow's Sawmills. Those who were first to reach the forks could still see the road cart a black dot in the distance: The afternoon passed, and the dusk of evening came. Those of the towns- left people who were still hanging about the square went home to supper. Unless a man could hire or borrow a horse there was not much temptation to start off on a wild goose chase, which, after

Fortunately for him. Dan Oakley had gone to Chicago that morning, intending to see Holloway and resign. In view of what had happened it was impossible for him to remain in Antioch. nor could General Cornish expect him

Milton McClintock was at supper still shouting at him when a savage with his family when Mrs. Stapleton, cry swelled up from the throats of who lived next door, broke in upon | those in advance. The murderer was

"They've got him, and they're going and he turned helplessly to McClinto lynch him!"

Then she as suddenly disappeared. | What can we do?" McClintock from where he sat, holding a piece of bread within an inch of his up. lips and his mouth wide open to receive it, cou'd see her through the window, her gray hair disheveled and tossed about her face, running from house to house, a gaunt rumor in flap-

He sprang to his feet when he saw her vanish around the corner of Lou | the good man curse. Bentick's house across the way. "You dering where he was, if he had left keep the children in, Mary," he said Clintock. "You can't get past and sharply. "Don't let them into the they seem to be coming this way now." street." And, snatching up his hat and coat, be made for the door, but his wife was there ahead of him and threw

"For God's sake, Milt, stay with the boys and me!" she ejaculated. "You don't know what may happen!"

Outside they heard the trampling of rible jam, for those behind were still many feet coming nearer and nearer. They listened breathlessly.

"You don't know what may happen!"

"Yes, I do, and they mustn't do it!" needing help." The sheriff was his wife's brother. "He's promised me he'd hang the old man himself or no There was silence now in the street.

The crowd had swept past the house. "But the town's full of strangers. You can't do anything, and Jim can't!" repeating: "Say, neighbor, I don't know "We can try. Look out for the chil-And he was gone.

Mrs. McClintock turned to the boys, who were still at the table. "Go uptell you to come down," she com- he was tied with ropes to the front chairs. Some danger threatened. They full.

"Ain't you coming too? George's uneasily over the crowd. afraid." But his mother did not hear him. She was at the window closing and he lost all interest in the scene. the shutters. In the next yard she saw old Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Stapleton's | night, for the man was not Roger Oakmother, carrying her potted plants into ley. Further than that, he was gray querulous voice. McClintock, pulling on his coat as he ran, hurried up the street past the The crowd had the start of him, and the women and children who were evsome pallid and pitying, some ugly with the brutal excitement they had caught from brothers or husbands.

his name called. He glanced around and saw the doctor standing on the porch with Mrs. Emory and Constance. "Will you go with me, McClintock?" the physician cried. At the same mo ment the boy drove his team to the door. McClintock took the fence at a health that defies age and disease. hound and ran up the drive.

Contract to the second of the

As he passed the Emorys' he heard

"There's no time to lose," he panted the old convict as one m "But." with a swiden, sickening sense can ston them "

"At least he will not be alone." It was Constance who spoke. She back down the road. The mob drew a was thinking of Oakley as struggling great, free breath of rejoicing. It besingle handed to save his father from came good natured with a noisy hilarithe howling, cursing rabble which had rushed up the street ten minutes be

"Ne, he won't be alone," said McClin tock, not understanding whom it was she meant. He climbed in beside the

"You haven't seen him?" the latter

"Seen who?" "Dan Oakley." "He's on his way to Chicago. Went tis merning." "Thank God for that!" And he pullstance that Onkley had left Antioch. A look of instrint relief came into her face. He turned again to McClintock. "This is a bad business."

it's lucky Oakley isn't here. I hadn't thought of what he'd do if he was." "What a pity he ever sent for his father! But who could have foreseen this?" said the doctor sadly. McClintock shook his head.

"I can't believe the old man killed

"Yes, we don't want no lynching, but Ryder in cold blood. Why, he's as gentle as a lamb." As they left the town off to the right in a field they saw a barebeaded woman racing after her two runaway sons, and then the distant shouts of men, mingled with the shrill cries of boys, reached their ears. The doctor shook out his reins and plied his whip.

"What if we are too late!" he said. For answer McClintock swore. He was fearing that himself.

with the rear of the mob, where it straggled along on foot, sweating and dusty and hearsely articulate. A little farther on and it was lost to sight in a thicketed dip of the road. Out of this black shadow buggy after buggy flashed to show in the red dusk that lay on the treeless hillside beyond. On the mob's either flank, but keeping well out of the reach of their elders, slunk and skulked the village urchins. "Looks as if all. Antioch was here tonight," commented McClintock grimly. "So much the better for us. Surely they are not all gone mad," answered the doctor. "I wouldn't give a button for his chances." The doctor drove recklessly into the crowd, which scattered to the right and McClintock, bending low, scanned the faces which were raised toward them, "The whole township's here. I don't know one in ten," he said, straighten-

"I wish I could manage to run over a few." muttered the doctor savagely. As they neared the forks of the road Dr. Emory pulled in his horses. heavy farm wagon blocked the way. and the driver was stolidly indifferent alike to his entreaties and to Mc-Clintock's threat to break his head for him if he didn't move on. They were them without ceremony, crying ex- being brought in from the east road. "The brutes!" muttered the dector. tock. "What are we going to do?

By way of answer McClintock stood

"I wish I could see Jim." But Jim had taken the west road three hours before and was driving toward Barrow's Sawmills as fast as McElroy's best team could take him. When he reached there it was enough to make one's blood run cold to hear "You wait here, doctor," cried Me-

"Look out for yourself, Milt." "Never fear for me."

He jumped down into the dusty. trampled road and foot by foot fought his way forward As he had said, those in front were turning back. The result was a horstruggling to get within sight of the murderer. A drunken man at Mc-Clintock's elbow was shouting, "Lynch him!" at the top of his lungs. The master mechanic wrenched an arm free and struck at him with the flat of his hand. The man appeared surprised, but not at all angry. He merely wiped the blood from his lips and asked in an injured tone, which conveyed a mild reproof: "What did you want to do that for? I don't know you." And as he sought to maintain his place at McClintock's side he kept

you. You certainly got the advantage Soon McClintock was in the very thick of the mob, and then he saw the stairs to your room and stay there until captive. His hands were bound, and manded peremptorily. "There, don't seat of a buckboard drawn by two jadbother me with questions!" For Joe, ed horses. His captors were three iron the youngest boy, was already whim- jawed, hard faced countrymen. They pering. The other two, with white, were armed with shotguns and were scared faces, sat bolt upright in their enjoying their splendid triumph to the

McClintock gave only one look at the didn't know what this danger was, and their very ignorance added to their prisoner. An agony of fear was on him. The collar of his shirt was stiff "Do what I say!" she cried. At this with blood from a wounded face. His they left the table and marched toward hat was gone, and his coat was torn, the stairs. Joe found courage to say: | Scared and wondering, his eyes shifted

But the one look sufficed McClintock, There would be no lynching that the house and scolding in a shrill, haired and burly. He was as unlike little white frame Methodist church, OH, FLR A CLEAR COMPLEXION. A clear complexion is the outward the town seemed deserted except for evidence of inward cleanliness. In > board, telling of disease within. If yellow, bile is not properly secreted; if pallid, the kidneys are faulty; if skin is murky and dark circles beneath the eyes, look for constipation Whatever the cause, no remedy compares with Dr. Hamilton's Pills which are mild, safe, purifying and vitalizing in their action. They give a marvelous rosy tint to the cheeks, brighten the eyes and establish Sold everywhere in 25c boxes.

of helplessness, "I don't know that we | Suddenly the cry was raised: "It ain't him! You fellows got the wrong man!" The cry was taken up and bandled

His captors were three tron jawed, har ty. The iron jawed countrymen glanced around sheepishly. "You are sure about that?" one inquired. "He answers the description all right."

It was hard to have to abandon the ides of the rewards. "What have you been doing to him?" asked half a dozen voices in cherus. They felt a friendly interest in the poor bound wretch in the buckboard. Perhaps, too, they were grateful to him because he was "Oh, nothing much," uneasily, "only he put up a good fight." "Of course he did. He didn't want to be hanged!" And there was a good natured roar from the crowd. Already those nearest the prisoner were reaching up to throw off the ropes that bound him. His capters looked en in stupid surprise; but did not seek to FOR SALE .- A QUANTITY OF DRY interfere. The prisoner himself, now that he saw he was surrounded by well wishers and, being in a somewhat surly temper, which was pardenable enough under the circumstances, fell to complaining bitterly and loudly of the treatment he had received. Presently the mob began to disperse, some to slink back into town, rather ashamed of their fury, while the ever lengthening procession which had followed the four men in the buckboard since early in the day faced about and drove off into the night An hour afterward the prisoner was airing his grievances in sagacious Mr.

Britt's saloon, whither he had been conveyed by the latter gentleman, who had been quick to recognize that, temporarily at least, he possessed great drawing powers. He was only a battered vagabond on his way east from the harvests in the Dakota wheatfields, and he knew that he had looked into the very eyes of death.

(Centinued aext week.)

WHAT IS ITCH DIRT It is the old Anglo-Saxon name for dandruff and it's a good one. If you have dandruff you have itch dirt and the little microbes that are part and parcel of dandruff are working persistently night and day and sooner or later will reach the very life of your hair and destroy its vitality.

Then you'll be bald-bald to stayfor not even the wonderful rejuvenating properties in Parisian Sage can grow hair after the hair bulb or root is dead. Parisian Sage cures dand-A. E. Gregory, the druggist. sells it-recommends it and guarantees it; only 50 cents a large bottle and your money back if it fails. to cure dandruff, falling hair and itch-

A FOUR MILE RACE

TO BE RUN ON THE LAST DAY OF THE FAIR.

A four-mile foot race will September 26, the last day Lindsay Fair. The first prize will be a gold watch valued at $25, and the second $15. The race will start rom Britton's store at the foot of Kent-st., and six times around the The race should attract plenty hood be keenly contested. The Toronto Exhibition had 652. 000 admissions this year, an increase of 22,000 over last year, and the surplus this year is expected to be $30,000.

Melotte Cream Separtor ¶ Sent on Free

Trial to prove

Opp. Market LINDSAY

Alsoke Growers Notice

Commencing Friday, Sept. 25. Mr J. A. Steel or represutative will be at Little Britain every Friday until further notice

Farm for Sale or To Rent 197 Acres, 1ct 15, Con. 4. Reach. Splendid barns, good soil, 20 acres of timber, 3 milesfrom Port Perry, 1 mile from Manchester. Aprly to owner on place. Miss Pherril, Manchester: or to W.H. Harris

TO RENT.-NEW HOUSE ON DUR ham-st., with modern conveniences. Apply John Marshall, 32 Colborne-st.

EACHER WANTED .- FOR S. No. 3, Ops. Duties to commence Sept. 1. Applicants to state salary and qualifications. Address Wm. M. Graham, Lindsay.

FARM FOR SALE .- SITUATED miles south of the village of Omemee, west half lot No. 9, con. 2 100 acres, more or less, in township of Emily. Soil, clay loam. About 90 acres cleared, balance mixed timber. 80 acres can be cultivated for crop, and about 10 acres run for cattle, with creek containing running water. Good berg 30 x 50 feet, on stone foundation : also barn 22 x 45 feet for hay and large driving shed, hog pen, etc. Good allround farm. For terms and particulars, app,y to Samuel T. Wilson, Omemee, or G. F. Blackwell, box 242, Lindsay.

FARM FOR SALE .- FIFTY ACRES Northeast quarter, lot 6, con. 2. Mariposa. Apply to A. McLean. Fingerboard P. O.

FARM FOR SALE .- NORTH HALF lot 15, con. 14, Manvers, containing 100 acres all cleared. Convenient to school, church and post office. Good buildings and well supplied with water. Apply to James Howe, Janetville P.O., Ont.

FARM TO RENT .- EAST HALF OF Lot 21, Con. 3, Fenelon, For terms apply to Moore & Jackson, Lindsay, or A. Gilchrist, Islay, Alta.

STRAYED.-FROM LOT 10, CON, 1

Mariposa, one black mulley cow.

about 9 years old. Suitable reward for recovery of same. W. B. Galloway, Fingerboard, cord' wood, also cedar. Suitable for fence posts. James Bird.

Fleetwood. LOST.-GREEN PETERBOROUGH canoe on Balsam Lake. Reward. A A. MacDonald, "The Fort," Vic-

toria Road. FARM TO RENT.-LOTS 29, CON 6. Fenelon, consisting of 360 agres, 125 cleared, balance in ranch. Six miles from Fenelon Falls, and convenient to school and post-office. Fo particulars apply to Jas.

Daniels, -irkfield, Ont.

FARM FOR SALE .- 100 ACRES. more or less, lot 12, con. 4. Maripesa, 890 acres plow land, balance pasture and second growth. Good brick house and first-class barn 50 x 65, stone wall and good stabling wind-mill, driving house. Hog pen, hen house, three wells. Well fenced and in good repairs. 11 miles from Little Britain, 34 miles from Mariposa Station. Good orchard. The property of Thomas Western. For further particulars apply to Elias Bowes, real estate agent,

Auction Sale

FARM PROPERTY IN TOWN-SHIP OF MARIPOSA

There will be sold on Tuesday, October, 13, 1908, at one o'clock p.m., in the Benson House, Lindsay, by virtue of power of sale contained in a certain mortgage, which will be produced at the sale, the following property: The north half of lot 22, in the second concession of the township of Mariposa, containing 100 acres, more or less. The following impremises. About 60 acres are under cultivation, balance in slash and pasture, with some timber, log barn. Terms.-10 per cent. to be paid down on day of sale. For balance terms will be made known at the sale. For further particulars apply to JONES & LEONARD.

Solicitors, 18 Toronto-st. Or to G. H. HOPKINS, Lindsay

Debentures for Sale

The Municipality of Dalton offers for sale the following debentures One for six hundred doilars ($600. good runners and will in all likeli-00) bearing interest at six (6) per cent. per annum, for a term of ten (10) years. One for fifteen hundred dollars, > of twenty (20) years. Dated at Sebright this eighth day of September, A.D., 1908. ALEX. MONTGOMERY.

($1500.00) bearing interest at six

(6) per cent. per annum, for a term

License District of West Victoria

Notice is here by given that Manning Brothers, of the Town of Lindbe-The say have made applications for permission to transfer their Tavern License in Every for the premises known as the Grand Way. Q Signed Union Hotel, to F. A. Sweetman, the Town of Trenton and that said orders not re- application will be considered at the The meeting of the Board of License Commissioners to be held in the inspector's but office, No. 7 Cambridge-st., in the Town not the lowest of Lindsay, on Friday, the second day of October, 1908, at the hour of two o'clock, in the afternoon. All persons will govern themselves accordingly.

Dated at Lindsay this the sixteenth day of Sept., 1908

WM. THORNBURY, License Inspecto explicit and Michigan Telephone sidence, 49 I DR. J. MCALJ and Colborne ial attention nose, throat hours: 10 a.r

THURSDAY

MISS NELL.

teacher of Pi

DR. F. B BRADUATE T SITY, CORO TY OF

Office.-Ridout-s

Landsay-sts. Ph

DR. H. A. NES Dentist, gradu lege of Dental and Honor (University Pract experience. Al ments. Office Bank of Comm

liam-st. Lindse

DR. GROSS, Der

ber Royal Colle

Ont. All proder different departs successfully pract DR. POGUE, Det ly opposite the attention given

Howard V. Pog

say. Honor gre

DR. F. A. WALT

University and Dentistry, All proved branches cessfully perform erate Office ov Store, corner etreets. DRS. NEELANI tists, members lege of Dental all the latest m

Special attentio Orthodonia. work. The succ testh under gas the insertion o dentures continu of this office. posite the Simp Barris LEIGH R. KNIC ey to loan and and sold. So Bank of Cana Office over Far G. H. HOPKIN Solicitor, Nota ficitor for Bank ey to loan on rower. Offices-

Solicitor and presenting best cident Insuran

south, Lindsay, STEWART & O'C Notaries, etc. very lowest cur terms. Office-York sts., Lind T. Stewart, I

MOORE & JAC etc., solicitors Bank of Comme on mortgages fice William Str F. D. Moore, K. LEIGH R. KNIG licitor, Notary

ing Waterloo Mi

surance Co., of 'Accident and don. Ont. Knight, Milne Neill's Shoe S McLAUGHLIN Barristers.

Lindsay. Mone estate. R. James A. Peel, Money J. B. WELDON,

Clerk, Oakwood

Agent, Issuer of

Office-corner K

Conveyancing i THE UNDERSIG loan money on Village Propert rates of interes private funds. to buy good WELDON, Solic Block, Lindsay.

BORROWER money on real the lowest curr ness is done in the principal without any ting. We also and debentures. -We invest me mortgages, also bentures, inve bonds. McLAT Barristers, etc.

NEW TELEPHO The private to ing from Lindsay and Eden has ! with the Bell Te Lindsay. It is these points can long distance tel

Absolutely 'First-Cl' Busine Is recognized as

and best Comp Canada, Hun are getting go year. Let us p Enterany time. Be Cer. Yonge and Ale