Oakwood Creamery to the Front

Oakwood creamery made a good showing at the Canadian National Exhibition again this year by winning 4th prize on creamery prints. Mr. Davies who is proprietor and maker has been very successful in this exhibition in previous years. As he has won a first-prize, a diploma and two medals, Mr. Davies feels that considerable credit is due his patrons for the manner in which they have cared for their cream and also the cream drawers, Messrs. E. Harris, J. Thompson and W. R. Swain of Valentia for the care and skill they exercised in its selection.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

The Dominion Government have selected Oct. 31 as Thanksgiving Day. C.P.R. OFFICIALS IN TOWN.

Vice-President and General Manager McNicholl, General Agent Osborne, Chief Engineer O'Sullivan, and Superintendent Harsham, of the C. P. R., arrived in town on Friday shortly after seven o'clock on their special train made up of three of the company's magnificent cars. The officials are making their annual tour of the entire system, and visiting Lindsay for the purpose of ascertaining where they will enter Lindsay with their new line now under construction from Victoria Harbor. The officials spent some time in looking over the three surveys in the north ward, but which survey they will accept has not as yet been decided upon.

The company will enter the town by the easiest possible route so as to save time and expense in purchasing and tearing down buildings.

The officials were met at the C. P. R. depot by Mr. Jas. Boxall, President of the Board of Trade, Mr. W. Flavelle and Mr. G. H. Wilson. These gentlemen had a private interview with the officials regarding the construction of the new line, but had nothing to say for publication for a few days. The officials were also driven around town in Mr. Wilson's auto, and they were much impressed with Lindsay's advantages.

The new line from Victoria Harbor is now under construction, and will reach Lindsay next summer.

INDIAN BURIAL PLACE.

Workmen engaged in procuring gravel from a loaf-shaped mound in Smith township, for construction work on the dam at Burleigh Falls, have encountered parts of human skeletons. The mound is on the Smith side of the river, about a mile and a half from Burleigh. The workmen pushing a drift in the river side of the mound at a depth of 18 feet, encountered the remains. The mound has long been regarded by many as an Indian burial place. The remains discovered prove the correctness of this supposition. Among the remains were found jaw bones, still containing teeth and one skull, from its size indicated that the man whom it surmounted must have been of gigantic stature. From the relation of the skull or skulls found to the other bones, it seems that the bodies to which they belonged, had been buried in a sitting posture. From this fact and the depth at which the remains were found, it is thought they represent burials of a prehistoric race, that inhabited this continent previous to the Indians known to us. It is probable that, if this is the case, excavations nearer the surface of the mound would reveal the remains of what is known as "intrusive" burials as contrasted with those made at a much earlier period, and naturally found at a greater depth. With the human bones are found stone axes, chisels, arrow heads, etc., such as are commonly found in Indian burial tumuli. It is suggested, in archaeological interests that the government take steps to prevent further excavation for commercial purposes.

Thanksgiving Day has been set for the last day in October.

SWEPT BY FIRE.

Amherst, N.S., Sept. 15. — A destructive forest fire that has been raging in the central part of the province for some days has been brought under control by the timely rains. The fire broke out on Saturday in the Chapman settlement of Cumberland county and swept over a thousand acres of valuable timber property. Over one hundred fire-fighters were out in force yesterday. The rain last night continued long enough to prevent further damage.

TWO MEN KILLED.

Lyn, Ont., Sept. 16.—George East and David Graham, employed as trackmen on the Lyn section of the Grand Trunk Railway, were struck by a freight train while working on the track near Lyn station about 11 o'clock this morning, and instantly killed. The men on account of heavy fog did not see the train until it was close to them and did not have time to get off the track. The rest of the section men had a narrow escape.

OLD TREE OPENS TOMB.

In Hanover, Prussia, is a cemetery which contains a remarkable monument. A lady died, and report says that she was poisoned by her nephew. Upon one of the stones which marks her grave is an inscription declaring that "This grave shall not be opened till eternity."

Nature would not allow herself to be thus defied, and a very large tree has grown up from the centre of the grave and forced every stone out of its proper place. Three immense blocks of granite, fastened together by the strongest iron clamps, form the foundation, upon which rest three other blocks, surmounted by a single block, over which is carved a stone pall. The tree's roots have risen up from under the stones and formed long claws, which seem instinct with life, and grasp the stonework every clamp and twisting the stones as if with a deathlike grip, burst-stones and turning them on one side and another in a most curious and wonderful manner. A most curious feature, too, is the fact that there is not another tree of this kind in the cemetery, and not even in the whole city.

Gen. Botha was defeated, but his party triumphed, in the general elections in South Africa yesterday.

Col. Roosevelt has defined his new nationalism as the application of old-time morality to conditions of to-day.

Fire damaged the Duncan Lithographing Company's premises at Hamilton and the National Drug Company's warehouse, and destroyed Hodgins' lumber mill and 400,000 feet of lumber at Como, on the Ottawa river.

AUTHOR OF "KELLY" DEAD

POPULAR SONG WRITER DIES AT LIVERPOOL.

Will Letters, the man who wrote the immortal "Has Anyone Here Seen Kelly," has just died in rather pathetic circumstances at Liverpool. He had been appearing at the various summer resorts with the Perlots, when a sudden hemorrhage of the lungs attacked him as he was at work in his white Pierrot suit and painted face. He was carried off to await the arrival of a doctor, and later he became delirious, talking incoherently of the songs he was to write. His death followed in a few days.

The career of the popular Glasgow comedian started in a lowly way in the music halls of Northern England. Possessed of a good strong voice, he first made descriptive songs his specialty, and afterwards developed into a clever low comedian. His gift of melody had made many of his songs popular successes, among which was a famous pantomime hit, "Put Me on an Island Where the Girls are Few," sung to a warbled version of the "Spring Song." His latest success was "Flanagan."

FORMER LINDSAY CITIZEN.

Mr. M. W. Minthorne, of New Westminster, called on The Warder today. Mr. Minthorne is an old Lindsay citizen who has taken up his residence in the West. Some thirty years ago he kept a drug store in Lindsay next to Spratt & Killen's store.

Mr. Minthorne was just in town for a few minutes, as he left Fenelon Falls to visit his brother, Mr. A. E. Minthorne. Mr. A. L. Minthorne, of Mariposa, is also a brother of his.

Timothy Candy, who shot two Montreal policemen, has been sentenced to death.

FROM THE TROPICS TO HEAL JS

Cedrom Seed Plant.
 In Central America many natives are gathering the seeds of this plant, Cedrom Seed, a rare medicine that has valuable curative powers. But few drug stores carry this seed, owing to the high cost of the article.

This country is a large consumer of this costly seed because it enters into the famous catarrh remedy, Peruna, sold the world over.
