A PRESIDENTIAL BOOM

President Woodrow Wilson of Princeton Looms Up For Job

He Has Been Nominated For Governorship of New Jersey for the Coming Year By the Democratic Party and Probability Is That He Is Being Developed as a Candidate For the Position of President.

Princeton, N.J., Sept. 17.—Dr. Woodrow Wilson, who was yesterday nominated for governor of New Jersey by the Democratic state convention, said yesterday afternoon that he would offer his resignation as president of Princeton University to the board of trustees at its next meeting on Oct. 20.

Wilson for governor of New Jersey in 1911 and for President of the United States in 1912. This is said to be the program of New Jersey Democrats and others.

Woodrow Wilson has never been known as a politician, although he has been an educator of prominence, a writer on political and historical subjects, and in his 55th year. For a year he practiced law in Atlanta, Ga. It has been his ambition to become an authority on government, and he has read and written extensively on politics, the science of government and history.

Outlining his views on political questions of the United States and of the commonwealth over which he hopes to preside after next election, he said yesterday:

"What I wish most for the State of New Jersey is a system whereby the haphazard business of the state may be ended and a more thorough and conscientious system devised. I want the state's business done with the thoroughness and honesty that should pervade in a business house. I intend to bring that about if I am elected. Secondly, I would like to see the taxation of the state equalized. I do not believe that the taxes of the state are equitably adjusted. Property held by citizens is paying an undue tribute to the state, while the corporations—and by that I mean the railroads—are escaping taxes which should be imposed upon them.

"Guilt of corporations is personal and penalties for guilt should be made personal."

To Tell the Ghost.

Victoria, B.C., Sept. 17.—Despatches received yesterday from Tokio tell of a unique telegram sent by the Governor-General of Korea, instructing young Prince Ito to inform his late father's spirit that annexation had been completed.

A special envoy will be sent to the grave, according to custom, to read the proclamation to the ghost of the departed.

C.N.R. Hotel For Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Sept. 17.—The Canadian Northern Railway will begin shortly to build the proposed hotel in Winnipeg, to cost $2,000,000.

President Mackenzie has intimated as much. The location for the building, Mr. Mackenzie stated, was the corner of Water and Main streets, where the old Northern Pacific formerly stood.

Earl Grey at Quebec.

Quebec, Sept. 17.—His Excellency the Governor-General, Earl Grey, arrived in Quebec yesterday, coming from Nova Scotia, where he stopped on his return from the Hudson Bay regions. His Excellency is expected to stay here about a fortnight, after which he will leave for Ottawa.

Cleaning Up the Fair.

Ottawa, Sept. 17.—Under instructions from J. Lockie Wilson, Toronto, inspector of fairs, the police authorities yesterday morning cleaned out all the wheel of fortune and paddle men who have been coining money on the midway at the Central Canada Exhibition.

EDUCATION FOR WORKMEN.

The Kingston Standard points out that the Ontario system of education is lop-sided. Ample provision is made for the education of teachers, lawyers, doctors, clergymen, engineers, and dentists, while the poor boy, anxious to learn a trade, has to look out for himself. "Every city in Canada should have a technical school with both day and night classes, for many boys, working through the day would be only too anxious to get technical training in the evening. This may cost a great deal of money, but the Government must face the issue squarely and spend the money."

Sir James Whitney has frequently expressed the opinion that public school education ought to be framed for the benefit of the 95 per cent. who receive no other education, not for the other five per cent. who go on to the high school, and the still smaller number who proceed to the university. He is right so far as he goes, but he does not go far enough. No readjustment of the public school curriculum would meet the case. What is required is that the education of the boy who is to be a mechanic or a farmer shall be continued beyond the public school, just as is the education of the boy who is to be a lawyer or a doctor. There should be more technical schools or technical classes in high schools; there should be night schools and half-day schools for the benefit of boys who are learning trades and partly earning their own living. There should be ample provision for consulting reference libraries at night. And there should be a beginning made in the establishment of a night university, a place where a complete university course can be taken by those who must work for their bread during the day. There is no reason why education should be confined to office hours.

Is Your Loaf Like This?

If your flour is of the right quality, it ought to produce uniformly good bread. When the loaf comes out of the oven it ought to be appetizing and inviting in appearance. The crust should be crisp, tender and sweet as a nut. The pores of the bread should be regular showing uniform expansion by the yeast and every loaf should be light, plump and should expand over the top of the pan. Bread made from Ogilvie's always comes up to the highest standard of excellence when made right. It is always uniform and good to look at as well as good to eat.

Summer and winter, day after day, month after month, "ROYAL HOUSEHOLD" is milled by exactly the same process from exactly the same standard uniform grade of the best Red Fyfe wheat. And this uniformity is guaranteed by rigid safeguarding tests at the mills before the flour is shipped out.

Get ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR from your grocer and stick to it.

"Ogilvie's Book for a Cook," with 125 pages of recipes that have been tried and tested, will be sent free if you will send us your address and mention the name of your dealer.
