Weekly Items From Omeme Village

Omeme, Sept. 19.—The Anglicans have improved their property with a cement walk leading in from the public walk to the church.

Mr. Hart, who is removing, announces some of his household furniture for private sale.

Mrs. J. A. Wylie returned on Monday evening from a visit to the exhibition and at her father's home in Toronto.

The Methodists have improved the appearance of their property by trimming the shade trees and painting the outbuildings.

Mr. Harry Beatty, of Welland, is down the river hunting.

Mr. Jos. T. Beatty and Miss Beatty, were visitors to Peterboro on Friday.

Mr. H. J. McLean of Mount Pleasant, was in town on business on Thursday.

The residence of Mrs. John McCrea is being painted.

The street commissioners have been making some improvements.

Miss Millie, who had charge of Ivory's millinery department last year, is again over the same department.

Mr. W. Smythe, a student of our high school, has secured a position as domini of a public school near Oranvill.

Mr. Cronk, of the staff of Ivory's general store, and whose efficiency and genial disposition have made him many friends, has resigned and leaves this week to accept a position at Moosejaw.

Our electric plant has resumed office and our streets are again illuminated at night.

Mr. C. H. Shield drove out to Mount Pleasant on Saturday.

The Misses Parsons have returned from Toronto.

A number of our citizens attended the picnic at Downeyville on Wednesday.

On Friday evening, confirmation services were held in Christ church.

Miss McCaffrey has begun a course of tuition at the Lindsay Collegiate Institute.

Mr. Thos. Kennedy has announced that his blacksmith shop and tools are for sale at a moderate rate.

With fine weather this week, there should be a record attendance from this part, at the Lindsay Central Fair, as almost every person is talking of it and of being present.

Mr. W. H. Kennedy is busy purchasing apples. He reports the supply as below the average.

Mr. J. B. Hayes, agent of Sturgeon-st. station, was off duty a few days and down the river bombarding the ducks.

Duck hunting has been pursued with vigor by our local nimrods, but their luck has been none too encouraging. The highest record reported in the early stages of the shoot was seven in one day. Fishing seems to be poor and there is much adverse criticism of the vagaries of the finny tribe.

Mr. John Bennett has returned from a lengthy and extensive visit of travel through the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. He speaks of the boom that is beheld everywhere in that part of the country, and the optimism of its settlers, who are flocking in in large numbers. Wealth is being amassed by all nationalities under varied conditions. The strenuous life is exemplified throughout the prairies of Western Canada. Mr. Bennett is so favorably impressed with the outlook that he has decided to dispose of his valuable home here and remove before the cold of winter sets in, to a growing little town on the G.T.P. railway.

Miss Muriel Morrison of Peterboro., is visiting her mother.

Mr. Thomas Palmer, who has secured a position in the Electric City, has moved his family thereto.

Mr. R. J. Adams, local agent of the Massey-Harris Co., has been promoted to the position of special travelling representative, the duties of which he has already assumed. Congratulations, Bob. Mr. Geo. Weir will fill the position of local agent and asks a liberal patronage of all old customers and so many new ones as may find it advantageous to deal with him.

"WE WANT THE WARDER"

LETTER FROM KINMOUNT CITIZEN NOW IN THE WEST.

Watchman-Warder, Lindsay, Ont. Gentlemen,—Kindly send weekly Watchman-Warder to Watrous, Sask., instead of to Kinmount as heretofore. We want the Warder that we may hear of our old friends from time to time.

Crops in this and the surrounding country are fair, wheat averaging from twenty to twenty-seven bushels to the acre; oats about fifty.

There is a mineral lake about three miles from town, fourteen miles long and from three-quarters to one mile wide, the waters of which have been proven by analysis to be second to none in the world in medicinal properties. This is destined to become the greatest health resort in America.

Yours as ever,
H. C. WOODHEAD

WOODVILLE.

Woodville, Sept. 19.—Rev. Mr. Steele, of Glenora, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bingham, of Pilot Mound, who have been visiting friends around here, left on Monday for the west.

Mr. Arch Beecroft rendered a very pleasing solo in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning.

Miss Hannah McArthur left for Toronto on Saturday evening.

Mr. Cecile Smith left on Saturday morning to accept a position in Toronto.

Miss Mabel McArthur spent a few days of last week in Oakwood.

We are very sorry to learn that Mr. Rube Thomas has a bad attack of typhoid fever.

Practically everything is frilled in neckwear.

FUNERAL OF LATE JOSEPH COOPER

Impressing Service In Cambridge-st Church

The funeral of the late Joseph Cooper, who passed away to the great beyond on Monday, Sept. 19, was held on Tuesday and was largely attended by the many relatives and friends of the deceased gentleman; many friends of the departed one were present from outside points. The coffin was carried from the family residence, corner Victoria-ave. and Francis-st. at two o'clock and the remains were conveyed to the Cambridge-st. Methodist church where a very impressive service was held. The large edifice was crowded with people who paid their respect to the dead, and many expressions of regret at Mr. Cooper's demise were heard, he being the friend of all his acquaintances.

At the house and at the church there were many beautiful floral tributes, among which were noticed a magnificent spray from the employes of the Flavelle Milling Co., a large and beautiful wreath from the officials of the Cambridge-st. Methodist church, and a pretty wreath with Masonic emblem from A.F. & A.M., Lindsay.

The funeral service was conducted by the pastor of the church, Rev. J. P. Wilson, B.A., assisted by a former pastor, Rev. Dr. Bishop, of George-st. Methodist church, Belleville.

Two feeling addresses were delivered by the two reverend gentlemen, both speaking in the highest terms of the good and God-like character of the late Joseph Cooper.

During the service a mixed quartet comprising Mrs. Ford W. Moynes, Mrs. (Dr.) Nesbitt, Mr. Harry Brimwell, and Mr. A. B. Parish rendered a beautiful selection, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," words by Phoebe Carey and music by R. S. Ambrose. The above selection was one of the late Mr. Cooper's favorite pieces and was rendered by request.

The front of the interior of the church—organ, choir loft and pulpit—was nicely draped in silent mourning for the deceased, who was the only surviving trustee of the church, and as the remains were borne down the centre aisle by the pall-bearers, the Dead March was played sweetly on the pipe organ by the church organist, Mr. Cecil Carl Forsyth. The order of service was as follows:

Hymn 152—"And forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord, Jesus Christ."

Prayer—Dr. Bishop.

Quartet—"One Sweetly Solemn Thought."

First Scripture Lesson—Rev. J. P. Wilson, B.A.

Second Scripture Lesson—Rev. Dr. Bishop.

Hymn 399—"Aspirations after nearness to God."

Address—Rev. J. P. Wilson, B.A.

Address—Rev. Dr. Bishop.

Hymn 117—"Christ, the soul's only refuge."

The pall-bearers were: Mr. David Havelock Cooper, of Winnipeg, son of the deceased, Mr. J. D. Flavelle, son-in-law, Mr. W. M. Flavelle, Lindsay, Mr. J. W. Flavelle, Prof. W. S. Milner, and Mr. W. E. Rundle, of Toronto.

Among the friends present from outside points were noticed: Messrs. L. and T. Monypenny, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Flavelle, Mr. and Mrs. M. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rundle, Mrs. Beatty, Prof. and Mrs. W. S. Milner, the Misses Dundas, and Mr. E. Campbell, of Toronto, and Mr. George Hughes Hale, proprietor of the Packet, Orillia, Ont.

The difference between fame and notoriety is that notoriety commonly lasts longer.

Real Lynx Seen at Lifford

Lifford, Sept. 19.—On Sunday in the Methodist church here Rev. Mr. Patterson delivered an able address on missionary work, taking as his text Acts 7-8. The congregation was not burdened with the customary figures, but instead had set forth before them the distress of both soul and body of those in heathendom, and the responsibility of Christians in carrying out the demand of Christ as given in the text, "But ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you, and ye shall be witnesses unto Me, both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth."

Sunday, Sept. 25th, being the day set apart for the interchange of ministers, Rev. Mr. Michael, of South Cavan, will occupy the pulpit here at the usual hour, 3 p.m., and Mr. Patterson, that of South Cavan.

A crab tree in the garden of our worthy merchant, Mr. A. Kerr, was loaded last week with the whitest of blossoms, and but for the foliage and the surrounding ripened fruit, one would have thought 'twas spring. Many of our summer visitors gazed with wonder at the phenomenon while not a few of the swarthy natives regarded the same with an evil eye and loudly protested that "blossoms in autumn was a premonition of death."

A number of our young warriors braved the vicissitudes of the weird autumn night on Sept. 17, and warily sought for "coons in far-off corn fields. However, they were outwitted by Mr. Coon and returned to the rendezvous empty-handed.

A real live lynx, the first since many years, made its appearance on the place of Mr. Wm. Whittside two or three evenings of last week.

Mrs. Cairnes, who has been with her daughter, Mrs. W. Stinson, for some time, has returned.

Miss E. Maguire, who has been holidaying in Toronto, has returned having had a most enjoyable time.

Mr. Dave Deyell and the Misses Althea and Ruby Sisson on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McWatters, of Lindsay, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mulligan last week.

Mr. John Lowery, Mt. Horeb, called on Lifford friends on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nicholson, of Lotus, visited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mulligan on Sunday.

Illustrated Lecture at Kirkfield

Kirkfield, Sept. 19.—Mrs. Stitt spent Saturday in Lindsay.

Mrs. A. Fraser and her daughter, Miss Sangster, returned home on Monday after spending a few weeks visit with relatives in Newmarket.

Among those who motored to Woodville to attend the fair with Mr. Daniel were Messrs. Jack Nesbitt, MacKay, Herman, Mrs. H. Ewen and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Coad.

Messrs. John Smith, G. Phillips, H. Simpson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Smith. They came down in their gasoline yacht.

All those who attended the show given by Mr. Jas. Stubbs, of Peterboro, were well pleased. It was held in the Presbyterian church on Wednesday of last week. A phonograph helped to entertain the people besides all the moving pictures. The lime light views were beautiful.

MARRIAGES.

ANNIS—ASBLEY.—In Peterboro, on Sept. 14, 1910, by Rev. R. J. Webb, Baptist minister, Mrs. Margaret Louisa Ashley, Kingston, to Mr. David Annis, Woodville, Ont.

CONTRACTS FOR CEMENT WALKS

Harvest Home Service at 'Caygeon --Other Items

Bobcaygeon, Sept. 19.—The harvest home services of the Methodist church passed off quietly. Rev. A. M. Irwin, B.A., B.D., Newcastle, preached eloquent sermons both morning and evening to large congregations on Sunday the 11th. The harvest home dinner in the skating rink on Monday evening was fully up to expectations. Both the church and the rink were very prettily and handsomely decorated for the occasion. About 400 took dinner, and the church was taxed to its limit for the entertainment. Addresses were given by Rev. John Bedford, of Fenelon Falls, and Rev. A. M. Irwin, of Newcastle. Mrs. Jas. Seymour recited, and the choir had special music for the occasion, and everybody was happy. The proceeds were about $100.

On Wednesday evening the Zion church of Noyes's Creek had their anniversary tea. Several loads of young people drove down and report a pleasant evening.

Mrs. Thos. Nicholls, who is going west to Vancouver, B.C., had a sale of furniture on the 10th. Mr. John Warren was auctioneer, and realized good prices.

Miss Mabel McIlmoyle left on Friday last for Calgary, where she expects to engage in business.

Mr. A. L. Phelps, of Victoria College, was in town last week for a few days renewing old acquaintances and saying good-bye.

Miss Gladys Thorne has gone to the ladies' college at Whitby to take up a special course in music, etc.

Contracts have been let to Mr. Geo. W. Johnston for building of three stretches of cement sidewalk, from Mr. F. W. Real's store south to King-st., from the Rockland hotel corner east on Canal-st. to William-st., and along Front-st. from Main-st. to Helen-st. Mr. Johnston has been busily engaged the past week, and has that part from Mr. Real's south well under way, and will with fair weather have the greater part of the work finished this week.

One of our young men having had his fair lady out yesterday (Sunday) afternoon for a boat ride, and after having landed his partner, while he returned the canoe by way of the portage over the slip at the canal to the boat house, got a ducking. The current at the place runs somewhat swiftly, and no doubt thoughts may have been gliding just as fast about the hard fate of going through life single-handed when suddenly the bow struck a stone and it was all done in an instant. The "Beaver" crew, who were at the lower wharf, rescued the boat, etc., while the young man, none the worse for his cold dip, wended his way home for a change of clothing.

FARMERS, ATTENTION.

This is the season to give "Old English Condition Powder," that fine old stock remedy. A. Higinbotham, druggist, Lindsay.

A SPECIAL TRAIN.

The C.P.R. will run a special train from Lindsay at 10.30 a.m. on next Wednesday, the 28th inst., to the Bobcaygeon Fair.

The Directors and Officers have made most complete arrangements for every department of their fair. For a grand procession, splendid exhibits and special features, Bobcaygeon fair has a most unique record, and this promises to be a record-breaker, so that everyone who takes in all the events of this fair on the 28th will have the "maddest, merriest" day of a lifetime.
