Many From Islay Visited The Lindsay Central Fair

Islay, Sept. 24.-Miss Lila Nesbitt of Glenora, was the guest of her friend, Miss May Tolmie, on Sunday of last week.

Miss Grace Metcalfe, of this district, is assisting Mrs. Jos. Lee, of Pleasant Valley, in her household duties.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Graham were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McFadyen on Sunday of last week.

Mr. George Metcalfe has been under the doctor's care suffering from a carbuncle, which has consequently compelled him to rest from his farm labors. His son Wess has returned home from Cambray and taken up the duties of the farm during his father's illness.

Mr. Harry Boyd, of this district, recently spent a few days with friends in the vicinity of Norland and Cobocok.

Mrs. Will Everson, of Cambray, was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Moynes on Sunday of last week.

Mrs. Thos. Graham, sr., has recently returned from visiting relatives at Brechin, Woodville, Toronto and other points.

Mr. Jim Doherty, who has been assisting Mr. Dave Graham for the past year, has completed his term of service, and is at present in the employ of Mr. Angus Ferguson, of this district.

The many friends in the district tender their good wishes to Miss May Tolmie, who left the district on Friday last to proceed to Ottawa to attend the Normal School for a course of instruction. She will be away probably till June next, when she returns to Islay.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Campbell, of Mariposa, were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ferguson on Sunday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cameron, of Eldon, visited at the home of Mr. Dave Graham on Friday the ninth inst.

The Islay branch of Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Louis Moynes, Zion, on Wednesday, Sept. 24. The attendance was hardly as large as usual, as very few of the Islay ladies were present. The meeting was as usual profitable and entertaining. The October meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. McNabb on the usual date, the second Wednesday of the month, at 2.30 p.m. All the ladies are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Colin Graham was a visitor at the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. Sam Copp, on Sunday, 11th inst.

Mrs. Harvey Copp attended the Pleasant Valley branch meeting of W. I. held at the home of her mother, Mrs. D. J. Murchison on Thursday of last week.

We understand Mr. D. Ferguson of this district, has leased Mr. R. Campbell's farm, east of Hartley, now occupied by Mr. Dougald Spence for a term of years, and his son Angus is now doing the fall work on same. He also has rented Mr. Kenner's adjoining farm. Mr. Spence has purchased Mr. Caleb Smith's farm, and we understand Mr. Smith and his sister, Miss Bella intend moving to Lindsay at an early date.

Mr. Thos. Murray, of Toronto, owner of the farm lately vacated by Mr. John Everson, was here on Thursday of this week.

Many Islay residents were present at the Woodville fair, and claim that it far surpassed anything held in recent years.

Mrs. Bray, of Fenelon Falls, recently visited her sister, Mrs. D. R. Spence, of this district.

Miss Ester Elford was visiting at the home of Mr. Argue, Glenora, on Sunday last.

At the young people's meeting at Glenora last week, the excellent papers given by Miss Mabel Currins, and Miss May Tolmie were highly appreciated by the assemblage, as was also the kindly words spoken by Mr. Dan Sinclair and Mr. Steel.

Sept. 26.-Miss Ellie Ferguson and Miss May Tolmie were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. J. Nesbitt's on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. Isaac Naylor and family, also Mr. and Mrs. J. Currins were visitors at the Lindsay fair on Friday last.

Mr. Cecil Brown spent Sunday last under the parental roof at Zion.

Mr. Alex. McFadyen and family visited with friends in Eldon on Sunday afternoon.

The following residents were among those who attended the Lindsay fair on Saturday last: Mr. and Mrs. A. McFadyen, Mr. and Mrs. Marsha Moynes, Mr. and Mrs. J. Nesbitt, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Christian, Mr. and Mrs. S. Copp, Mr. and Mrs. Lave Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Spence, Mr. Tom Ferguson, Mr. Dan Spence, jr., Mr. Angus Ferguson, Mr. Tom Currins.

ROSEDALE.

Rosedale, Sept. 26.-Rev. Dr. Burns and family, who spent the summer in Wardrobe's cottage, have returned to the city.

A large number of our citizens visited Lindsay during the fair, and report that despite the inclement weather, they were well satisfied with the county exhibition.

Mr. T. W. Lowery, the principal of Islay academy, and formerly teacher in this section, called on some of his old companions here on Sunday.

The Rev. Ross, of Cobocok, officiated in the Presbyterian church last evening. As it was "children's day" the young ladies tastefully decorated the church interior with a wealth of dahlias, gladiolas, wood asters and ferns. Sprinklings of the glowing maple leaves gave a touch of completeness to the floral adornments.

Last Tuesday evening the young and gay of Rosedale and Balsam Grove went for a moonlight cruise on Balsam Lake in the Hiawatha, of Fenelon Falls. The weather was ideal and the sail proved delightful. For some time the boat was anchored near the shore of Grand Island. The crew landed and betook themselves to the island castle, where they were hospitably received and royally entertained by Mr. Arkwright and family.

HARTLEY.

Hartley, Sept. 27.-Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spence and family spent the week end in Lindsay, returning home on Sunday.

A number of young people from Hartley were present at the anniversary of Cambray Presbyterian choir on Sunday last.

Mr. Will Barker spent Saturday at the fair.

Last Tuesday evening the Epworth League held its weekly meeting instead of on Thursday evening as usual. The evening was spent in business matters instead of the literary program.

Miss Myrtle Earle spent Saturday in Lindsay.

Miss Kate Spence, of Peterboro, formerly of Hartley, is visiting relatives in the village and its vicinity.

Mr. Ore, of Mariposa, spent Sunday in this vicinity.

Miss Minnie Campbell spent Saturday in town.

Just at present several of the farmers are busily engaged in the threshing business.

Mr. Rollie Parker left to-day for his home in Bensford, after several days' visit renewing acquaintances in the village.
