Not loud enough
To draw a crowd,
Not too sombre,
Not too gay,
Not gay enough
To spread dismay,
Not too costly,
Not too cheap,
Not cheap enough
For mimic sheep,
Not too simple,
Not too trifled,
Just frilled enough
To show your skill,
Not too forward,
Not too shy,
Not shy enough

Prominent People Proud To Testify For "Fruit-a-tives"

DR. TIMOTHY MCGRATH
130 ATLANTIC AVE., MONTREAL, MARCH 1st, 1912.

"For years, I suffered from Rheumatism, being unable to work for weeks at a time and spent hundreds of dollars on doctor's medicines, besides receiving treatment at Notre Dame Hospital where I was informed that I was incurable. I was discouraged when a friend advised me to try "Fruit-a-tives". After using three packages, I felt relieved and continued until I had used five packages when a complete cure was the result after years of doctoring failed. I consider "Fruit-a-tives" a wonderful remedy. You are at liberty to use this testimonial to prove to others the good that "Fruit-a-tives" has done me."

WILL REFUSE SACRAMENT

Detroit, Sept. 10.—Roman Catholic priests of this city have begun war on the extreme styles now prevalent among women, and will refuse the rites to those who come to church in immodest dresses.

The slashed skirt and diaphanous gown are particularly placed under the ban.

While the priests are making it clear that they are not going quite as far as John Wesley took the early Methodists in the casting aside of all jewelry on the fingers and "stick-ups" on the hats, they do insist on some sort of conformity to the spirit of Paul when he pleaded for shame fastness and sobriety.

They quote St. Paul in 1 Timothy 2: 1-9, as follows, for precedent:

"I exhorted therefore * * * that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with braided hair or hair or gold or costly array."

New Britain, Conn., Sept. 9. —Father Walsh of the Roman Catholic Church of Our Lady of Mercy has announced that he will not give communion to any woman who approaches the altar railing in a slashed skirt or in diaphanous garb. Moreover, he will not receive at his parochial residence any woman who wears such gowns.

No, Alonzo, you can never tell how heavily she will tread on your neck after marriage by the size of her tan oxford.

Lindsay Lyceum Concert Course

Mr. C. C. Forsyth has completed arrangements for his Lyceum Course for this season. The course will consist of four high-class entertainments in the Academy of Music.

The first entertainment will be on Thursday evening, October 2nd. The following is the list of attractions: Laurant & Company, three artists. Mr. Laurant is termed "The Man of Many Mysteries," and is no doubt one of the most clever magicians in the world. Not only this, but he is a natural born entertainer, and introduces lightning character impersonations in as finished a manner as he executes his tricks in magic. Another member of the company, Mr. Ernest Gradolph, is a pianist of unusual ability. The second number of the course is "The Cathedral Choir"—nine persons—comprising a ladies' quartette, a male quartette, and a pianist. The members of the choir have all occupied leading church choir solo positions, or as soloists in Grand Opera companies. The third concert is "The Dunbar Male Quartette and Bell Ringers." This company, besides being a singing quartette, play a peal of two hundred bells; one is a violinist, another a cellist, and another an impersonator.

The last number of the course is the "Killarney Girls and Bets Rich." This company consists of 7 ladies, appearing in Irish costume, all singers, and also playing the violin, cornet, and Irish harp, while Miss Bets Rich is an elocutionist. The course is a much more expensive one than last year, but Mr. Forsyth has tried to improve on the course of last season.

The advance subscribers' list has been even larger than last season, and as Mr. Forsyth is still receiving subscriptions record houses are assured. The course tickets are $2, and can only be got through Mr. Forsyth. If you wish to subscribe 'phone or write him. Single seats to non-subscribers will be 75c.

Visiting Clergy at Grand Organ Recital

The grand organ recital at St. Mary's R. C. Church last week was largely attended by outside visitors, including the following reverend gentlemen: Dr. O'Brien, Bishop-Elect, of Peterboro; Father O'Brien, of Lakeside; Father McColl, of St. Peter's Cathedral, Peterboro; Father Kelly, of Norwood; Father Galvin, of Peterboro; Father J. O'Sullivan, of Victoria Road; Father Fergus O'Brien, of Peterboro; Father Dwyer, of Rochester; Father Cote, of Peterboro; Dr. Galvin and Mr. C. Brady, of Peterboro, and Mr. Matthews, of the Karn-Morris Organ and Piano Co., Woodstock, Ont.

The visiting clergymen were delighted with the recital and with the general tone of the new pipe organ, while Mr. Matthews expressed himself as well pleased with the instrument and the recital.

LITTLE BOY WAS SO SICK

Did Not Think He Could Live.

CHOLERA INFANTUM WAS THE CAUSE.

This trouble is the most dangerous of all the summer complaints of children. It begins with a profuse diarrhoea, the stomach becomes irritated, and the child is soon reduced to great languor and prostration.

Cholera infantum can be speedily cured by the use of DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY.

Mrs. JOHN ROOTS, Hantsport, N.S., writes:—"I can recommend DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY for Cholera infantum. My little boy was so sick, I did not think he could live, as he was out of his mind, and did not know any one. I gave him "Dr. Fowler's", and the first dose helped him, and one bottle cured him. I recommended it to a friend whose children were sick, and it cured them too."

DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY is a remedy that has been on the market for over sixty-five years and has been used in thousands of families during these years, so you are not making any experiment when you buy it, but be sure and get "Dr. Fowler's", when you ask for it, as there are many imitations of this famous remedy on the market.

Wedding Bells

ARTHUR—LAMB.
A pretty but quiet wedding took place Sept. 10th, at two o'clock in St. Paul's church when Dora, daughter of Mrs. M. Lamb, was united in marriage to Mr. Alfred J. Arthur, B.Sc., of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Arthur, of Carleton Place. The Rev. P. M. Lamb, B.A., of St. Cuthbert's church, Toronto, brother of the bride, assisted by Canon Marsh, rector of St. Paul's church, performed the ceremony. Miss Leary presided at the organ, and as the bride entered the church on the arm of her mother the choir sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden."

The bride wore a gown of white satin trimmed with Irish lace and pearls and carried a prayer book, the gift of the groom. Her tulle veil was caught with a wreath of lily of the valley. Miss Mae Lamb, dressed in shell pink silk draped with green nixon attended her sister who wore a large picture hat and carried pink roses. Mr. T. B. Spiers, B.Sc., of Toronto, assisted the groom. During the signing of the register the choir sang "Oh Perfect Love."

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold engraved locket, to the bridesmaid a gold necklace, and to the groomsmen a pearl tie pin. At the conclusion of the ceremony a small reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

The happy couple left on the C.P.R. evening train for a two week's honeymoon among the Thousand Islands and eastern cities. The bride traveled in a blue broadcloth tailored suit with hat to match. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Arthur will reside at 98 James-st., Ottawa.

To-Day's Best Story

The following obituary notice was sent for insertion in a Yankee journal—Mister Edatur: Jem Bangs, we are sorry to stait, has desezed. He departed this Life last nundy at the age of 28. He went 4th without any struggle, and sich is life. Tu Da we are as pepper grass, mighty smart, to Morrre we are cut down like a cawcumber of the crowd. Jem kept a nice stoar, which his wife now waits on. His virchews was numerous to behold. We never new him to put sand in his sugar, tho he hae a big sand bar in front of his hoos; nor water in his milk, tho the Ohio River runs past his dore. Peece to his remains! He levas a wife, 8 children, a cow, 4 horses, a grocery stoar, and quadrepets, to moarn his loss; but in the langwidge of the poit his loss is there eternal gane.

CASWELL—DUDLEY.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dudley, Midland-ave., Midland, on September 3rd, when their only daughter, Lillian, was united in marriage to Mr. James G. Caswell, of Midland, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Caswell, of Richmond, Que.

At twelve o'clock the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, entered to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Dorothy Brown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. W. Watch, under an arch of evergreen, decorated with pink and white esters.

The bride's dress was of dainty white marquisette, and she carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome silver mesh bag, and to the pianist a dainty gold watch rob. About fifty relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom were present.

The young couple were the recipients of a great many beautiful gifts, among them being a handsome cut-glass water jar and tumblers, from the employees of Geo. Copeland & Sons, where Miss Dudley had been employed for a number of years, and a beautiful cut-glass vase from the firm. Nor was Mr. Caswell forgotten by his fellow-employees at the Aberdeen Elevator, whose gift was a beautiful silver tea service.

Miss Dudley was pleasantly surprised on the Wednesday evening preceding, when the Young Ladies' Bible Class of the Methodist Church, of which she has been Secretary for the past two years, tendered her a kitchen shower, at the home of their teacher, Mrs. T. J. Campbell. Her young lady friends also rtmbered her in a similar manner on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Robt. Bates, by giving her a linen and china shower.

The young couple left on the three o'clock train, amid showers of confetti and good wishes, for a trip to points in Eastern Canada and the New England States. The bride's travelling suit was a tailored suit of navy blue, and a white hat.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Lindsay, and Miss Dorothy Brown, Fenelon Falls.

Canada May Refuse Evelyn Thaw Entrance

Ottawa, Sept. 11.—Evelyn Thaw, who has been engaged for theatrical appearances in Toronto, and Montreal, may not be allowed to cross the Canadian border.

The Canadian authorities are considering the advisability of refusing her admission as an undesirable. It is held that she is being brought from the United States for the purpose of exploiting financially the unpleasant notoriety which she and her husband, Harry K. Thaw, have received during the last five years.

The Canadian Immigration law authorizes officials to refuse admission to Canada those whose mentality, morals, finances or general record are under suspicion. The provision is believed to be wide enough to close the door against Evelyn Thaw.

OBITUARY

DANIEL J. DUGGAN.

Word has just been received in town of the death of Mr. Daniel J. Duggan, of Verulam, following an operation in St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto.

The deceased left home on Tuesday to consult a specialist regarding the lameness, resulting from a fracture of one of his legs near the thigh, which occurred last spring.

Mr. Duggan was very popular, and one of the oldest and most respected citizens, and his death is regretted by all.

He leaves to mourn him a widow, four sons: Messrs. Joseph, Neil and Harry at home, and Charles in the West; and two daughters: Misses Jennie and May; also two sisters: Mrs. Varcoe, of Fenelon Falls, and Mrs. Jinkinson, of Verulam.
