LETTERS FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS

WOODVILLE

On the first three Fridays in succession, in October, Dr. C. Bowerman, dentist, will be at the Queen's Hotel, Woodville, during both the forenoon and afternoon. Instead of a half day only, as formerly, he now puts in a whole day at each visit (9 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.). Come early.

RANDOLPH-TINY

Mr. H. Bowles has returned from his trip to Tonawanda.
Mr. O. Glaspell of Fenelon spent a few days in this vicinity.
Mr. H. C. Tremmer is visiting with his brother at French River.
Mrs. G. Cookman, who has been visiting friends here, returned to Huntsville on Friday last.
Messrs. H. G. Todd and S. Todd are taking advantage of the excursion to Port Hope to visit friends at Fenelon.

GRASS HILL

The entertainment held here on the 21st inst. passed off successfully. Mr. Jno. Cameron of Lorneville occupied the chair in his customary genial and jovial manner. It is now quite manifest that the talent and genius of this vicinity, though lying dormant and perhaps still in the embryo, contains the promising germs of life. Let the entertainment be at least an annual affair not centennial as heretofore. The financial report of the treasurer is quite gratifying, the organ debt being wiped out with a snug little balance in the treasury.

S. S. NO. 6 ELDON

Millan, M. Black, E. McMillan. 1st. class—M. Gilchrist, G. McMillan, D. McDonald, R. Hargrave, T. Black.

BURNT RIVER

There is a great deal of building being done in this neighbourhood and vicinity.
Mr. Thos. Hodgson joined the army of benedicta, taken for a life partner in Miss Cora Gardner, of Tyrone, Darlington. The young couple start with bright prospects and many good wishes for their future prosperity.
Died, on the 22nd ult., William Nicholls, aged 45 years. The late Mr. Nicholls was well and favourably known in this locality, having come here as a boy about thirty years ago. He was a member of the Orange and Forester societies. In religion a Methodist, and a Conservative in politics. He had been ailing for over a year. He was a progressive farmer, and was one of those men who are a benefit to the community in which they live. His loss will be felt in the neighborhood. He leaves a wife and seven children to mourn his loss.

JANETVILLE

Mrs. (Dr.) McGill, her children and sister, and Mrs. J. McGill of Midland are the guests of Mr. Hugh McGill over Sunday.

Look forward for the great fowl dinner to be held in the Methodist church on the 22nd and 23rd inst. Further notice given later.

Mr. R. Irvine, accompanied by Miss Robinson of Lindsay, paid a visit to Janetville Sunday. Rup being an old favorite, we are always glad to see him.

In our report of the Woman's Auxiliary meeting last week, credit was given Mrs. Koyl of Lindsay for her "enterprising" songs. It should have read "inspiring songs."

Mr. Sam Stinson, jr., who for the last five weeks has been visiting his sister Mrs. Mills of Holland and other friends in the prairie province, returned home Saturday night, quite delighted with the trip.

We were greatly delighted with and benefitted by the service held on Sunday evening by Messrs Staples and Peel of Lindsay. The discourse given to young men was one which we hope may leave such an impression on the minds of our young people that they may like those young men come up brave soldiers for Christ. After the sermon a very appropriate duet was rendered by Miss Maud Bradburn and Miss Vina McGill, entitled, "Oh for a clean heart."

FENELON FALLS

Miss E. Chattin of Midland spent a few days last week with friends in the Falls.

Misses H. Nevison and C. Edwards returned from Manitoba on Tuesday.

Mr. W. Christolm of Deseronto, book-keeper of the Standard Chemical Co., was at the Falls from Monday till Wednesday.

Mr. J. H. Carnegie, M.P.P., of Indian Point, spent Tuesday of last week at the Falls.

Our local fair last week was a pronounced success, and the "speeding in the ring" was as usual a special attraction.

You can buy a first-class cook stove for $12.87 at Cinnamon & Everson's, the new hardware store, Lindsay. Call and see it; it's a dandy.

The Rev. J. J. Hastie of Knox College, Toronto, will deliver a lecture in Dixon's hall on Monday evening, Oct. 9th, under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Andrew's church, and a treat is expected.

Mr. J. A. Ellis has rented his mill to the Rathbun Co. of Deseronto and Lindsay for the remainder of the season, and things are being rushed on the shores of Cameron lake just at present.

Mr. John A. Ellis met with a painful accident last Saturday, cutting two of the fingers of his right hand with one of the saws in his mill. He had them skillfully dressed at once and the injured members are doing as well as could be expected.

On Thursday of last week the clothes-reel in Mr. J. Heard's yard caught fire from some un-known reason and most of the week's washing was destroyed. How the flames started is a mystery, but the sight of the blazing reel swaying back and forwards in the wind was a most strange and awful sight.

FINGERBOARD

The late frost is playing havoc with files and buckwheat.
Mrs. Morrison Mark is said to be improving in health slowly.
Mrs. Alfred King is able to be around again after a brief illness.

Quite a large number of our citizens attended Oakwood fair.

Miss Deborah Mark of Zion spent Sunday with Mrs. James Erise.

Mr. James Flannery spent Sunday under the parental roof at Seagrave.

Mt. Joseph Foster, medical student of Toronto, called on friends here recently.

Mrs. Helen Moase and daughter Gertrude of Newcastle are visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mr. Robt. Frise took in the fair at Sunderland he reports a good exhibit of things in general.

Mrs. James Moase and daughter Miss Gertrude are visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Moase and family spent Sunday week with relatives in Little Britain.

Mr. Wm. Foster, sr., and wife have returned after spending a few days with their daughter Mrs. Dowson of East Britain.

Last Sabbath as our ministers were absent Mr. R. Oliver of Little Britain ably filled the space by giving some good advice to the audience.

Mrs. Virtue has returned to her home in Tyrone after spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Rundle.

Mr. and Mrs. James of Zion and Messrs. Mitchell and Miller of Seagrave spent Sunday at divine service at Pleasant Point.

If any person wants to become a soldier and learn to fight, John will give him lessons free of charge. Now is your time, commence at once.

Mr. Thomas King of Canrington formerly of this place passed through our little village last week making sales for the Cannington marble works.

The school bell which was purchased from a United States firm was cracked. When getting another bell the trustees ought to give a Canadian firm a show.

During Mrs. Moase's absence at Toronto Miss Eva Dowson is acting as organist for the Pleasant Point church, as Miss Dowson has a talent for singing she will ably fill the position.

Mr. James Grooves of Port Hoover, who has been visiting his daughter Mrs. Clark at Mount Pleasant, Michigan, has returned home, and is much benefitted by having so long a vacation.

LITTLE BRITAIN

One of our popular dress-makers, Miss Mullin, is down with typhoid fever.

Dr. and Mrs. Henderson of Cannington gave their parents a call last week.

Mr. Wm. Mark is putting the finishing touches on the front part of his house.

Mr. John Rich, our unique and up-to-date tailor, has moved into his new place, Switzer's old stand.

Miss Clara Robinson met with a painful accident last week at school, which required several stitches to repair the damage.

Cinnamon & Everson, the new hardware men of Lindsay, are gaining customers every day. Low prices and "good goods cheap" are what the people require. Give them a call.

Interest allowed on money placed on deposit with the Victoria Loan & Savings Co. of Lindsay, on sums of $100 and upwards, withdrawable at any time. The company has a large paid up capital, is composed entirely of well-known local men, and all its funds are invested on mortgage in real estate.

Quite a number of our citizens went to Sunderland last week and took in the annual fair. They report a very large attendance with good exhibits in all departments. We are pleased to note that Dr. Hall was successful in carrying off the red ticket with his beautiful chestnut team from a large class of drivers.

One of those pleasing events that always cause a ripple in society took place at Rev. Mr. Garbutt's residence on Wednesday evening, it being the marriage ceremony of one of our most esteemed and popular young men, in the person of Edward Glass, and Miss Lizzie Irwin, one of Glandine's most respected young ladies. The contracting parties drove to the Rev. Garbutt on the above date and had the knot securely tied. After the ceremony they returned to the residence of the groom, where they were cordially received and entertained by their many friends. The news rapidly spread throughout the village and soon the boys were armed with various instruments and marched to the home of the bride and groom and gave them a grand serenade. They were accorded a hearty welcome and received a fair remuneration. The boys then returned to the Temperance hotel to divide the spoils. We extend to Mr. and Mrs. Glass our hearty congratulations, long life, health and prosperity.
