For Dressing Fowls.
The tilting table here shown is just big enough to hold a fowl firmly between the side boards, with its head or neck down through the opening, so that no blood will get upon the table or the feathers, says Orange Judd Farmer. The latter can thus be kept clean and sold. Even at a low price, the feathers from large flocks make not a little addition to the profit side of the account. This method permits the feathers being saved without any soiling whatever, consequently the highest price is obtained.

SLOPING TABLE.
There is very little manurial value in forest leaves, and that is mainly in the potash they contain. They are less nitrogenous than the straw of grain, and the latter, if chopped fine, makes a better absorbent of manure in stables. Besides, all the forest leaves are needed in the forests, where they serve as mulch for the soil, preventing the deep freezing that would injure tree roots, and keeping the soil moist, friable and fertile at all seasons. The leaf mould that a large load of leaves would make could all be put on a wheelbarrow, and it has little manurial value.

Food's Effect on Temper.
Some authorities hold the idea that a child's disposition is largely governed by his diet, citing the gentleness of the rice-eating races against the quarrelling of meat-eating children in proof.
Protect Your Orchards.
Wherever forests have been cleared off, there should be some shelter provided, behind which the fruit trees may be protected from winds that blow off the fruit before it is ripe. Such sheltered places have generally a moist soil, as they have received a larger proportion of the leaves that, as autumn frosts loosen them, are blown everywhere.

BUYER WHITTON CLEARED THE BOARD
HE GOT 1400 CHEESE FOR 21 5-8 - NEXT SALE ON THE 27th.
Cheese sold a trifle lower at Friday's sale. There were 1435 boxes on the board and Buyer Whitton got them all but the 40 boxes that salesman Clancy of the Pine Grove factory refused to sell. The bidding began at 11½ with Buyers Whitton, Fitzgerald and Flavell in their places. By sixteenth it reached 11¼ and three or four calls were refused. Buyer Fitzgerald moved an adjournment for one week and his mate Whitton discoursed plausibly on the depressed condition of the market as evidenced by sales at other places. Adjournment was being seriously discussed when Mr. Lytle of the Watchman-Warder, whose purchase at the preceding Board had caused quite a ripple and some wrath, entered. The bidding was again opened and the newcomer made it 7-16. The Wellman's Corners man suddenly saw that the product was worth ½ and when his rival said 9-16 he saw that ¾ was not too much to pay. At this price he cleared the Board with the exception named above. The next sale was set for Friday the 27th inst.

District Notes
—About six o'clock Friday morning F. J. Daly of Orillia, was aroused from his peaceful slumbers by the breaking of glass in the window of his bedroom at the Daly house. Imagining someone had thrown a stone through the pane, he was on his feet in a twinkling, with an angry glitter in his eye. He failed to find the stone, but what he did find was a plump full-sized partridge fluttering around the room in an apparently exhausted condition, the bird having evidently been seeking refuge from a pursuer of some kind, probably a hawk. The fowl was captured and cared for, but died from the effects of its collision with the window four hours later.
—Mr. Thos McMurdy, a prominent Nottawasaga farmer recently returned from the Northwest, where he spent two months in viewing the country, most of that time being spent at Indian Head. His report of that country may be summarized as follows:—So far as grain is concerned wheat is the farmers' god; land is hard to plow, but harrows down as fine as dust; good drinking water is scarce; hired men are worked very hard in harvest time; farmers' idea and hope of getting along are big; six hundred acre fields of wheat are common; wheat is 50 cents a bushel, potatoes $1 a bushel, butter 30 cents a lb. and eggs 25 cents a doz; long distances in Ontario are regarded as short out there, there are no thistles, wild oats or potato bugs at Indian Head, but they are in Manitoba and will surely push westward.

News of the Week

—The Grand Trunk railway half-yearly report shows a net improvement of £29,752.

—The population of Ottawa is shown by the assessors' returns to be 57,002, an increase of 1,616 over last year.

—The Canadian Export Furniture Company, with a capital of $3,000,000, has been formed, and will build a large factory at Montreal for the export trade.

—Mrs. Emily Smith, an aged lady from Port Egin, Ont., put up at the Belchamber house, Sarnia, Thursday, was assigned to a room and retired, but before doing so evidently blew out the gas. Friday morning her body was found in bed, cold in death, with the gas turned three-quarters on and the room full of the deadly fumes. The woman was on her way to Duluth to visit a daughter and had left an order with the clerk to be called early to catch a boat.

—Mr. S. C. Phillips, a leading publisher of London, made the following statement, which is of interest to Canadians: "Many of our paper manufacturers who have used the pulp on a large scale, state most emphatically that it is longer and stronger in fibre than the Scandinavian product, and fitted more for making reel newspaper for fast running work than any other, and more than one of these gentlemen have stated that they would rather give $2.50 per ton more for the Canadian than any other."

—An Ottawa man has invented a self acting pump, intended for pasture fields, and it is said to be an article of positive utility. The difficulty of supplying water to live stock in many pastures is well understood and where there is no spring many persons decline to send their horses out to grass in summer. The inventor claims to have overcome the difficulty by having his pump, a new automatic working invention, set on a platform, upon which the animal must stand, and as each walks into the enclosure and steps upon the plank, fresh water is brought up from the well and falls into the drinking receptacle.

—A lad named Albert Finkley, of 14 Atkin-ave., Toronto, was Thursday afternoon almost worried and torn to death by a couple of dogs in a neighbors yard. The little fellow was playing with the animals, when all at once they became vicious, and began to tear at him in earnest with their teeth and paws. When help came the boy was in a very alarming condition, having suffered greatly from his wounds, and from the loss of blood. Dr. McConnell was hastily summoned, and was obliged to put about 20 stitches in the many tears which the dogs had inflicted on the lad's temple, face and arms. Young Finkley is in a critical state.
