VALENTIA

Threshers are busy and the grain is yielding well.
Miss M. Johnston of Lindsay is the guest of Mrs. Wm. Casey.
The fine weather is enabling farmers to finish up their fall work and get ready for winter.
Mrs. Wm. Casey, who has been on the sick list for some time past, is able to be around again and is looking well.
If you intend buying a gun or rifle this fall be sure and call at Cinnamon & Everson's hardware store, Lindsay, and inspect their stock. It will pay you.

SALEM—EMILY

Have you seen the beautiful display of stoves and ranges at Cinnamon & Everson's, the new hardware store, Lindsay. You can buy a first-class cook stove there for $12.87. Be sure and see it.
The new Methodist church on the high con., Emily, will be open for divine service on Sunday, Oct. 22nd, 1899. Sermons will be preached at 10.30 a.m. and 3 p.m. On Monday, Oct. 3rd, a cold fowl supper will be served from 4 p.m. Tickets 15 and 25c. In the evening a platform meeting will be held. For particulars see posters.

FENELON FALLS

Bishop O'Connor, D.D., of Peterboro, will visit Fenelon Falls and will administer confirmation on Sunday, Oct. 15th, at St. Aloysius' church.
Cinnamon & Everson, the new hardware men, Lindsay, are doing a rushing business in stoves. They are making sales every day, and no wonder. Why you can buy a stove there and save enough to almost buy your winter's fuel. Just try them.

LITTLE BRITAIN

Have you seen the beautiful display of stoves and ranges at Cinnamon & Everson's, the new hardware store, Lindsay. You can buy a first-class cook stove there for $12.86. Be sure and see it.

Mr. O. J. B. Yearsley has his cider mill in operation, and is busily engaged in turning out the delicious drink that refreshes but don't intoxicate. Bring in your surplus apples and exchange them for a keg of sweet cider.

Mr. J. J. Rich, our popular young merchant tailor, has moved to the premises next door to Eck's harness shop. He now has one of the neatest stores in the county, well fitted and all that is new and nobby in English, Scotch and Canadian tweeds, overcoats, etc. As a cutter he has few equals, and never fails to give his customers a garment that is well made and trimmed. See his new fall stock.

OAKWOOD

You can save from three to ten dollars in purchasing a stove at Cinnamon & Everson's, the new hardware store, Lindsay.

EDEN—MARIPOSA

Have you heard of the bargains in stoves at Cinnamon & Everson's, the new hardware store, Lindsay? You can save from $3 to $10 in buying a stove there. Call and see them when in town.

The death of Mr. John Treleavin on Sept. 25th has removed from this district one of its best known and highly respected residents. He was a communicant of the Methodist church and a member of the Christian Endeavor and Temperance societies; he was also an active worker in the Sabbath school and for years a steward of the Oakwood circuit. In politics he was a life-long conservative. His demise will be regretted by a large circle of relatives and friends. He was an upright, honorable man who served God with all his heart. The funeral sermon was preached at his late residence on Tuesday afternoon by Rev. M. Philips of Oakwood. A large number of sorrowing relatives and neighbors were present.

NORLAND

Mrs. T. J. Stephens presented her husband with a young son on the 24th. Miss Leah Adair has gone to stay the winter with Mrs. Ed. Prouse at Oakwood.

Miss Minnie Maxwell, teacher at Burnt River, called on Norland friends last Friday.

Have you tried Cinnamon & Everson, Lindsay, for hardware yet? It will pay you.

Mrs. A. E. McLaughlin of York Haven, Pa., is visiting friends here and in Cobocook after an absence of four years.

Mrs. Marshall Ferguson attended the Lindsay fair. She is spending a few days in Lindsay with her daughter Mrs. J. Genevecko of Victoria-ave.

Miss Lena Maxwell of Head Lake leaves this week for Indian Head to assist her brother T. H. Maxwell, who keeps a store and post-office in that district.

Mr. Robert Adair, who has been spending the summer with relatives at Lake Temiscamingue, has returned to Norland. He reports things booming in that locality and working men in demand all along the route.

ROYAL OAK

Mr. John Prouse, Little Britain, purchased a handsome Champion Range last week from Cinnamon & Everson, the new hardware store, Lindsay. It's a beauty.

The following is the report of the Royal Oak school for the months of August and September. Names are inserted in order of merit. 5th class—Mary J. McLean, Luella Turner, Claude Rundle, Allan McDonald. Sr. 4th class—Olive Crossen, Ida Tremere, Janey Murray, Charlie McPhaden, Murray Black, Mabel Turner. Jr. 4th class—Katie McKinnon, Marion Crossen, Bessie McPhaden, Sarah Rundle, Maggie Swinson, Mabel McDonald, Florence McDonald. 3rd class—Eva Turner, Annie McDonald, Eva Rundle, Herbert West, Johnny McDonald. 2nd class—Ada May Innes. Pt 2nd class—Pearl Crossen, May West, Donnie McDonald, Laura Tremere, Harold West, Willie Murray. Pt. 1st class—Ronnie McDonald, Willie Innes, Norman McDonald, Olive West, Percy Crossen. Average attendance 29.

M. E. PINKHAM, teacher.

JANETVILLE

The Manitoba tourists may be expected home again in a few weeks. Fall fairs have been well attended

LINDSAY'S LEADING CLOTHIER... GOUGH THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MAN

If There's Going to be War

We are fully prepared! The public might as well know, right now, that we never yet yielded one fraction of our Leadership to any one in the Clothing Trade in Lindsay or any where else on earth.

WHAT WE HAVE WE'LL HOLD

and the goods we have we'll sell, let those oppose who may. Our new fall and winter

Overcoats, Ulsters, Suits, Hats, Caps and Gents' Furnishings

have all come from FIRST PRIZE STOCK with a First-Class Pedigree. GOUGH'S preparations are so vast that we fear no foe. Gough's reputation for using customers right will shield us from any attack from any quarter.

STUNNING VALUES IN UNDERWEAR

A manufacturers output of really fine qualities at special low prices. Men's, Youth's and Boy's Sizes.

REMEMBER THIS FACT... No matter what prices are quoted you elsewhere, come to Gough's and we will go one lower.

B. J. GOUGH,

Lindsay's Leading Clothier The Wonderful Cheap Man

from here and some prizes captured. Anyone who chooses to visit the school house now will find that everything is quite in keeping with nineteenth century progress.

Your regular correspondent has been silent long enough, and the time has come for him to bespeak some news for you at least every two weeks.

The farmers have made good use of their time this fall and have everything in good shape, having shared the prosperity that has prevailed elsewhere.

Mr. Norman Magill, we understand, has the typhoid fever in Manitoba. We look for his speedy recovery and return as Norman is very popular, especially with the fair sex.

The prospects of seeing our railroad actually built are brighter than ever before. When the far-off Klondike is being favored with both railroad and telegraph thereto, surely we will not be denied either.

Miss Clara Caldwell, an up-to-date dress and mantle maker from Sterling, has set up business at Maple Villa two doors south of the Methodist church, and is about the busiest person in the village.

The Midland excursion brought several visitors to our village, among them was Miss Ethel Fallis, one of our former young ladies. Her arrival has placed one of our young men in an anxious position.

Mr. W. Argue, one of our young men now teaching at Eden, Mariposa, has been engaged by our trustees to teach the senior department of our public school, Miss Sodaun has not yet consented to remain, but we hope that she will.

Mrs. James Constable, Seaforth, Ont., writes:—"Ever since I can remember I have suffered from weak action of the heart. For some time past it grew constantly worse. I frequently had sharp pains under my heart that I was fearful if I drew a long breath it would cause death. In going up-stairs I had to stop to rest and regain breath. When my children made a noise while playing I would be so overcome with nervousness and weakness that I could not do anything and had to sit down to regain composure. My limbs were unnaturally cold and I was subject to severe headaches and dizziness. My memory became uncertain and sleep deserted me. "I have been taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and as a result am very much better. I have improved in health and strength rapidly. The blessing of sleep is restored to me. My heart is much stronger, and the oppressive sensation has vanished. I can now go up-stairs without stopping and with the greatest of ease, and I no longer suffer from dizziness or headache. It seems to me the circulation of my blood has become normal, thereby removing the coldness from my limbs. I can truly say that Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done me a world of good."
