MR. CODY RETRACTS WHAT HE SAID IN HIS CIRCULAR

He Admits that His Charges Against this Paper Were False. On the 16th of March the Massey-Harris Company held a big parade on Kent-st. It consisted of a long procession of the firm's implements...

FARMERS' ATTENTION! Under this heading I published a circular stating that the Lindsay papers would not publish a report of the Massey-Harris delivery last spring...

It is regrettable that a general agent for a great and highly reputable firm like the Massey-Harris Company should adopt such a method of advancing its interests.

Alterations and improvements costing thousands of dollars have just been completed in the Benson house. These pertain to nearly every part of this fine hotel.
