MADE FIERCE ATTACK.

Mad Mullah, a Fighter, Falls on the British Expedition.

2 OFFICERS AND 50 MEN KILLED

One Day's March North of Mudug Was the Scene of the Violent Onslaught in the Thick Woods - The Somali Levies Badly Shaken - Col. Swayne Wants Reliable Troops.
London, Oct. 20. - The Foreign Office has issued an undated despatch from Col. Cobbe, commanding one of the columns of the British force operating against the Mad Mullah in Somaliland. The despatch was forwarded through the British Vice Consul at Berbera, Somaliland. The British forces engaged were composed entirely of native troops and levies. Col. Cobbe says:
"My forces reached Ergo this morning. When about one day's march north of Mudug it was attacked in the thick bush. The advances were made, and the enemy was beaten back in the morning. Their losses were heavy, and we captured 100 rifles. Our force then proceeded to collect animals for transportation purposes, and to join the detachment at the stockade. In the afternoon a reconnaissance was made, and, after sharp fighting, the enemy were again driven off."
"I deeply regret to report the following casualties: Col. Phillips and Captain Angus and fifty men killed, and about one hundred men wounded. The latter include Captains Howard and Lieutenant Everett, but both are doing well. There were several losses among the transport and riding camels. The force will reach the stockade camp to-morrow, and will advance to attack the enemy."
The Vice Consul also telegraphs the substance of a later despatch from Col. Swayne, whereby it is stated as a result of the fighting at Ergo, Oct. 17, which was very severe, the Somali levies are considerably shaken. The Mullah, who is said to be in communication with Kall and Inger in the direction of the Webb River, is bringing up reinforcements from all sides.
Col. Swayne is much hampered owing to the necessity of transporting the wounded and water. He is retreating on Mudug. He asks that 600 further reliable troops be despatched from Berbera forthwith.
The serious reverse in Somaliland places the small British force there of about 3,000 men of doubtful reliability, in an exceedingly perilous situation. Since the beginning of Col. Swayne's second campaign against the Mullah, last May, little has been heard of the expedition. The present despatches seem to show that he was retreating from the Italian frontier, northward, when the Mullah attacked him at Ergo. Last December the Mullah was reported to have about 12,000 men, mostly armed, a large percentage of whom were armed with rifles. It is possible that he now commands about 15,000 men. With this large force harassing him, Col. Swayne has to retreat to Mudug, 150 miles, and probably still 100 miles further to Bura, the principal British frontier post. This march must be made under a scorching sun and over an arid and roadless desert, even if the retreat is successful. The gravest anxiety will be felt until further news is received. The entire expedition will have to be repeated on a much larger scale.
Col. Swayne is accompanied by over 20 white officers, and has with him some Maxim guns and some 7-pounders. The Mullah's success will set the whole Ogaden and Dolbahanta country aflame. Trade relations at Berbera and Bulhar have shown an enormous decrease since the operations of the Mullah cut off access to the rich markets of Ogaden and Dolbahanta. It was announced by Lord Lansdowne, Foreign Secretary in Parliament, last summer, that the Italians were co-operating with Col. Swayne, but as despatches made public to-day do not mention Italian help, it is supposed that some local difficulty was found in arranging for the co-operation.

Race Riot in Alabama.
Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 20. - A riot is in progress at Littleton, 25 miles from Birmingham. The sheriff and ten deputies left last night on a special train from this city. A late report from Littleton says that three white men and eight negroes were dead as a result of the riot.

Formal Steamship Agreement.
London, Oct. 20. - In a printed reply to a question asked in Parliament, Gerald Falour, president of the Board of Trade, promises to submit the Government's agreement with Cunard Steamship and the International Mercantile Company as soon as possible.

U.S. Crooks Must Go.
London, Oct. 20. - The officials of Scotland Yard intend to take vigorous action as a result of the recent French racing scandals, and the arrival here of about 100 United States sharpshooters of various kinds, have been expelled from France. Among the arrivals were the notorious Dr. Springer and many others who are well known to the police on both sides of the Atlantic.
A Toronto man killed.
Winnipeg, Oct. 19. - Somerville Bearish, a young man, recently come from Toronto, where his father, two brothers and a sister now reside on Elizabeth street, was almost instantly killed in the C.N.R. yards this afternoon, shortly after 2 o'clock. Bearish was employed as a car repairer. He was working on a car and had forced an adjoining car back to get more room. There was a slight grade. He neglected to block the second car. It slipped in, crushing Bearish below the grain. Despite medical aid he expired almost immediately.

HON. ISREAL TARTE BELIEVES IN AN ALL-CANADIAN POLICY

The Liberal Minister Who Has Been Dropped From the Cabinet Makes a speech

At a banquet given Col. Denison at Toronto on Monday night, Hon. Mr. Tarte, Minister of Public Works was present and made a speech. Because of his supposed hostility to his colleagues on tariff questions, he was heard with great interest and no disappointment, unless because he made none but secular reference to his relations with the rest of the cabinet. Parts of his speech were as follows: "I am not here this evening as a member of the Dominion Cabinet. (Laughter.) Am I a member of the Dominion Cabinet? (Laughter.) That is the question I very diplomatically declined to answer when I was leaving Ottawa to come here. Being a minister is not the most care-free life in the world - it is an occupation that is exposed to accidents of all kinds. A minister is exposed to tremendous hazards - to the fire of the newspapers, to the bad temper of members of parliament, to the assaults of opponents, and occasionally to the tender mercies of your best personal friends. (Laughter and applause.)"
"I am present tonight as a British subject of Canadian origin - a French Canadian of high proud of British institutions, and feeling in that pride that he is speaking the sentiments of his countrymen in the Province of Quebec. (Applause.)"

"I have now been thirty years in public life, as a newspaperman, as a member of the legislature of my native province, and as a Cabinet Minister, extensively, observing as I went, after having visited several exhibitions of the world. I have come to the conclusion that British institutions are the best adapted to bring about the greatestness of this country, as they make for happiness, safety, prosperity, progress, and permanency.
"Since I have been in office as minister of Public Works, and that is six years and three months, I have endeavored to the best of my ability to build up British and Canadian commercial independence on this continent. I have done my best to improve and develop trade between the Empire through Canadian soil, through Canadian channels, in Canadian bottoms, and through Canadian railways. (Applause.)"
"Let us not be satisfied," continued Mr. Tarte. "Let us make up our minds to make ourselves at home from a national as well as a commercial standpoint. (Applause.)"
"Col. Denison, who is allowed to speak of things of which other people fear the consequence - (laughter) - has spoken of the tariff. Col. Denison has spoken of Chamberlain, and has quoted Chamberlain's words on the tariff. Chamberlain is not Minister of Finance, he is Colonial Secretary. He has spoken of the tariff, mind you. I think he ought to be dismissed. (Laughter.) He has vilified the constitution of England, and doesn't know what he has done. (Laughter.) He has spoken of protection, and he has spoken of free trade. He is a dangerous man. (Laughter.) He has said foreign nations had formed combinations, and were maintaining hostile tariffs, and that the English nation was suffering by reason of this. He will be punished. (Laughter.)"
"I will only say a few words, and with my usual caution. England will not ask us to jeopardize our own interests for her sake. This I am convinced. We have been giving her a preference in our markets. Perhaps we have been giving her too much, but I am not so sure of this. We have, I believe, done a good thing. It has brought about discussions in free trade with England which may lead to results."

"We all belong to British England - we all intend to remain - we are sure nothing better to do. There are not in this country a baker's dozen who will go in for annexation with the United States - annexation either commercial or national. I again state that England will never ask us to jeopardize our interests for her sake. She doesn't naturally expect that, nor does she desire to rob us of our autonomy. I say nothing of the kind is going to happen. I have belonged to the British Empire League for about 20 years. I have been asked several times to renounce my connection with it. I have always declined. I am not an Englishman, but a member of the British Empire League. I have been elected in several French-speaking ridings, and I am going to be elected again. And I am going to remain a member of the British Empire League, thank God."

The best way, to my mind, to build up the British Empire is to build up a British Empire here. We have been engaged in discussing imperial problems. To my mind the two great problems are transportation and the tariff. Let us endeavor in our own land to improve our transportation facilities and secure better connection with the mother land. Let me repeat, that is what is wanted, a Canadian tariff, not a British tariff. I repeat my political faith, my rational faith is Canada for the Canadians. (Applause.)

PRES. MITCHELL'S REPLY

Notified by Pres. Roosevelt that a Board of Arbitration Had Been Appointed, He Violently Assails the Mine-owners.

When the board of arbitration, appointed at the suggestion of the mine owners had been named by Pres. Roosevelt, he sent a list of the names of the men he had appointed to Pres. Mitchell, who replied in a two and a half column article containing references to the mine owners which one would have supposed policy and good taste would have kept him from making when the matter had been so happily disposed of. Some of the passages are as follows:
"The poor, under-paid mine workers of these coal regions, who toil hard from early morning until late at night for a livelihood, nobly supported by organized labor in this and other lands have taught these corporation managers a useful lesson in civic and social duty. We exult over this tribute to the dignity of labor because it is the triumph of right and of good policy."
"We do not however, exult over our opponents, we appeal to them now, as we have from the first, to turn their eyes to the future and to co-operate with us in an effort to establish better relations between employer and employes for the advantage of both."
"We forgive them their arrogant refusal to deal with us, and in this hour when they are forced to acknowledge their inability to operate their mines without our consent and our cooperation, we hold out the right hand of friendship and ask them to join with us in securing amicable relations and wholesome conditions in this region. We forgive them even the false accusations they have made against us. They charged us with being criminals, rioters and Anarchists, and our organization they denoted as 'lawless and irresponsible.' They know, and did know that their charges were untrue and without foundation."

"We declare that it was unfair and unmanly for the coal road operators to insult us while we were your guests, and charge our organization with responsibility for acts of lawlessness during the strike."
"The pretense of the operators that they were unable to produce coal because intimidation kept from work men who were willing to work have been proven false by the fact that protection, which they demanded has decreased rather than increased."
"They refused to have any dealings with their employes except as individuals; they refused concessions and refused arbitration; they put their backs against the wall of prejudice and their faces arbitrarily against progress; they thought themselves stronger than the great union principle which is making such strides throughout the world; that while pooling their interests in hard and fast alliance they could deny the men who worked for them the right to organize and speak through their organization."
"When the inevitable conflict came on they attempted to justify themselves upon the false plea that ours is an irresponsible organization; when we demonstrated our responsibility and reliability, they then ascribed that we were an organization which was dominated by violence. When society attempted to interfere to settle the strike they declared their divinely appointed right to be let alone.

"When representatives of national and State Governments tried to mediate they resented such meddling, you, Mr. President, and to the power of public opinion they have been brought to a realization of the fact that the interests and welfare of the American people cannot be ignored with impunity."

TUBULAR SEPARATOR CAN BE KEPT CLEAN

They have but one piece inside the bowl, and that as simple as a tin cup, while other separators have as many as thirty or more discs and other parts in the bowl alone. The TUBULAR produces pure, sweet cream, while other complicated separators produce "disey flavor" cream which makes "disey flavor" butter, sometimes erroneously called "fishy flavor." Cleanliness is the most certain avenue to gilt-edged dairy products. This is not a matter of sentiment, but of dollars.
THE TUBULAR IS RIGHT NOW THE EASIEST RUNNING, MOST CONVENIENT AND CLOSEST SKIMMING SEPARATOR EVER BUILT.
