E. E. W. MCGAFFEY 116 Kent Street Lindsay - Ontario

Little Britain To Lose Two Popular Residents

Little Britain, Oct. 11.—Miss Lotie Tiffin, of Udora, has been visiting relatives in this section for a fortnight. She expects to return to her home in a few days.

Mrs. Wall has sold her beautiful residence to E. Yerex. She purposes moving out to Saskatchewan province in a short time.

Miss Flossie Maunder, of Lindsay, and friend spent Sunday afternoon at her grandmother's, Mrs. Seth Metherell.

Dr. W. J. and Mrs. Henderson, of Cannington, spent Sunday the guests of Dr. Hall.

John Sloan, who was burned out this summer during the big fire that swept the village, will soon have his new house completed. Mr. Wilson Wallis, of Oakwood, is doing the carpenter work and Mr. Richard Dawson, of Fingerboard, is doing the masonry work.

Mr. Richard Oliver is now engaged in plastering the Tremere store. This magnificent building is rapidly approaching completion. Mr. Tremere expects to be opened up for business in a few weeks.

A stone foundation has been put under the market building and restaurant. The building has been sided up with metallic siding, and Mr. DeShane is now giving it a liberal coat of paint. This adds much to its improvement.

Rev. Chapman occupied the Methodist pulpit, both morning and evening last Sunday. There was a very large attendance at each meeting.

Mrs. Sailes is having a sale of household furniture this afternoon. She and her daughter Mary Sailes, purpose leaving in a short time for British Columbia, where they intend to live. They are having a bungalow built and expect to have it ready by the time they arrive. We much regret to lose Mrs. Sailes and daughter as they have been most excellent citizens in Little Britain for many years. Our loss will be somebody's gain. We wish them a safe journey and every success in their new home.

Mr. James Gease was in Lindsay on Saturday transacting business.

R. S. Robertson and wife drove into Lindsay Saturday evening on a business trip.

Mr. William Davidson, of Glandville, attended the Methodist church on Sunday morning and was a guest of his brother, Mr. John Davidson.

Mrs. Roy St. John, of Sunderland, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Thos. Wallis.

John Cunnings, Esq., of Oakwood, spent several days in the village last week transacting business.

Wm. McCullough, of Oakwood, ### sanitary inspector for the township of Mariposa, called in the village last week.

Mr. Lawrence Heatlie and wife spent last Sunday with friends in Cannington.

Wm. Tait and family, of Oakwood, were guests of Mrs. Wall on Sunday.

W. H. Elliott, B.A., of Toronto, was at Washburn Island for a few days last week looking after his summer cottage. He spent Sunday with Mr. E. Z. Yerex.

Mr. John Stacey, one of township road commissioners, has had a number of teams drawing dirt and gravel to fill the sides of the new village bridge. This structure is certainly a good one, and due credit should be given the present councilmen for this fine bridge.

BURY'S GREEN

Bury's Green, Oct. 9.—Threshing is the order of the day here and the farmers report the yield of the grain is plentiful.

Mr. Akister has returned after a pleasant trip to Cadillac, Mich.

Miss Mae Tipling, of Toronto, is visiting at her home.

Mrs. McMann has returned to her home in Lindsay, after spending a pleasant week with friends here.

Mr. L. Oliver who has been visiting at Mr. Jas. Billets, returned to his home in Peterboro on Saturday.

We are glad to learn that Mr. J. Walker, who has been confined to his home for some time, on account of illness, is able to be out again.

PENIEL HAPPENINGS

INTERESTING NEWS OF VISITORS AND OTHERS.

Peniel, Oct. 9.—Mr. Thos. Love, of Cannington, spent Sunday last at Mr. A. Bagshaw's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wright, of Linden, Valley, spent Sunday at Mr. Thos. Smith's.

Messrs. Rich and Charlie Osborne attended Victoria Road fair on Wednesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Squires have moved from Mr. E. Currie's house on the 12th con. to Mr. Will Squires' house on the 11th concession.

Mrs. Jos. Mainhood, and Mrs. T. Taylor, of Toronto, also Mrs. Sam. Walters, of Oakwood, were guests of their friend, Mrs. George Hardy, on Thursday.

Master Donnie McDonald is suffering from an attack of appendicitis.

Mrs. S. Black, of Cannington, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ettie, spent this week with her daughter, Mrs. Sam. Squires.

Miss Ada Nokes, teacher at Cedar Grove, has been unable to teach this week owing to illness.

We are glad to report that Miss Sadie Francis, teacher Black's, is recovering from a slight attack of pneumonia, from which she is suffering.

Mr. Ernest Wright is improving, and we hope will soon be around again.

Corn cutting and silo filling are ### the orders of the day in this vicinity.

Oct. 11.—Mr. and Miss Steele, of Manilla, spent Sunday with their friend, Miss Mary McInnis.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wellington, of Woodville, spent Sunday at Mt. John Brown's.

Miss Luetta Osborne, is spending the week-end with her friend, Miss Elsie Coad, at Oakwood.

Mrs. Fred Nancekivell, jr., is suffering from an abscess on her arm.

FRANKLIN

Franklin, Oct. 11.—Master Clemens Stewart, who has been attending the High school at Omemo for the past two years, went to Lindsay on the first of this month to take a six months' course in the school of railway telegraphy.

Mr. Charles Brererton, who has been clerk in his father's drug store in Bethany, for a number of years, has gone to the city of Toronto to take a five-years' course for the medical profession.

Mrs. James Stewart, of Smith, spent last week visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph Yaramor.

Mr. James and wife were in Lindsay on Wednesday of last week on business.

Mr. W. J. Falls spent last week visiting with his daughter.

Mr. Robert Touchburn, of Lindsay, was up last week to this village on a business trip.

HYMENEAL

MOORE—DOODS.

On Sept. 1, at Port Perry, Miss Annie Dodds was married to Mr. Fred Moore at the home of Mr. Aaron Williams. Rev. George Williams, of Johnstone, U.S., performed the ceremony.

McQUADE—TULLY.

A quiet wedding took place Thursday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Wilkinson, Leaside Junction, when Mr. Hugh Brown McQuade, of Cardinal, Ont., was married to Miss Ida Valera Tully, of Bobcaygeon, Ont. The Rev. P. M. McDonald, of Crown Avenue Presbyterian church officiated. The bride looking very sweet in a soft, white silk mull gown, and carrying a huge bouquet of white roses, was given away by her father, while Mrs. Wilkinson played Mendelssohn's Wedding March. Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. McQuade left on a trip through Western Ontario, and on their return will reside at Leaside Junction.

Three Windsor hotelkeepers lost their licenses for violations of the law.

Pitcher "Larry" Sullivan of St. Thomas, broke his arm while pitching a ball to the batter in a game against London.

F. T. Dodge, of St. John, N.B., attacked with heart trouble, sat down on a wharf and fell into the water and was drowned.
