High Grade Flavoring Extracts

We prepare a line of flavoring extracts that every good cook should know about. These extracts are the finest that skill and care can produce. The ingredients used are the very best that money can buy. For strength, purity, delicacy and naturalness of flavor our extracts cannot be excelled. They cost no more than many inferior extracts. If they cost twice as much they would be the cheapest to buy—they go so much farther and produce so much better results.

Vanilla, Lemon, Strawberry, Pineapple, Almond, etc.

WANTED. — HOUSEMAID AND cook to go to Toronto. Four in family. Uspesctable references. Good wages, good home. Apply 100 Spadina Road, Toronto.

POWLES' CORNER

Powles' Corner, Oct. 22. — On Sunday and Tuesday last the annual anniversary services were conducted in Victoria church. On Sunday Rev. Dr. Redditt, of Toronto, preached an eloquent sermon here in the afternoon. Special music was provided by the choir and Miss M. S. Powles rendered an excellent solo. A large congregation was present and all seemed impressed by Mr. Redditt's remarks.

On Tuesday evening a fowl supper was served in the basement of the church. The whole neighborhood stood shoulder to shoulder to make the affair a success, as that the immense crowd was well provided for and enough was left to give abundance to the crowd who attended the social the following night. After the fowl supper a program was given. The meeting was closed by singing "God Save the King." The net proceeds were in the neighborhood of one hundred dollars. This should prove a valuable nest-egg in the treasury of Victoria church.

Messrs. S. Beal, F. Carew, H. Woods and M. Moynes, of Lindsay, attended the fowl supper here.

Mrs. R. Cooper, of Lindsay, is visiting friends in our vicinity.

The success of the fowl supper was due in part to support given by Fenelon Falls people. It is said that over fifty from the Cataract Village were present. Comparisons are always odious but just count up the Cameronites that were present.

An account of accident that occurred to the infant child of Mr. Ruthertford's will be found in another column.

NORLAND

Norland, Oct. 24. — Mr. Richard Day and family have returned from the power house where they spent the summer months. There friends were all glad to welcome them once more.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Matthew Greer, sr., passed away from this world to a happier home. The death took place on Sunday, the 23 in the afternoon. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the community.

Mr. G. W. Allely, general merchant of this village, has repainted his store which makes quite an improvement to the place.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Al- die Le Crow is on the sick list at present, but hope for his speedy recovery.

Mr. M. Greer, jr., has improved his residence by building a new kitchen and repainting.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wicks, have moved back from Cobocok to Mr. Thos. Wicks place, a short ways from the village.

HARTLEY

Hartley, Oct. 18. — Miss Mabel Fisher, of Mansgrove, Eldon, was the guest of Miss Mamie Spence on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. McEachern, of Eldon, visited in the village.

Rev. Mr. Lord, of Fenelon Falls, occupied the pulpit in Glenarm Sunday.

Miss L. McFadyen and Mr. P. Mark were the guests of Mrs. L. L. Muir Sunday evening.

Mr. Alex Spence returned to Peterboro after a few weeks vacation at his home.

Rev. Mr. Duprau, of Manilla, who conducted both anniversary services here on Sunday, was favored with an exceptionally large audience. In connection with the anniversary, a fowl supper was given Monday evening in the hall. Its success was probably the best on record, due, shall we say, to the ideal weather or to the undisputed reputation which it attained in previous years.

After supper the many friends dispersed to the church in the expectation of an excellent program. Disappointed? No, just the reverse, since it far surpassed any ever given in Hartley. Rev. Mr. Whatham, pastor, acted as chairman. Miss Lapp, of Little Britain, favored us with a number of readings, which were enjoyed by everyone present. Great applause was given Mr. Weeks, of Woodville, and Mr. Plank, of Lorneville, who rendered excellent solos and duets, with Miss Hancock as accompanist. The choir likewise contributed much to the evening's enjoyment. Interesting addresses were delivered by Rev. Mr. Steele, of Glenarm, and Rev. Mr. Elliott, of Oakwood.

Miss Ella Moran, of Palestine, is visiting friends and acquaintances. Miss Nellie Kidd, of Toronto, was the guest of Miss Nellie Brown over Sunday.

Miss Jessie and Mr. D. McArthur, of Mansgrove, Eldon, and Miss Annie McMillan, of Palestine, were the guests of Miss M. Campbell.

Mrs. B. McArthur visited under the parental roof.

Mr. Swain, of Lindsay, passed through the village this morning.

Mrs. McFadyen and her two daughters, Mrs. Muir and Mrs. McMillan, spent Saturday in Lindsay.

Miss M. Morron and Mr. W. Barker spent Friday in town on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Rob. Spence entertained a number of the members of the choir Sunday evening.

The many friends of Mr. J. Brown will sympathize with him in his affliction in the "non-use of his hand."

KINMOUNT.

Kinmount, Oct. 24.—Last Friday evening the Rev. Mr. Sweeney, D.D., Bishop of Toronto Diocese, held confirmation services in St. James' church here. He gave an address on "He called them by their name." He was assisted in the service by the minister from Haliburton, and Rev. Mr. Lawrence. About a dozen young people were confirmed.

Rev. Mr. Currie, of Toronto, was the preacher in the Presbyterian church on Sabbath. He spoke from the words, "Bear ye one another's burdens." He is out in the interests of the Dominion Alliance.

Sneak thieves visited the chickens belonging to Mr. Beech and carried off a few fowl.

Miss Moore, of Lindsay, visited at Mr. Levia's during the week end. Confirmation service will be held in the Roman Catholic church here next Wednesday.

Miss Bertha Beech, teacher at Miner's Bay, paid Kinmount a visit last Saturday.

Partridge hunting is the order of the day, and reports are that there are quite a number of the birds to be had.

Mr. G. F. Leonard, superintendent of representatives of the C. B. C., Toronto, was a visitor here last Friday.

WOODVILLE.

Woodville, Oct. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDonald visited friends in Lindsay last week.

We learn that Mr. Hector Campbell and family of Kirkfield will soon move to Woodville. We will gladly welcome them to our midst, and would extend a cordial welcome to the rest of the good people of Kirkfield to come and dwell with us.

Mr. Dan Smith was a business visitor to the county town on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. J. V. Staples left on Wednesday of last week for Welwyn, Man-to attend to his large interests at that place.

Mr. Dan Jamieson was a business visitor to Cannington last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Epplett, of Coldwater called on friends here last week.

Mrs. Norman Ferguson returned home on Wednesday of last week, after a week's visit with friends in Toronto.

Mrs. Malcolm McCallum and daughter Maggie, visited with friends in Beaverton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cullis and daughter Dessie called on friends here last week.

Mr. A. E. Stabback attended the at home given by King George the V. Lodge A. F. & A. M. at Cobocok on Friday of last week.

Miss Mary Gilchrist of this place, but formerly of Islay, died here last Friday and was buried last Saturday afternoon at Glenarm.

Rev. A. J. Mann preached in Sunderland last Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Wesley preached here in the morning and evening.

CAMERON.

Cameron, Oct. 24.—The Cameron branch of the Women's Institute held an interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. H. Eyers on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 20. Owing to the illness of some members the attendance was not as large as usual. Some good papers were given and a discussion by all present on the subject of salads. The district president, Mrs. Stewart, of Bobcaygeon, being present, gave an excellent address on institute work. This seemed encouraging to all present. It was decided by vote not to send a delegate to convention in Toronto from the branch, but rather have the representative from the district give a report at some of the meetings. After the meeting closed, a dainty lunch was served by the hostess. The November meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. McLean in the village. Subject—"Daily wants in the home." All ladies invited.

Windrem and Hart are doing a big stroke of work threshing—success boys. Mr. Robert Nugent is improving his house by the way of building a stone wall under it. He has also finished his barn. Bob is a hustler. Mr. Worsley and his better half paid our burg a flying visit. Come again. "George Washington," Elliott's trotting horse ran away doing some damage, but never told a falsehood.
