TWO VOICES

By Mary C. Gates.
Two sounds I hear this autumn day:
One is the booming of the surf,
Far, far away, beyond the dune,
Across the bay, the billows play
And break beneath the October moon.

One is the murmurous monotone
Of crocets in the yellowing grass;
Singing alone, so close at hand,
By root and stone, though summer's down.

A human sound amid the land.
One chants of long eternity:
One sings the dear and daily life.
The cricket's glee, his artless art,
How sweet to me! But oh, the sea,
The sea—unfathomed as my heart!

VERULAM MAN BADLY INJURED

Runaway--A Paper Chase--Sad Death at 'Caygeon

Bobcaygeon, Oct. 14.—The first first rural mail service inaugurated in this community commenced last Tuesday. It is known as the Bobcaygeon and Fairbairn route. Commencing at Bobcaygeon every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week, it runs to the Verulam and Somerville boundary by the Beck line and Devitt settlement; west along that boundary to the 5th and 6th concessions on line of Verulam, and back to Bobcaygeon, via Fairbairn and the Patterson settlement. Mr. Adam Brock is the courier, and so far has covered the route of 21 miles in six hours, leaving here about 2 p.m., and arriving home about 8 p.m., after serving nearly 50 customers. It is expected in the near future that the number of customers will be increased to 70 or over. This should be quite a boon to a large number of patrons, for they have the convenience of not only receiving their mail at their doors three times each week, but of all modern conveniences of a post office, which should in time prove to be a very valuable consideration.

Schools were closed Thursday and Friday of last week, the teachers being in attendance at the county convention in Lindsay, studying the problems affecting their work. This is time well spent. Many of us would do well to study and take note of this, so that we may get out of the rut in our daily affairs of life. We trust the interchange of ideas may find its impression on the pupils.

Mr. James Seymour, residing on lot 21, con. 10, Verulam, a couple of miles north of the village, met with a painful accident Friday forenoon. He was getting ready to put his corn into his silo, and jumped onto the back of a spirited young team to bring the engine over from his brother Harry's, a mile or so away. His youngest son, Carman, a boy of twelve or thirteen, was riding ahead on an older horse with a whiffletree trailing behind. The team Mr. Seymour was riding were seemingly a little frisky, for before he got them reined up they had charged into the older one ahead. This was not altogether to his liking, for he jumped on their approach, the trailing whiffletree catching the feet of the beast Mr. Seymour was on, throwing it to the ground. In the mix up Mr. Seymour fell under the animal, breaking the bone just above the ankle of his left leg and putting it out of joint. Dr. Thorne was at once called out by telephone, and set the break. Mr. Seymour is resting easily, but will be laid off work most of the winter. He had recently purchased a 200-acre farm in Cavan.

The annual meeting of this branch of the British and Foreign Bible Society was held in the Methodist church Thursday evening, when officers were elected, collectors appointed for the ensuing year.

A petition is in circulation for the repeal of the local option by-law now in force. If sufficient signatures are secured a vote will be taken in January next with the municipal elections.

Bills are out announcing a Thanksgiving tea meeting in the Methodist church on Monday, the 28th instant. Rev. J. R. Archer, B. A., of Woodville, will preach Thanksgiving services on Sunday, the 27th.

A paper chase—something like the old game of fox and hound—was pulled off on Thursday afternoon. The Boy Scouts and students attending Hillcroft school, about a dozen boys or so participating. The chase led into the Galway road from Hillcroft, then north and cutting across fields to the Beck line, where the chased were sighted and almost caught by their pursuers, but like the hero in every thrilling adventure, escaped by the skin of their teeth. The boys say that if the scent had not led them out of their way they would have captured the booty, but such not being the case, they will try and do that next time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Conway returned from their honeymoon last week. They are at present residing with Mrs. Conway's parents, Mr. Richard Welsh, of King-st., till Mr. Conway's handsome new dwelling is ready for occupation.

Mr. W. C. Moore's new dwelling on William-st. is nearing completion. Mr. Irwin King, of Peterboro, finished the Eric work last week, while Mr. Edward Murdoch is busily engaged plastering.

Mr. Edward Wood, of Bolton-st., has had his residence bricked by Mr. H. V. Cosh.

Mr. James Humphries has sold his farm in Verulam to Mr. Garfield Kennedy.

Apple picking is in progress just now. Mr. Roland E. Thurston disposed of his stock last week to Messrs. Connelly and Cornell, of Lindsay, while others are taking orders from local dealers and individual parties for local consumption.

Mr. Wm. Hickson and J. R. Moyle, manager of the Bank of B.N.A. here, left this morning for a two weeks' trip to Ketecheukum lake for their annual trout fish. Mr. Hickson is a very ardent follower of Sir Isaac Walton's pastime, and can relate many thrilling experiences of former expeditions. He will no doubt enjoy himself, not having taken a holiday all summer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Purdy, of North Verulam, have moved into town, occupying their property lately purchased from Mr. Freeman. The body of the late Mrs. Montgomery was laid to rest Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Hunt and John David Montgomery, both of Niagara Falls, N.Y., were here for the funeral.

Mrs. James-Wright (Sara Jane), who has been ill since February, passed peacefully to her eternal rest Wednesday evening, and her body was quietly and reverently borne to its last resting place Friday afternoon. Service was held in the Methodist church, where the pastor, Rev. W. E. Honey, B.A., took occasion to pay a last tribute to her memory. Mrs. Wright was born in Fenelon Falls a little over 66 years ago, being the eighth child in a family of nine, her parents being William Montgomery and Sarah McMillan. While a child

How He Escaped An Operation

And Was Completely Cured of Piles of 14 Years' Standing by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mr. Chas. Beauvais.

Doctors say that about one person in every four suffers more or less from piles, and who can imagine a more annoying, torturing, disagreeable ailment?
After trying a few treatments without success, and as the ailment grows worse, the medical doctor is consulted. An operation, he says, is necessary. You think of the suffering, expense and risk to life itself, and hesitate before taking such a step.

In many thousands of such cases Dr. Chase's Ointment has made thorough and lasting cures. Read this letter for the proof.
Mr. Charles Beauvais, a well-known citizen of St. Jean, Que., writes:—"For 14 years I suffered from chronic piles, and considered my case very serious. I was treated by a celebrated doctor who could not help me and ordered a surgical operation as the only means of relief. 'However,' I decided to try Dr. Chase's Ointment, and obtained great relief from the first box. By the use of three boxes I was entirely cured. This is why it gives me great pleasure to recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment to all who suffer from piles as a treatment of the greatest value."

her parents moved from Fenelon Falls to near Buckhorn. In those days church organs were not so plentiful as nowadays, and Mrs. Wright being a good singer, had the pleasant duty of raising the tunes in the little church she attended as a girl. It was there that she met and later married Mr. Wright. Throughout her life she has been a consistent member of the Methodist church, although baptized in the Church of England at Fenelon Falls, because, as we are informed, there was not a church of her denomination there at the time. Mrs. Wright has lived practically all her married life (over 40 years) in Bobcaygeon, and where she brought up her family of seven—five sons and two daughters—all of whom, with her bereaved husband, survive. She bore her suffering patiently, and with Christian fortitude, and was ready for the call. Her end was peace.

How Apes and Monkeys Differ.

What is the difference between apes, baboons and monkeys?
Apes are such as are destitute of tails; baboons have muscular bodies, elongated muzzles, and their tails are usually short; monkeys are those whose tails are in general long, some of them, the sapajous, having prehensile tails, which can at pleasure be twisted around any object, and thereby, in many instances, answer the purpose of an additional hand.—"Reason Why."

Congratulations

Rev. Canon Marsh, of St. Paul's church, Monday celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of his appointment to the church in Lindsay.

Canon Marsh referred to this fact yesterday morning at the close of his sermon, and mentioned a number of interesting events which have taken place during the past twenty-five years in connection with the work of the church.

Twenty-five years ago Monday Rev. Canon Marsh arrived in Lindsay from Orillia, where he had been curate for some time previous. He was inducted as rector of the parish in Lindsay, and since that time, through his close and painstaking attention to duty and God's work, the church and congregation have prospered in every branch. Besides, Canon Marsh has been an excellent citizen of Lindsay, and counts among his legion of friends members of every congregation in Lindsay. In fact, there are few men in Lindsay with as many friends as the popular rector.

Rev. Canon Marsh took his text from First Samuel, 7th chapter and part of the 12th verse: "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us." In the course of his remarks he made many interesting statements concerning his pastorate, in which time he had baptized 716 infants and 48 adults; officiated at over 400 marriages; confirmed between 400 and 500; and buried over 600. The church debt had been materially lessened, a new Sunday School was erected and an addition added thereto, a new pipe organ was installed, and many other changes had taken place.

The Warder joins with the citizens of Lindsay in general in wishing Canon Marsh and the congregation of St. Paul's continued prosperity.

Power's Restaurant Was Burglarized
Mr. A. Powers, who conducts a restaurant and bakery on William-st., was robbed of $115.00 in bills on Saturday afternoon. The money was taken from the back shop, where it had been left in a small box on a stand by the proprietor. As no suspicious persons had been in or around the premises, it was a mystery where the money had disappeared to, and as the thief had left several dollars in silver behind in the box the obscurity of the case was greater. The owner of the restaurant consulted Chief Short on Sunday morning, who cleared the apparent incomprehensible, by going directly to the home of a young boy who had been around the store on Saturday afternoon, and at once placed the youth under arrest. The youthful robber maintained his nerve until he reached the store, whither the officer was bringing him, previous to being locked up, when he quietly told of his pecculation, and handed the $115.00 over to Mr. Short, who returned it to the owner.
The youth has always borne a good record, is 13 years of age, and the son of a north ward citizen. No prosecution will follow, as the theft is attributable to the extreme youth of the little urchin.
Eddie, six-year-old son of James Keleher, Guelph, was drowned in a pond in an unused back of his home. If all epitaphs had to be truthful it would be better to leave some tombstones blank.
There is also disposition to over-estimate the sagacity of a blind horse.

Nearly a Musician.
"It is curious to reflect," said Sir Laurence Alma Tadema, on one occasion, "that I might never have become a painter. At the outset of my career my art had a dangerous rival. Music enchained me from my earliest years. So strong was my early propensity that my piano teacher in Leeuwarden told my mother gravely to make me throw away my brushes and devote myself wholly to music. A time came, with the lapse of many years, when I renewed my acquaintance with that musician, then grown old. After uttering some compliments upon my pictures, he dryly acknowledged that he had altered his mind about my becoming a musician; decidedly I should have been a painter. So, you see, all is for the best."
