LITTLE BRITAIN TEA.

The annual fowl supper and con cert under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church, Little Britain, was held last week and proved to be a big success every respect, over $153 being realized. In the afternoon the ladies conducted an interesting bazaar, at which various home-made articles and confectionery were disposed of Commencing at 5.30 o'clock a hot fowl supper was served, the tables being surrounded until 8.30 o'clock. The supper was a bounteous one, and the large crowd were well provided

After all the wants of the inner man had been satisfied, the large crowd listened to a choice program in the auditorium of the church, given entirely by Lindsay talent. Mr. Morton, of the Christian Church, addressed the audience, and spoke in sided at the organ.
