Mining Man Located Nothing Of Value in New Ontario

Mr. John Ferris has returned from in the interests of a mining company, but located nothing of a paying nature. Having gained much experience in mining in Colorado and California, he can base his opinion on years spent amongst the rocks which contains the alluring metal that furnishes the coinage of the world, and therefore claims that millions of the beautiful is to be found which some day will be discovered by a chance as most all great mines have been located.

While through this country, of which many are unfamiliar, he proceeded on to James' Bay. This district, he states, is a fine level country, well timbered, and good agricultural land when cleared. The weather has a pernicious influence in keeping out settlers, as a cold, damp atmosphere prevails in winter.

Mr. Ferris will return to the Nipissing district for the coming winter in the interest of an American lumber company.

stroyed St. Joseph's orphan asylum here early to-day. It is feared that the death toll will be added to from a list of missing persons.
