Professional Men.

It's the constant strain and worry under which the professional man labors, the irregularity of habits and loss of rest that makes him peculiarly susceptible to kidney troubles. First it's backache, then urinary difficulties, then—unless it's attended to—Bright's Disease and—death.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

Strengthen and invigorate the kidneys—never fail to give quick relief and cure the most obstinate cases. Rev. M. P. Campbell, pastor of the Baptist Church, Essex, Ont., says: "From my personal use of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Sharon's drug store, I can say they are a most excellent remedy for kidney troubles, and I recommend them to sufferers from such complaints."

The Watchman-Warder is a first-class local paper of 12 pages. It contains local and foreign news up to date. It gives special attention to all matters of interest in this county. Its reports of these things and its editorial comment on them have made it of great value to every man in the county. Its market reports are reliable; it publishes a continued story and among these are some of the choicest modern fiction. It is a wholesome, bright, up-to-date local, family newspaper.

The book we offer with it is entitled "Homemade Contrivances." It is 7 1/2 x 5 1/4 inches in size, has 650 pages and 750 illustrations. Resolved that we the members of Branch 288 beg to offer to your Lordship our sincere sympathy in the loss which the diocese the parish of Lindsay and the country at large has sustained, in the sudden demise of one who has done so much for the furtherance of religion and the church in this diocese.

Furthermore, we in the parish of Emily especially will feel his loss, as on many occasions did he show his sympathy towards our pastor and the parish of Emily. May his soul rest in peace!

L. C. I. Notes

—Friday's literary meeting was a decided success in every way. The trial proved a great drawing card for a large audience listened with great interest and enjoyment to the procedure which closed in the honorable acquittal of Mr. S. J. N. Magwood.

The dramatic personae were all good. His Honor Judge Burns presided with great dignity, while Mr. Bingham in the capacity of Clerk of the Court distinguished himself and Court Crier Jameson brought the house down. Throughout the trial the attention never flagged.

Mr. Mark, the eminent K. C., very ably presented the Crown's case while Mr. Bowles a young lawyer well on the road to fame, added one more laurel to his crown by his defence of Mr. Magwood. The witnesses were all questioned and cross-questioned carefully, and the jurors noted every prominent feature. The cross-examination over, Mr. Mark spoke very effectively to the gentlemen of the jury, urging them to do their duty, after which Mr. Bowles exhorted the jurors to be merciful and weigh with great care the great question they were about to decide in the balance of justice. So eloquently did he speak that a Shylock might have been swayed from his course. The jury then retired. All was expectation, eagerness, the silence was intense and a great sigh of relief rose from the audience when the verdict not guilty was announced—thus the mist rolled away and our honorable member stepped from his place cleared of all suspicion in the eyes of the world. While the jury were deciding the case the audience was greatly indebted to Miss Corinne Anderson for her pretty instrumental solo, it greatly alleviated the intense anxiety, and so helped pass the trying moments.
