MISERABLE NIGHTS
What to do When Baby is Fretful and Sleepless

It is wrong to take up a wicket by the cradle and walk it up and down the floor all night. It demoralizes the infant and enslaves the parents. Baby does not cry for the fun of the thing; it cries because it is not well—generally, because its stomach is sour, its little bowels congested, its skin hot and feverish. Relieve it and it will sleep all night, every night growing stronger in proportion. Just what mothers need is told in a letter from Mrs. E. S. Olanders, Marquette, Que., who says: "I cannot say too much in favor of Baby's Own Tablets. They have worked like a charm with my baby, who was very restless at night, but Baby's Own Tablets soon brought quiet sleep and rest. I shall never be without a box while I have a baby."

Baby's Own Tablets cure all minor ailments of little ones, and are guaranteed to contain no opiate or harmful drug. They are sold at 25 cents a box by all dealers, or you can get them by mail, post paid, by writing direct to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N.Y.

Consumption

Salt pork is a famous old-fashioned remedy for consumption. "Eat plenty of pork," was the advice to the consumptive 50 and 100 years ago.

Salt pork is good if a man can stomach it. The idea behind it is that fat is the food the consumptive needs most.

Scott's Emulsion is the modern method of feeding fat to the consumptive. Pork is too rough for sensitive stomachs. Scott's Emulsion is the most refined of fats, especially prepared for easy digestion.

Feeding him fat in this way, which is often the only way, is half the battle, but Scott's Emulsion does more than that. There is something about the combination of cod liver oil and hypophosphites in Scott's Emulsion that puts new life into the weak parts and has a special action on the diseased lungs.

A sample will be sent free upon request.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

WATCH GRAHAM GROW

GRAHAM

HIGH-CLASS CLOTHING

JUST THE SUIT YOU WANT IS HERE

If You Have a Good Thing Stretch It

Last week two little maidens toddled up street in the pouring rain. They were scantily clad, but one of them was better provided than the other, to the extent that she had a cape, and she just managed to make it cover the little shoulders of her companion as well as her own; and so closely folded together they picked their steps up Kent-st., the warmer because they were so close held together by the encircling cape. If you have a good thing, stretch it, so that some one else may share the benefit.

THAT'S GRAHAM'S POLICY—If we pick up a snip in Overcoats, we waive it with our customers; if we strike a lucky deal in Suits, our neighbors share in the savings. Graham's growth has been the reward of honest tactics and "diving up" with our patrons.

HERE'S THE PROOF—Quite a "Cinch" came our way lately in a purchase of Superior Winter Clothing from a city manufacturer. No firm would have refused it if they had had the chance of such under-price inducements for High-Class Ready Mades.

75 only Men's English and Canadian Tweed Suits and Blue and Black Serges, made up in the correct fall styles, regular $7.50, $8.50 and $10, on sale at Graham's 5.95 this week.

We guarantee in all instances that if goods are not satisfactory your money will be refunded.

48 only New Fall Styles of Men's Overcoats—long, loose and graceful styles, as well as short boy Chesterfield styles. The very best value advancing from $7.50 to $9. On sale at Graham's this week for only 4.95

65 Boys Winter Overcoats, equal at every point to Men's Coats, worth in the regular way $5.50 and $6 3.85 while they last.

175 pairs Men's Pants in Tweed and Worsted, mostly $1.25 and $1.50 sellers. A rare and important bargain for 98c

These are good solid reductions to correspond with the reductions made to us by the men who made them.

UNDERWEAR—Broken sizes in Underwear. Out they must go. We have had some heavy selling in Shirts and Drawers lately, and must clear these odd garments at a special price. Regular 50c garments for 35c. Regular 75c garments for 48c. Better come. Whatever your Underwear wants we'll suit you.
