

NOVEMBER 5th, 1903.

Nothing
 e for that you
 ary garments

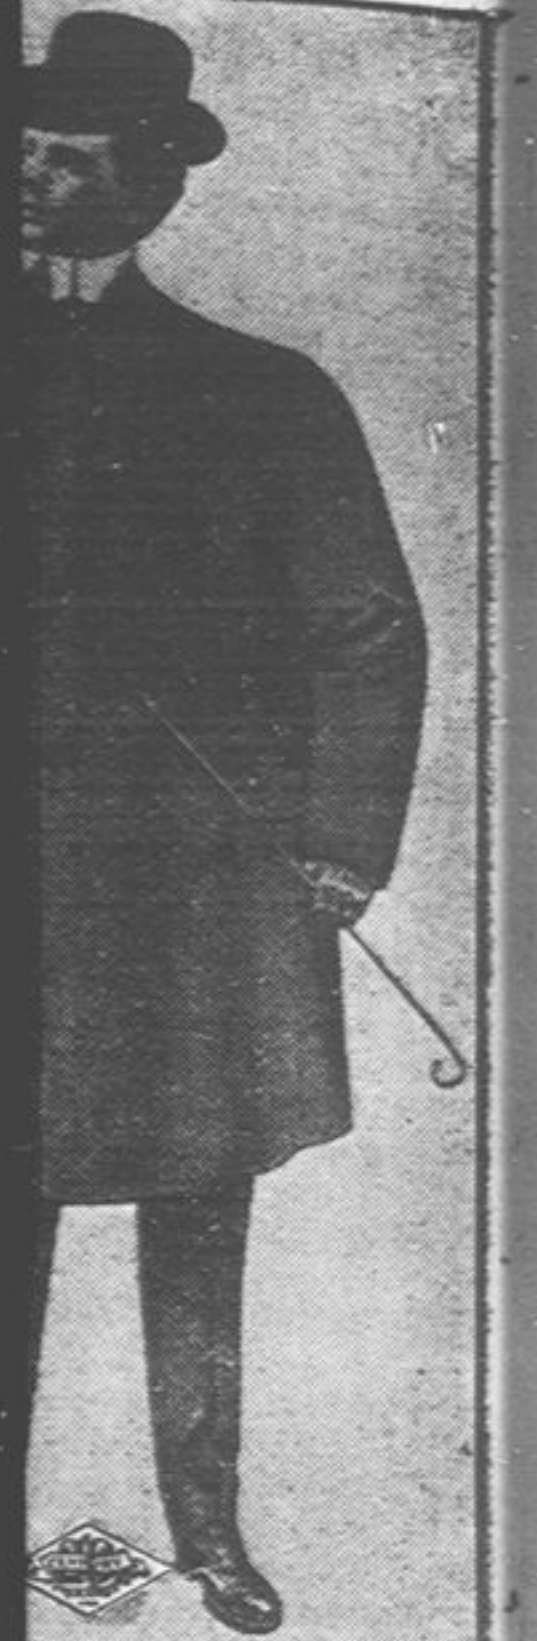

ITS

er-head Suits, French e breasted, high cut winter wear. 7.50

navy worsted finish-ty, splendid linings splendid for range. 10.00

neat, invisible stripe
 white body lining, vest; single breast-trunk and 14.00

ts, army cut front, stripe body lining,
 equal to any merchant the trade, 18.00

Children's Garments

priced and in great found in our Clothing section.
 well suited with uses of Children's store.

ment will be found Special atten-
 it here it's new."

ONS, Lindsay, Ontario

First-class Millinery Furnishing business, over 20 years. This ent opportunity to business with a first-and good stand. For particulars apply to MRS.
 27 William-st, Lind-

SALE.—Lot 20, con. 9, 5 acres east of Lindsay, 0 acres cleared, balance parac bush. On the
 a good frame barn
 For further particulars
 MRS. HUGH MORRIS,
 V. O'CONNOR, Bar-
 ay P.O. 43-4.

SALE.—In Mariposa 5 acres, 90 plow land,
 -class hardwood bush,
 sture; soil rich loam.
 dwelling, bank harper outbuildings good.
 -class farm, and will reasonable terms. Ap-PORTER, Watchman-
 44-4.

SALE.—Shorthorn
 e, male and female,
 y the sweepstakes bull Also a number of ceester Ram Lamb.
 ble. Apply to Jas.
 23. Con. 1, Mariposa,
 D. —42-4.

LOT TO RENT.—In
 lage. Comfortable stable and driving land; shop suitable Good opening for Rent reasonable.
 THORNBURY, Lind-
 3.

July 5th, 1903, bey and Cameron, La-Owner can have same property and paying
 RS. JAS. POWLES,
 rs.—43-3.

attle; 5 two-yearer, 4 heifers, one of jersey grade, all red
 -rings; 3 three-year-e red with white with more white with two rings in le in right ear. Any rmation of the same
 y rewarded. JOS-
 y, Cobocook. 39-11
 office—30-11.

STOCK HEALTH

Most of the remedies for curailments of animals are a mixture of good and bad. They date back to the time when hit-or-miss methods of treatment prevailed. Most of the powders aim at everything and hit nothing. OLD ENGLISH CONDITION
 POWDER is a remedy you can rely upon to improve the condition of all kinds of stock. It promptly cures, it purifies the blood, it stimulates the kidneys and liver to healthy activity, and is better in every way than any other Condition Powders.

Price per pkg., 6 pks for $1.00

HIGINBOTHAM
 Druggist...
 100 York St., Lindsay

SPECIAL COURSE
 Arranged for Farmer's Sons and Daughters at the Peterboro Business College Fees are Very Reasonable for the Course
 Write us for particulars.
W. PRINGLE, Principal
 Opposite Post Office.

Little Local Lines

WANTED.—To carry Watchman route. Apply at this office.

Mr. Douglas Sinclair has converted his old show room into a planing mill. Three new machines are being electric power.

Mr. Thos. Bowes, of Oakwood, last week sold his great prize-winning master, a fine bay gelding, to Toronto gentleman for $300.

According to the report of the Registrar of Registry offices, Register Barr last year registered 178 marriages and collected $2,134.15 in fees.

The first lecture of the Collegiate course will be delivered by Prof. Denison, police magistrate for Toronto, on Friday evening, Nov. 20th.

The person who took a coat from the Central House, Lindsay, last Saturday, in mistake, is requested to return the same and get his own, as it has save trouble.

Last week Mr. Geo. Arbuckle of Lindsay had his right foot crushed by the Raven Lake Cement Company's works, Elliott's Falls, by a very weight falling on it.

Balance of year free.—The Watchman-warder will be sent to any address within 20 miles of Lindsay free until the end of 1904 for 10 cents. Outside above distance the dollar.

Friday Col. Hughes will go to London to present the medal of the Canadian Royal Humane Association to Mr. Daniel Scott, who recently rescued a lad from the bottom of a well.

The public are requested to note that the annual meeting of the hospital on Thursday evening will be held in the assembly hall of the Collegiate Institute, instead of the councillor as at first announced.

"Bobbie" Spratt shot a big cat in Mr. Patrick O'Connell's barn near Cross Creeks this week.
 The cat had annoyed the farmers in the locality for some time and they were glad to hear of its demise.

Remember the concert and entertainment to-night under the auspices of L. O. L., No. 557, to be held in the council chamber. Doors open at 7.30. Concert commences at 8 o'clock sharp. Tickets for 25 cents; children 15c.

The Tate Optical Co's Eye Specialist, visits Lindsay every Tuesday. Special attention devoted to examination and care of the Eyes using Glasses and inserting Artificial Eyes. Tate Optical Co., Peterboro and Lindsay. Office over Dr. Sheard's drug store.—44-11.

On Tuesday morning Mr. Thos.
 Sheard was in the police court on a charge of having struck one of the boys. His statement that the provocation he had struck Milligan with his open hand, was regarded by the magistrate as a reason why the case should be dismissed.

The annual meeting of the Ross Hospital will be held in the assembly hall of the Collegiate Institute on Thursday evening, Nov.
 5th, at 7.30 o'clock. Dr. Sheard, medical health officer of the city of Lindsay, will deliver an address. It is hoped the public will show their interest by attending the meeting.

A local poet relieves himself as follows:
 I got a nine boys, Steers got raised his boot toe up and struck him mighty fine, and his meals from a mantle he got Jerry's nine.

The people of Verulam and Em-ly are waking up to the idea that the L. B. & P. railway bridge over Emily Creek ought to be either a swing or high enough to allow barges to pass under it; for when the T. V. canal is in operation barges ought to go up the creek to collect freight.

—The Parish Workers of St Paul's Church will hold their Annual Entertainment and sale of fancy goods on Thursday next, Nov. 12th. A special feature of the evening will be the Ladies' Home Journal booth at which subscriptions will be named for that publication. Admission, including refreshments, 10 cents.

—The weekly meeting of the Collegiate Institute Literary Society was held on Friday afternoon. The attendance was small. Mr. V. Glad-man gave a piano solo, Miss M.
 Warner gave a recitation and Miss H. Yarnold a piano solo. Mr.
 Hardy gave a very interesting and instructive talk on libraries. M. S.
 N. Secretary.

—On Saturday morning Mr. Geo.
 Dundas, of Pottery Corner, was driving to town a 8-year-old colt hitched to a light wagon. Mr. Pat.
 Welsh was riding with him. At the railway crossing the rig collided with one going in the opposite direction. The colt took fright, tipped out the two men, ran away, and between there and the station via Kent-st., demolished the rig.

—On Friday a deputation consisting of Mayor Sootheran, Alds. O' Reilly and McWatters, Senator Mc-Hugh, Mr. Thos. Stewart and Engineer Armstrong of the L. B. & P. railway went to Ottawa to appear before the Railway Committee of the House of Commons, to ask that the G. T. R. allow the new line to cross its spur line in the east ward.
 The G. T. R. officials appeared to object.

—Fireman Mount was killed, and Driver Maybee badly injured in a railway wreck at Beaverton about 7 o'clock Tuesday evening. A section of a grain train was left on the track under air brakes, while the engines and the rest of the cars went down the track. The air leaked out of the compartments and the released cars dashed down upon the returning other part of the train. Nine cars and an engine were wrecked.
 Conductor Greenbury was badly shaken up. The injured men are all in the town.

—The L. B. & P. construction gang have reached the iron bridge from the south. Foreman Macnamara said on Tuesday that the haul of earth to fill at that point was 1100 feet—about the limit for wheel scrapers; but that the teams made the trip in 10 minutes and brought nearly a yard of earth each. Mr. Macnamara has been at railway building most of his life, chiefly in the States. He was six years foreman of the cement work on the lift lock north of Peterboro. Mr. Geo. Smith, formerly of gas company, is timekeeper at the camp.

—Bobcaygeon Independent: A fine large partridge whirled into the village on Saturday morning, and he came in a hurry. Mr. Woolward in his dispensary mixing some medicine, when he was started by a terrific crash in front of the store. Rushing out he found one of the large panes of glass in the door shattered to fragments and scattered standing on the door step. As he opened the door, the partridge flew straight across to the Rockland, striking the wall, and from there flew to a tree in front of Robinson's store. After a rest and smoothing of his feathers, he sailed off to the railway grounds.

—Fenelon Falls Star: Mr. Joe De Monde, of Laxton, got kicked by a horse on Saturday afternoon, and sent into Cobocook for Dr. Thompson. While the latter was driving rapidly out towards De Monde's house, he saw a rig in front and called out to give way, and let him pass. The doctor was driving very rapidly and as the man in front turned partially out, the rig collided, with the result that Dr. Thompson was thrown violently into the ditch. He was knocked senseless, his side bruised, and suffered from concussion of the brain. Dr. Grant of Victoria Road was summoned to the injured man on Saturday evening, and on Sunday word was sent to Fenelon Falls for Drs. Graham and Wilson. They found the sufferer conscious and slowly improving Dr. Thompson formerly lived in Omemea and is well known in Lindsay.

—Bobcaygeon Independent: Miss Jeanette F. Robinson sailed last Saturday from New York, for India.
 For some few years past Miss Robinson has been teaching school at Welaskawin, in the Alberta district of the Northwest. Holding a first-class certificate as a teacher, she is a young lady of scholastic attainments, and has always had a leaning towards "going somewhere." She would have gone at one time to the Yukon, but was advised against doing so. Last summer she went to a Baptist conference, and a call being made for volunteers to take up missionary work in India, she there and then undertook to tackle the heated zone. The contract is for seven years, that being about as long a period as a European or foreigner, can stand the climate. The many friends of the plucky young lady will wish her all success, and hope for her safe return, with a rare fund of experiences, and a valuable collection of receipts for the pure-stuff in curry.

—Mr. Robt. Staples passed through town on Tuesday with 110 head of cattle that had summered on his ranch in the north country. They belonged to a dozen different family in Cavan. He stopped for the night about three miles south of town. The stock looked very well.

—Mr. Hugh O'Leary K. C. was in Peterboro on Thursday defending a Mr. Maher of Emily against a charge of stealing $115 from a Mr.
 Hickey of the same township. It was sworn that Maher had asked a Peterboro hotelman for a dollar and borrowed five cents from the hostler who by the way was Paddy May formerly of the Daly House here.
 The same day he and Hickey drove to Bridgenorth where they got some drinks and a bottle. After leaving there, Hickey fell out of the buggy and lay on the road from 9 o'clock in the morning till 11 o'clock at night when he woke up, to find that his pocket book with $115 in it was gone. During that day Maher was found lying in the ditch beside the horse and buggy, and with a roll of bills beside him. Hickey accused Maher of robbing him. For the defence it was sworn that Maher had plenty of money, and had said to the hostler as was his custom "Have you got the price of drink?" and when refused a bed had told the hotelman that he must give him either a bed or a dollar. Judgement was reserved.

Personals

—Miss Soanes is home from her visit to her brother in the Northwest.

—Mr. Will Neddo left on Monday morning for Ottawa, where he has a good position.

—Rev. S. J. Shorey of Picton was in town on Monday. He joined the Sinclair-Ellis hunting party.

—Miss Allan daughter of Dr. Alan left on Monday for New York to go into training for a nurse.

—Miss Annie Crandell, daughter of Freeman Crandell, is visiting her aunt Mrs. R. Smith, Chicago.

—The Rev. N. A. McIntyre, of Eton, performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIntyre, sister of the bride. The bride, was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-mire, and wore the time-honored veil and orange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIntyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter Annie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride,
 was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-
 mire, and wore the time-honored veil and or-
 ange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIn-
 tyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter An-
 nie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride,
 was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-
 mire, and wore the time-honored veil and or-
 ange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIn-
 tyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter An-
 nie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride,
 was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-
 mire, and wore the time-honored veil and or-
 ange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIn-
 tyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter An-
 nie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride,
 was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-
 mire, and wore the time-honored veil and or-
 ange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIn-
 tyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter An-
 nie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride,
 was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-
 mire, and wore the time-honored veil and or-
 ange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIn-
 tyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter An-
 nie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride,
 was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-
 mire, and wore the time-honored veil and or-
 ange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIn-
 tyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter An-
 nie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride,
 was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-
 mire, and wore the time-honored veil and or-
 ange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIn-
 tyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter An-
 nie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride,
 was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-
 mire, and wore the time-honored veil and or-
 ange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIn-
 tyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter An-
 nie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride,
 was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-
 mire, and wore the time-honored veil and or-
 ange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIn-
 tyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter An-
 nie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride,
 was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-
 mire, and wore the time-honored veil and or-
 ange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIn-
 tyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter An-
 nie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride,
 was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-
 mire, and wore the time-honored veil and or-
 ange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIn-
 tyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter An-
 nie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride,
 was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-
 mire, and wore the time-honored veil and or-
 ange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIn-
 tyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter An-
 nie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride,
 was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-
 mire, and wore the time-honored veil and or-
 ange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIn-
 tyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter An-
 nie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride,
 was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-
 mire, and wore the time-honored veil and or-
 ange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIn-
 tyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter An-
 nie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride,
 was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-
 mire, and wore the time-honored veil and or-
 ange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIn-
 tyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter An-
 nie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride,
 was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-
 mire, and wore the time-honored veil and or-
 ange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIn-
 tyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter An-
 nie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride,
 was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-
 mire, and wore the time-honored veil and or-
 ange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIn-
 tyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter An-
 nie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride,
 was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-
 mire, and wore the time-honored veil and or-
 ange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIn-
 tyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter An-
 nie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride,
 was given away by her father, who
 was attended in a gown of cream che-
 mire, and wore the time-honored veil and or-
 ange blossoms. Miss May McIntyre,
 the little nine-year-old cousin of the
 bride, acted as bridesmaid and was

—The home of Mr. W. A. McIn-
 tyre, Argyle, was the scene of a pretty
 home wedding on Wednesday, Oct.
 28th, when his eldest daughter An-
 nie was united in marriage to Mr.
 A. H. Burton. The Rev. N. A. McIn-
 tyre, of Eton, performed the cere-
 mony in the presence of a large num-
 ber of relatives. The wedding march
 was played by Miss Florence McIn-
 tyre, sister of the bride. The bride, was given