Branches of the Canadian Bank of Commerce have been opened at Fort William, Kamsack, Sask.; Kingston, Lashburn, Sask.; Lindsay, and Norwood, Man.

Mr. McLellan, the Superintendent of the Trent Canal, has informed the Orillia Board of Trade that unavoidable delays have prevented the opening of Kirkfield lift lock, but the engineer expects to get a boat over by Nov. 1st.

District Superintendent G. H. Hewson, of Cobourg, paid an official visit to the Royal Arch Chapter of the Masonic Order on Thursday evening last accompanied by Excellent Companions Claig, of Cobourg, and Birch, of St. Catharines. After the Chapter meeting a banquet was held at the Royal Hotel where Host McConnell provided a good spread, and a pleasant time was spent in toasts and speech making.

All outstanding accounts in connection with my grocery shoe business, must be paid on or before the 20th day of December, 1906. Those not paid on said date will be placed in court for collection. P. J. HURLEY.

You can save money on your fall purchase if you take advantage of Sutcliffe's big sale now going on.

Christian Guardian: The division of the Little Britain Circuit, by the last Conference, give promise of prosperity. With two appointments, viz., Little Britain and Valencia, the Official Board voted $900 salary to the pastor, Rev. J. E. Moore, Ph.D. The Board also has put in the parsonage a new "Oxford Colonial" range and paid for it. Revival services are now in progress in Little Britain, conducted by Mr. Moore, who is a born revivalist.

Harry Lindley is playing in Western Ontario, supported by his daughter, Flora Mystic Lindley, aged fifteen years, who is said to have much dramatic talent. By the way, how old is Harry? He always seems to keep young.

Upwards of four miles of new cement sidewalk have been laid in Cannington this season. Part of the work was done by Mr. James M. Chalmers, of Lindsay, and the rest by town men.

DR. OLIVE REA

presents her compliments, and desires to inform the public that she has removed from Toronto to Lindsay, and has opened her office at No. 61 Kent St. Special attention will be given to diseases of women and children.—44-1 yr.

Bobcaygeon Independent: The offering taken at the Methodist church on Sunday last was not quite all that was required, but it was a very good contribution, and much more satisfactory than the tea meeting mode of collection. Rev. Mr. Phelps, of Lindsay, delivered two fine addresses that were greatly appreciated by the congregation.

A young man was last Friday fined by Police Magistrate Jackson $15 and costs, a total of $18.95 for loitering in barrooms, two offences having been proven.

Read Sutcliffe's ad. on page 12. They are clearing out their Peterboro stock at the Lindsay store. We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the National Railway Training School, of Minneapolis, Minn., which will be found in another column. This school provides the training which is so necessary nowadays for the applicant for a railroad position. The instruction given by this school is wholly by mail, thus making it unnecessary for the student to leave home. Many young men on the farms and in the cities and towns deplore the lack of opportunity to get ahead in the world, when the fact is opportunities are to be found on every side if one has the ability to grasp them.

A new photo studio has just been opened with the latest and most modern improvements for first-class photography. Call and see samples of work, also prices. Over Fleury's grocery store. M. Oliver, Photo Artist.—43-3.

The Sun as a farm journal is written for the practical, everyday farmer. It is not filled with long essays or doubtful theories, but gives in plain, everyday language a host of helpful suggestions to the tillers of the soil. In this particular The Sun is without an equal. You ought to read it regularly.

For Adoption.—A nice baby boy, six months old. For particulars apply to Dr. White, Pres., or Mrs. E. E. Sharpe, Sec. C. A. Society.—44-1.

The annual meeting of the Ross Memorial Hospital will be held in the Collegiate Institute on Thursday evening, November 1st, 1906, at 5.30 o'clock. An invitation is extended to all citizens.—43-2.

Personals

Peterboro Review: Mrs. W. J. Mullen and Mrs. E. Edwards, of the Kawartha Rebecca Lodge degree team, Lindsay, who were in the city Friday were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Hall, 267 Charlotte-st. They returned home Saturday morning.

Cannington Gleamer: Messrs. A. W. Shier, of Toronto, and H. F. Shier, of Manasquan, New Jersey, have been called to their father's bedside, Mr. Joshua Shier, who is very ill. Dr. Shier, of Lindsay, a brother of Mr. Shier, was in town on Monday.

Mrs. Jackson, wife of Prof. W. H. Jackson, returned last week from a stay of several weeks at Nettleton. Speaking of the removal of Miss Lottie Macnevin from Fenelon Falls to take a position on the Cayuga Advocate the Star says: "In her capacity here as reporter for the Watchman-Warder and in her contributions to several of the monthly magazines and city dailies she has proved herself a newspaper writer of no mean ability, and in this particular, as well as in the social and church life she will be greatly missed in Fenelon Falls. Her many friends here will watch with deep interest her progress in her new sphere."

Mr. Robert Burke, of Lachlin, Ont., was in town Friday on his way to New Ontario, where he has a mining claim.

Mr. George M. McDonald, of the McLennan Produce Company, Toronto, spent a few days of this week in town.

Strathroy Dispatch: Mr. Roy Lamont, son of Mr. N. Lamont, Lindsay, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Richards. On Sunday evening he sang "Calvary" in faultless style at St. John's church, his rich tenor voice adding additional charm to this beautiful sacred song. His effort was acknowledged to be one of the most pleasing numbers ever heard in the church.

Peterboro Review of Friday last: His Honor Judge McMillan, of Lindsay, is in the city to-day, and is registered at the Oriental hotel. This is his Honor's first visit to Peterboro, although he has several warm friends here, among whom are Mr. and Mrs. K. Eardley-Wilnot. Judge McMillan was only appointed in February last.

Mr. R. Shier, shipper at the Sylvester Works, has moved his family to Toronto.

Mr. Leonard W. Hardie, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Peter Wilson, south Cambridge-st., left on Monday morning for his home in San Francisco, after an absence on holiday of about six months.

His Honor Judge Harding returned on Monday night from his trip to the west, on which he has been absent some three months. He went as far north as the summit of the White pass. One of the most enjoyable portions of his trip was that along the western coast of British Columbia and Alaska by steamer among the islands. He describes it as magnificent, including great variety of scenery and the witnessing of the formation of icebergs.

Mr. David S. Spence, who has for the last two months been engaged in the mechanical department of the Watchman-Warder, left yesterday for home in Dunfermline, Scotland, being called there by the illness of his mother. He sails by the Empress of Ireland from Quebec to-morrow.

Minden Echo Mr Herbert James, one of Lochlin's enterprising farmers, is at present improving the farm he has recently bought near Lindsay. Mr. James intends moving on his farm with his family in the spring. He will be greatly missed in this locality, and his friends wish him and his family success in his new home.

Mr. Thos. Johnston, of Fenelon Falls, was in town yesterday for a few hours. He has secured a good position with the Woodbine Lumber Co., of Toronto, and will move his family to that city later on. Mr. Johnston has been connected with the lumber business in Fenelon Falls for the past 35 years, and in his removal the village loses an upright, enterprising citizen.

On October 25th Mrs. Little left for Toronto to reside. The hostess with Mrs. Shier and their mother, Mrs. Workman, received in the drawing room, and Mrs. Little was assisted in the tea room by Mesdames McAdams, and Free and Misses Henderson, Jackson and Workman. Mrs. Lillian Jackson was pianiste. Both rooms were tastefully decorated with autumn leaves and berries.

Notice!

As I will remove with my family to Toronto by November 15, all persons indebted to me are requested to call on or before Nov. 10th, as after that date my books will be given over to a collector. D. W. SHIER, M.D. 43-2.
