MR. R. BRYANS.

Mr. R. Bryans, one of the members of the Board of Governors, spoke briefly, but pointedly. The reports, he thought, were very gratifying, and he believed that particalar credit was due the ladies of the auxiliary for their good work. The Ross Memorial Hospital had been doing splendid service. The public appreciated this and had only praise for the institution. The lady superintendent, the staff, the doctors, the practice economy wherever it is pos. had resolved itself into a matter of "is a very worthy and well-managed board and the public were all co-op-the by-laws said on this point. In reply, Mr. Flavelle said that the by-laws allowed patients paying 50 cents per day or more and who did not wish to have the Hospital physician attend them to select their own physician.

DR. BLANCHARD.

Dr. Blanchard said the point raised by Dr. White has been very strongly forced to his attention in the year, as it had no doubt with other doctors. He thought patients able to pay should not secure free medical attendance. Also he believed that many from outside points went into the public or semi-private wards to escape the expense. He thought that all able to pay should be required to do so. If the by-laws were defective in preventing the privileges of the hospital being over-used in this respect the by-laws should be changed, so as to meet the difficulty. The Hos- VISIT FROM MR. JAMES pital was always willing to give its service free when necessary, but where people of means tried to use the public or semi-private wards in this way, it should be stopped. In this, Mr. Flavelle thought the local physicians could render valuable assistance in keeping the lady superintendent posted.

DR. BURROWS.

Dr. Burrows thought at one time the rules were too rigidly enforced in this matter, and that a certain amount of latitude should always allowed in dealing with all cases.
