HON. GEO. E. FOSTER, M.P., ADDRESSES BIG MEETING

Liberal-Conservative Mass Meeting Last Wednesday Evening—Eloquent and Forceful Addresses from Hon. Geo. E. Foster, Col. S. Hughes, M.P., S. J. Fox, M.P.P., and Others—Between 800 and 900 Present—An Enthusiastic Meeting.

Although the mass meeting called by the Liberal-Conservative Association for Wednesday evening of last week was prepared for and advertised on very short notice, yet the big meeting itself was in every way a most gratifying success.

GOOD MUSIC: The Sylvester Band of Lindsay, under the very able leadership of Mr. W. H. Roenigk, furnished a very liberal supply of excellent band music during the evening with much credit to them and much pleasure to the large gathering.

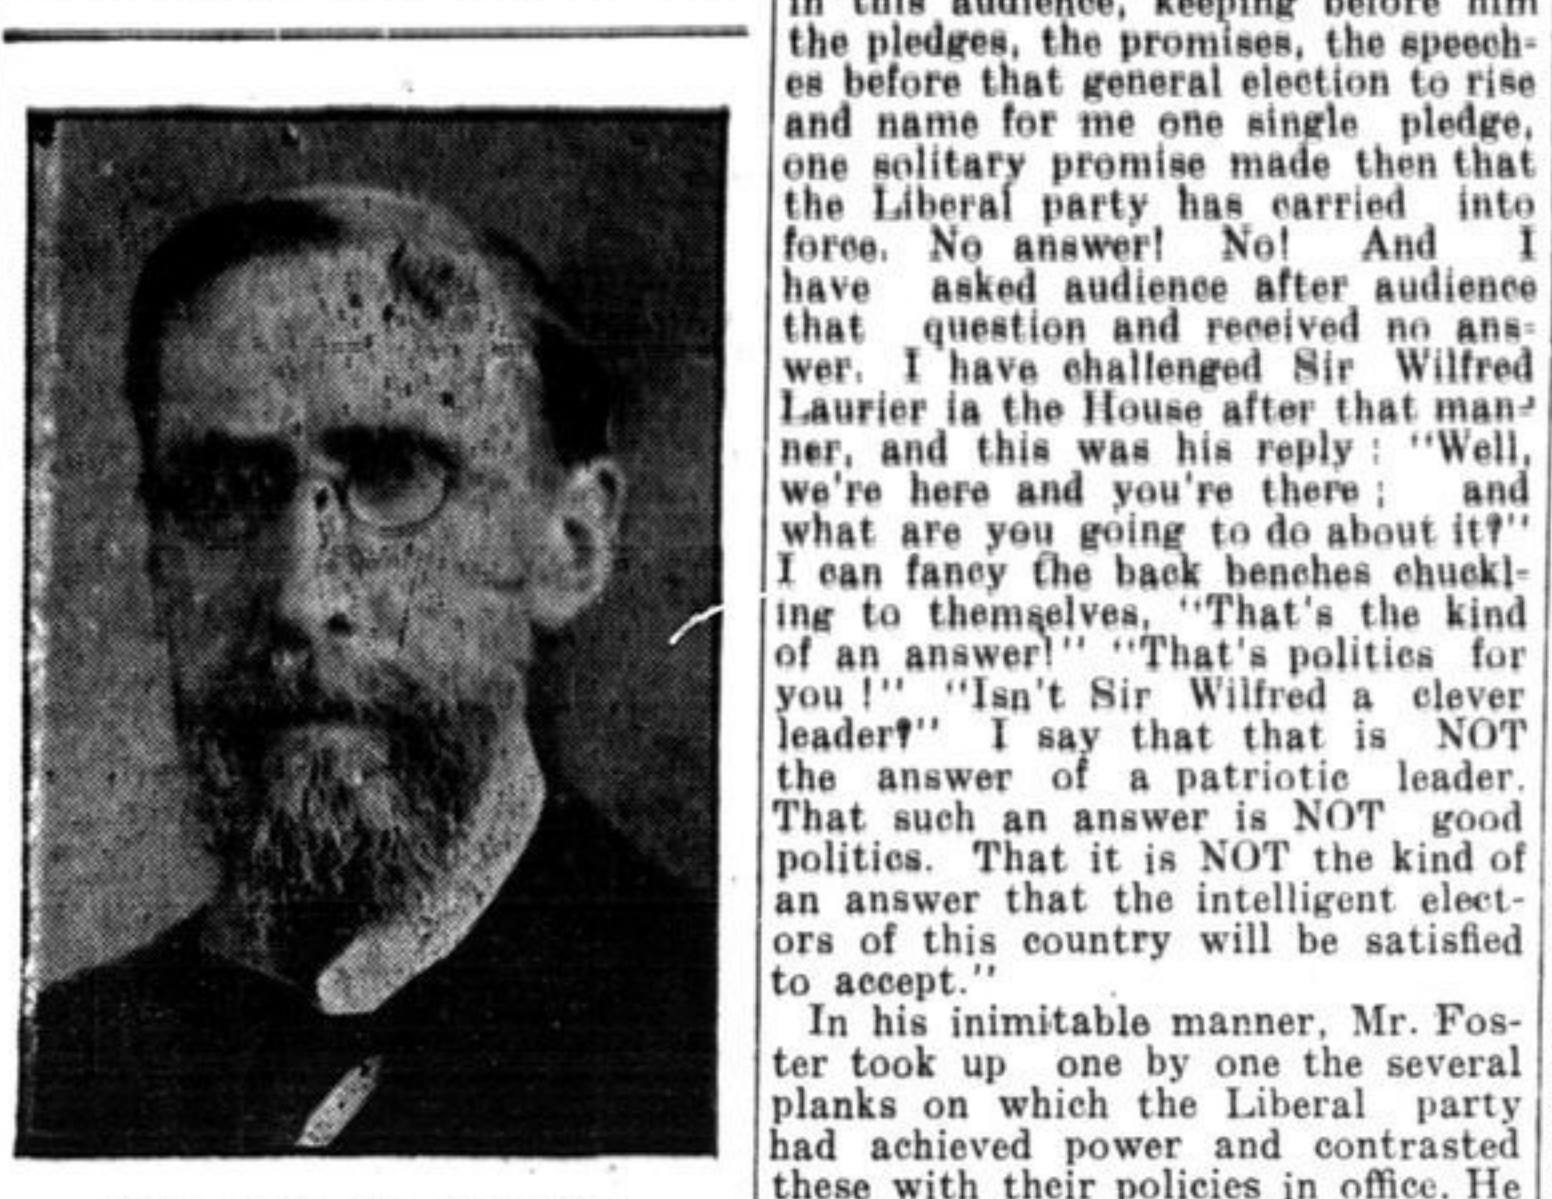

THE CHAIRMAN: Chairman Sootheran, in opening the meeting, made a few remarks on the local outlook, and voiced the general feeling of appreciation for the visiting speaker, Hon. Geo. E. Foster.

MR. S. J. FOX, M. P. P.: Mr. Fox, on rising to speak, was very well received. He said he did not intend to make an address of any length as the audience would have the pleasure during the evening of listening to one of Canada's foremost orators who would handle Dominion affairs in an able, eloquent manner, and treat them fully in the way they should be treated.

MR. JOHNSON ELLIS: Mr. Johnson Ellis, president of the Liberal-Conservative Association of Victoria and Haliburton, was next called on. Mr. Ellis in a brief speech asked for work, work, work!

COL. S. HUGHES: Col. Hughes, M.P., for Victoria and Haliburton, made a brief but stirring address. He spoke in the highest words of praise of the ability, integrity and the public-spiritedness of Hon. Geo. E. Foster.

of the past. Every man should have independence enough to look into the records of Governments and courage and faithfulness to his responsibilities as a citizen to let the results of such investigations decide his voting.

HON. GEO. E. FOSTER, M.P., Ex-Minister of Finance of Canada.

We have exposed travesties on policies; we have unearthed peculiar book-keeping methods; we have discovered wrongful expenditures; we have shown up extravagances, illegalities and frauds; and what we have accomplished is but the one-tenth part of what might have been achieved had not the majority in the house, the rulings of the chairmen, and other devices known to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Government, stood between us and the obtaining of the information, and the disclosures that the Opposition were on the track of and that the people of this country were entitled to be informed of in fullest detail.

After a few well-chosen words of apology for Mr. Foster, Col. Hughes withdrew.

HON. GEO. E. FOSTER: When Mr. Foster came forward on the call of the chairman he was greeted with round after round of hearty, welcoming applause, and it was several minutes before he could commence his address.

Mr. Foster is any man known in Lindsay to need much introduction, and his fearless fairness, his witty eloquence and his clear and able exposition of whatever subject he may take up are always potent factors in drawing a large audience in this town.

In opening his address Hon. Mr. Foster made a few introductory remarks, and among other things complimented the town on the steady progress it was making.

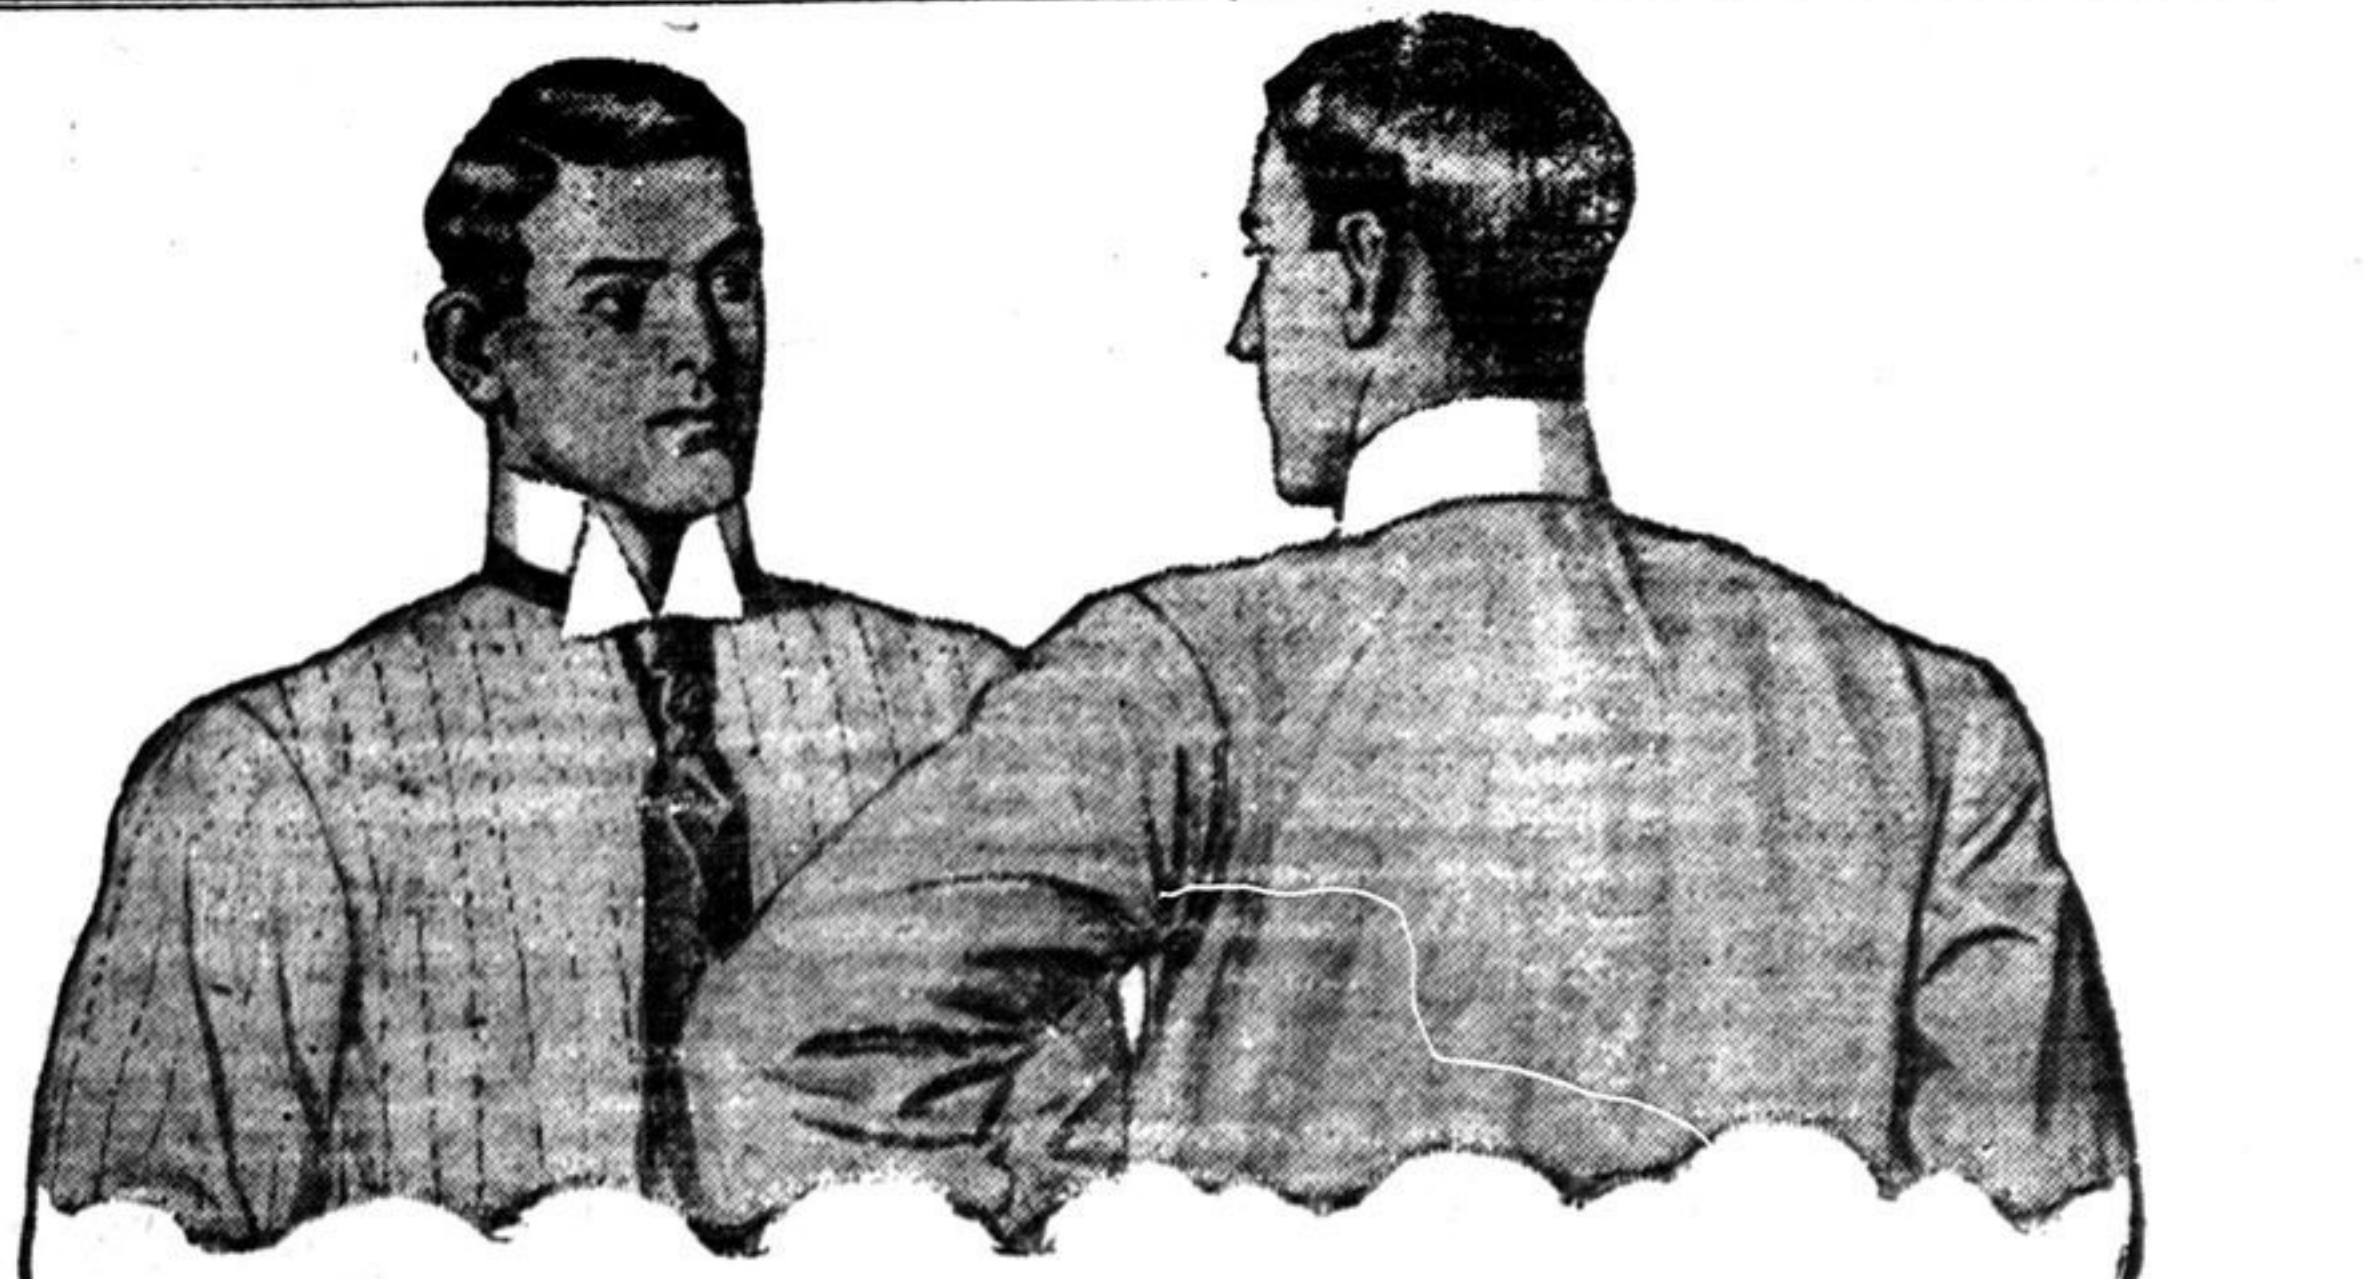

honestly replies: "In less than ten years we will change that extravagant economy by spending only 120 millions instead of 45, as the Tories have done."

"We will eat every word we have said," replies the Premier, "and Protection shall be our companion by day and shall sleep with us at night. That's what we'll do!"

"We will make the public life of Canada corrupt; we will disfranchise 9000 voters in the Northwest; we will wink at bribery and corruption and connive at the escape of the guilty. That's what we'll do."

After you have cornered a Liberal in every other point, he has one argument always ready as a last resource—that the country is prosperous. "Yes, and this wave of prosperity has been general," continued Mr. Foster.

Mr. Foster spoke briefly on the (Continued on page 5)
