THE WEEK'S NEWS of the COUNTY and DISTRICT

KIRKFIELD

Mr. Hugh Chisholm, of Winnipeg, visited his brother-in-law, Mr. J. R. McKay for a few days last week. Mr. Albert Hyfield, of Toronto, formerly of Kirkfield, was in town on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Bruce. Mr. G. F. Bruce, of Beaverton, spent Wednesday last with relatives in town. Judge Harding and R. J. McLaughlin, K.C., of Lindsay, called here on business last Thursday. Mr. A. N. Campbell was in Toronto last Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. A. A. Sangster returned from Woodbridge on Wednesday 20th inst., and will remain here for the winter.

ously ill, and friends are anxious about her condition. Mrs. Bickell and Miss Bickell, of Eldon Station, have moved into the rooms next Mrs. Emsur's millinery shop. Miss Bickell has her dress-making rooms there also. Miss Mary Steele, of Balsover, spent a few days last week with Mrs. L. McFadyen. A baby girl arrived last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Truman, south of the village. Congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDonald, of the eighth concession expect to move next week to their new home in Woodville. Mr. Coulter, of Bobcaygeon, has bought their farm, and will take possession immediately. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald's many friends will regret their leaving, as they are old residents and very deeply respected and loved. "Wise," a valuable wire-haired terrier belonging to Mr. A. N. Campbell was shot on Saturday by order of the village trustees. He was caught in the act of worrying a sheep and there are still two more dogs wanted for the same offence. The new school is almost finished, and will be a perfectly appointed little building. A congregational meeting was called for last evening (Wednesday) at 7.45 in the lecture room of the Presbyterian church, to discuss the advisability of holding the annual New Year's tea and entertainment. Rev. Wesley, of Sunderland, will conduct both services in St. Andrew's church next Sunday. The afternoon service will be devoted to missions and the special thank offering of the Women's Foreign Mission Society will be taken. This will be Kirkfield's first opportunity to hear Mr. Wesley as he is but newly ordained. The Sunday school intend to hold a Christmas entertainment this year. The children of the Public school are practising diligently to make their Christmas tree and concert a success. The ladies of Kirkfield are giving a dance in McKenzie's Hall to-morrow evening. About fifty persons have been invited. Miss Brown's recital on Friday was attended by a fairly large number. Piano selections were given by Miss Brown, Miss Campbell, Miss Teresa McDonald, Master Jack King and Master Rod Gusty. Vocal numbers were rendered by Miss Brown, Miss M. Brown, Miss Velina Ashman and Master Carl Ashman. Miss Maude Mosgrove gave two entertaining readings. Master Carl Ashman's singing would have done credit to a boy twice his age, and Rod Gusty's songs were persistently enjoyed. The Presbyterian choir's concert on Saturday, Nov. 23rd, was very successful, and much enjoyed. The stage was beautifully arranged, deep red rugs, wicker chairs, bunting, Chinese lanterns and palms all went together to make a most charming setting for the performers. Rev. H. H. Turner acted as chairman. The opening number, a piano solo by Miss Creasy was unusually well played, and was followed by vocal selections, solos, duets, trios, etc., by Mrs. Turner, Miss McInnes, Messrs. Cowper, Dribbidge and MacInnes. Miss Mosgrove gave a recitation; Carl Ashman repeated the song he gave at Miss Brown's recital. Rud McKay's instrumental solo was applauded. All these numbers were given in a most pleasing style, but the selections that received the greatest applause were Mr. Cowper's accordion solos. Before hearing Mr. Cowper play, few had any idea that such excellent music could be produced on an accordion. Both Mr. Cowper's numbers were heartily enjoyed. The farce, "A Premature Proposal", was most laughable, and the characters were ably represented. "The Bridal Wine Cup" was a pretty little temperance play. Those taking part in it were: Misses McGirr, Dalgleish, and Kerr, Messrs. McLaren, McPherson, McGirr and Steele, all of Balsover. The finale, "Plantation Song," received the hearty encore it deserved. The proceeds, which amounted to about twenty-three dollars, will go to the buying of music for the choir.

KINMOUNT

Dental.—One of the firm of Neel and Irvine, dentists, Lindsay, will be at the Northern Hotel, Kinmount, on Friday, Dec. 6th. Call in forenoon if possible.—48-1.

VICTORIA ROAD

Everyone enjoyed the social evening which was given at Mrs. Davey's home last Tuesday under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society. Miss Sara and "Jenn" Shields are at present visiting friends in Peterboro and Mount Pleasant. Mr. Newman, of Woodville, addressed the Epworth League Society on Monday night. His subject, "Getting acquainted with God," was very profitable, and much enjoyed. We hope that Mr. Newman will visit us again soon. If this weather continues we shall have skating soon in the Victoria rink. We are patiently waiting, but hustling in the meantime. Business has been so increasing with Mr. Ryckman that he has had to add to his staff, and another man is swinging the axvil. Miss Margaret Shields is home after spending a month with Toronto and Oakwood friends. Miss Ella Ryckman spent a week with friends in Norland. Mr. E. V. Moore, of Peterboro, was in the village on business last week. Mr. Cameron has opened a new blacksmith shop in town. We wish him success. There is a new barber in town. Mr. Bell, from the far West, has opened the much-needed shop.

MR. R. R. HALL, M.P., TO MOVE ADDRESS.

The session of the Dominion Parliament opens to-day (Thursday) for the despatch or otherwise of business and otherwise. The honor of moving the adoption of the address in reply to the "Speech from the Throne," has been given to Mr. R. R. Hall, M.P., for West Peterborough, who will no doubt make the welkin ring with his forceful and graceful eloquence.

LINDEN VALLEY MEETING OF WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.

The December meeting of the Linden Valley (West Victoria) Women's Institute, will be held on Thursday, December 5th, at 2.30 p.m. Discussion.—Christmas Cooking and Gifts. Paper.—Making the Home Attractive. Mrs. J. Birchard, Miss Ella Dale, Miss R. Cullis. Place.—Mrs. B. Cruess' home.

IS NAVIGATION OPEN.

Everyone is aware that it was Sir Wilfred Laurier who made the Dominion of Canada; that it is his sunny smiles that make the sun to shine; that life and liberty and prosperity alike are due alone to him; that without his gentle, gracious care life in this Canada of ours would be a dull and aching void; that without the loving supervision of this wonderful French gentleman Canada, and all within her gates would perish miserably. That Sir Wilfred makes the wheat to grow; the flowers to bloom; the factories to bustle; the country to prosper and the world to move has always been admitted by his benchmen. Yet when this wonderful government issued its proclamation and promise that navigation would be kept open until Dec. 15th, none doubted but that Sun and Moon and Stars and all of life in Nature and the World would still conspire to do the bidding of the great and gracious one. Yet for once only partiality did Nature heed the command of the Mighty Man as may be learned with sorrow by a Trusting Nation as they read the following from that staunch little Liberal paper, the Fenelon Falls Gazette. "Mr. John Frost" will now no doubt be excommunicated from the Liberal ranks, and go down in ignominy in Liberal annals as a fit associate only for such terrible Tory monsters as Colonel Hughes, et al. The Gazette says with tears in its eyes (the tears were plainly visible in our copy of the paper this week)—the Gazette says with sobs unutterable and sadness fierce:—"On Tuesday evening about twenty residents of the Falls left on the steamer "Kawartha" for Cobocok, to attend the fowl supper and entertainment being held at that village under the auspices of the Church of England. As the water in the vicinity of the Falls was still open, and steamers running on it every day, no trouble was anticipated, and everything was lovely until Ball Island in Balsam Lake, was reached. Here the channel was found to be frozen over with ice so thick that a passage could not be made, and an attempt to reach Indian Point, which is only three miles from Cobocok, proved equally unsuccessful, so the party was reluctantly compelled to return to the Falls. As several of the passengers were expecting to take part in the program at Cobocok, the blockade was a great disappointment both to the people on the boat and the management of the entertainment."

BALSAM LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Richman and Master Sanford have returned from visiting friends in Toronto and Hamilton.

Mrs. T. McNish is in Toronto visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. Rutherford and Mrs. W. Hoyle.

Miss Bertha Richman has returned to Cobocok after spending some time with her parents at Balsam Lake. She will be much missed by her friends.

We announce with regret the coming departure of Mrs. McDonald, who intends spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Howard Staples, of Oakhill.

The question has been asked why it is that the Palestine boys keep such wild horses. When they take them to church instead of improving their ways it helps to make them worse. The fields and trees are taking on a wintry appearance, and snow is soon expected.

DEATH OF MR. WM. CORLEY

ONE OF THE PIONEER RESIDENTS OF THIS DISTRICT. There passed away last week at his residence, lot 20, con. 2, Ops, Mr. William Corley, aged 97 years. He deceased was born in Sligo, Ireland, and came to Canada 60 years ago. He settled first on the present homestead and had been a respected and esteemed resident for the ensuing six decades. Fifty-eight years ago the late William Corley was married, and the widow, now in her 88th year, survives. Two sons and two daughters are also among the nearer surviving relatives. The sons are: Mr. Richard Corley, of Bellograve, Simcoe County, and Mr. James Corley, on the homestead. The two daughters reside at home. The funeral took place on Monday, Nov. 25th, at 2.30 to Riverside cemetery, and service was conducted by Rev. C. H. Marsh. The late Wm. Corley was a man well known, and very highly respected by all: He was of a quiet, unobtrusive nature, but those who knew him well found that beneath a retiring nature there were innumerable high qualities of heart and mind. He was one of the very first of the pioneers of this district, and cleared his farm from the wild bush. Mr. Chas. Britton is perhaps the only man still in Lindsay, who was here when Mr. Corley came here first. The deceased served in the Irish Constabulary in the Old Country, and he carried to this new home the qualities that were useful in the old, courage, faithfulness to duty and well placed energy. The late Wm. Corley was one of the oldest residents of the district, and

ALUMINUM PAINT EXPLODED

BAD ACCIDENT TO MRS. GEO. ADAMS.—DAMAGE CAUSED BY FIRE.

While enamelling a stove with aluminum paint, Mrs. Geo. Adams met with a peculiar and unfortunate accident on Tuesday afternoon. The stove was not cool enough apparently and when application of the paint was made the aluminum took fire. Burning paint was thrown all over the room; the curtains took fire and the blaze spread quickly. Mrs. Adams had one hand and arm rather severely burned.

An alarm of fire was rung in and neighbors came to help put out the blaze, which was assuming threatening proportions. Carpets were damaged, curtains, blinds, etc., burned and furniture injured, but the quick effective work of the neighbors succeeded in putting out the fire. The fire team made a record run, but the worst of the fire had been gotten under control.

COUNTY COUNCIL

COMPLETED THEIR NOVEMBER SESSION ON SATURDAY LAST.

The County Council completed the sitting of the November session on Saturday after transacting a large volume of routine business. Outside of the matters referred to last week no large questions were before the body to deal with. The reports of the various committees, the various communications and accounts to be dealt with received full consideration and were disposed of. On motion of Mr. Shaver, seconded by Mr. Beatty, a very hearty vote of thanks was tendered the Warden for his excellent services during his year.

Mr. Dan Derbyshire to be a Senator

Mr. Dan Derbyshire, ex-M.P., of Brockville, president of the Eastern Ontario Dairymen's Association, and well known in this district for the live interest he has taken in the cheese industry, is slated as one of the three Ontario men to fill the vacancies in the Senate. Mr. Archibald Campbell, M. P. for Centre York, and Hon. A. A. Belcourt, M. P. for Ottawa, are the other two gentlemen named. After this the Senate should lose some of its reputation as a resting, sleeping place. Even the sleepy Senate will certainly have to get wide awake and listen with interest when the genial Daniel gets a-going, as he is bound to do, about the great cheese industry, and why and wherefore everything about the dairy business should be kept clean and cool and sweet, including the cow, the stable, the milk, the cream, and the hired girl—particularly the hired girl. Mr. Dan Derbyshire ought to be able to FILL any chair in the Senate, and fun will drive dread sleep away. Here's to the new Senator—the Honorable Dan Derbyshire! Your health, sir, in the healthful where! May your life in the new sphere be long and useful like the cow, your record pure and clean as is the milk, and may you ever be beloved about the Upper House, as is beloved and a day the hired girl.

The meeting was opened by the reading of the last meeting's minutes, after which the following programme was given:— I. This number consisted of an instrumental by a mock orchestra. II. The second number was a debate between Forms III and IV. The subject of debate was, "Resolved that Asiatic immigration is harmful to Canada." Both sides debated well, but the judge decided in favor of the negative side upheld by IV Form. III. The meeting was brought to a close by "God Save the King," by Mr. McRae.

Taylor—Ellis

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Ellis, Cambridge street, Lindsay, the marriage of Miss Margaret Ellis to Mr. Franklin Stearns Taylor, druggist, Spadina Ave., Toronto, was solemnized on Wednesday, November 27th, at half past two o'clock in the afternoon. The house was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums, palms and ferns. The Rev. Dr. Bishop, B. A., pastor of the Cambridge street Methodist church, officiated. Mr. Taylor, a young man of Bowmansville, gave a pleasing rendition of the bridal hymn, "O Perfect Love," during the signing of the register. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in her travelling suit of rich cream corduroy velvet. She carried a shower bouquet of ferns and bridal roses. The bride and groom were attended by little Miss Mona Saddler as flower girl and Master James Wakely as page. Miss Mona was dressed in a dainty white mulle inserted with duchess lace, and Master James in a smart suit of brown velvet. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left on the evening train for Toronto, where they will take up residence.
