Mrs. E. P. Richards Tells How Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Her

AFTER SUFFERING FOR TWENTY-EIGHT YEARS FROM PAINS AND SLEEPLESSNESS, DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS THE ONLY MEDICINE SHE WANTS.

Cottle's Cove, Notre Dame Bay, Nfld., Nov. 5.—(Special)—Grand News for suffering women is that being scattered broadcast by Mrs. Elizabeth P. Richards of this place. For years she suffered from that terrible weakness and those agonizing pains so many women know. She has found relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills and she wants all suffering women to know it.

"For twenty-eight years," says Mrs. Richards, "I suffered from rheumatism, kidney trouble and neuralgia. I got so weak I could not do my housework. Sleep was out of the question except for a few minutes at a time. My back ached so I could not sleep. I tried all kinds of medicine and had come to the conclusion that there was no cure for me, when reading advertisements led me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I now sleep well and rise refreshed every morning. Dodd's Kidney Pills are all the medicine I want."

The woman who has healthy kidneys will never know the pains and weakness that make life hardly worth living. Dodd's Kidney Pills always make healthy kidneys.

24 POUND TURNIP.

W. A. Stabler, of Peterboro, is the authority for the statement that Mr. T. H. Northey of the 15th con. of Smith, took in a Swede turnip yesterday weighing 24 pounds. Three of them were placed on the scales and tipped the beam at 47 1/2 lbs. All of them are of extraordinary size and the crop throughout the country is a heavy one.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Millbrook, Nov. 4.—On returning from the village last evening, Mr. John Greer, who resides about four and a half miles from here, was startled to find Robert Irwin, who had been staying with him, hanging from a rope in the kitchen, dead. During Mr. Greer's absence Irwin, a man between sixty and seventy years of age, had apparently committed suicide by hanging himself. He had arranged a rope from the ceiling, and then fixed it about his neck and strangled. There were no marks of the rope on the neck, the coat collar have been turned up, this evidently having been done to prevent there being any. Mr. Greer notified the authorities, but no inquest will be held.

The unfortunate man had, until a few days ago, been an inmate of the House of Refuge at Cobourg, when he left there and came to Mr. Greer's house. A wife, two sons, and two daughters survive him, but it is said they have had nothing to do with the deceased for some years. The village council are looking after the burial of the body, which will take place to-morrow.

No motive is given for the man's rash.

KIRKFIELD

Hallowe'en was royally spent by the children, young boys, and older ones. They lined up about 12 p.m. They played harmless tricks and in the morning the town was decorated with old wagons and buggies. Some of the older folks are very angry at the boys, but those are the ones who can sit by the fireside and tell their own children of the tricks they did when they were boys. However, if Magistrate Moore has to take a trip to Victoria Road, we hope he will do as our town fathers, tell the boys to leave everything back, and be good boys the rest of their days. Some of the boys think it is pretty hard work taking so many things back to where they belong and make no mistakes.

Mr. A. A. Sangster, of Trenton, spent Sunday with his wife and family here.

Mrs. W. T. MacRae spent Saturday in Woodville with her cousin.

Re the new Ontario readers much has been said. One of your correspondents deprecates the substitution of Kipling's Recessional for Gray's Elegy, and bemoans the fact that several nursery rhymes are embodied in the new primary reader. We believe Gray's Elegy too difficult for the average fourth book scholar, and hence better reserved for the High school. As to the Recessional it may not be a perfect masterpiece of literature, but it instills some truths sorely needed by this material age. The insertion of nursery rhymes for the baby classes we think, was a wise stroke. They are very interesting and appeal very strongly to the imaginative young. They also admit of splendid expression which could not be secured from a great many passages in the old primers.
